TO THE ELECTORS—

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN—Your votes and influence are respectfully solicited to elect me as School Trustee at the coming election.

W. H. GODWIN.

Elector of Victoria Ward

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN—

Having been nominated to represent you on the Board of Education, I desire to state that I accept the nomination, and if elected I shall appreciate not alone the honor, but also the responsibility which you have conferred upon me. The time is so limited that I shall not be able to canvass you personally, and, therefore, I shall take only this means to solicit your votes, and shall rely upon you for your support. Wishing you all a happy and prosperous 1913.

THOMAS MILLS.
