UNITED IN MARRIAGE

PROF. WILLIAM NICOL WEDDED MISS SUSAN BLACK.

Rev. Dr. Macgillivray officiated. Several Other Marriages Were Performed During the Week.

A quiet wedding took place on Tuesday morning at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. L. Black, 293 Albert street, when her only daughter, Susan, was married to William Nicol, professor of mineralogy, School of Mining, Queen's university. Rev. Dr. Macgillivray officiated. Only immediate relatives were present.

Prof. and Mrs. Nicol have gone to the east for a short trip, and on their return will take up residence in Kingston.

Rogers—Overbaugh

Two popular young people of the city were wedded on Monday evening by Rev. John Webster, pastor of Brock street Methodist church. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Overbaugh, Stephen street, when their youngest daughter, Doris May, was married to Francis Bruce Rogers, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. X. Rogers, Clarence street.

Miss Jennie Rogers, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid, and Lorne Overbaugh, brother of the bride, supported the bridegroom. Mrs. Rogers' dress was of white satin, with veil, and she carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. A wedding supper and games were indulged in by the guests after the ceremony.

Wedded in St. George's.

The marriage took place at St. George's cathedral, on December 31st, Rev. Canon Starr officiating, of Miss Lena Alberta, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Peterson, to William George, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, Kingston. They were attended by Miss Kathleen and Albert Anderson.

Soldier Takes a Bride.

A quiet wedding took place in the First Congregational church on Wednesday evening, at seven o'clock.

DON'T BE BALD

Nearly Anyone May Secure a Splendid Growth of Hair.

We have a remedy that has a record of retarding baldness and promoting hair growth in ninety-three out of every one-hundred cases where used according to directions for a reasonable length of time. That may seem like a strong statement—it is, and we mean it to be, and no one should doubt it until they have put our claims to an actual test.

We are so certain Revolt "33" Hair Tonic will eradicate dandruff, not to prevent, but stimulate the scalp and hair roots, arrest premature loss of hair and promote hair growth, that we personally give our positive guarantee to refund every penny paid for it in every instance where it does not give entire satisfaction to the user.

Revolt "33" Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as clear spring water. It is delightfully perfumed, and does not grease or gum the hair. Two sizes, 50c. and $1. With our guarantee back of it you certainly take no risk. Sold only at our store—The Revolt Store, G. W. Mahood.

When the pastor, Rev. Le Roy Rice, united in marriage Miss Selma Ransom to Corporal Edward Salmon, of the R. C. H. A. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Aldcroft, Bagot street, where a wedding supper was served.

McConnell-Davis.

One of the Christmas week weddings was that of A. D. McConnell and Miss Nellie Davies, which took place on Christmas eve at the parsonage of the First Congregational church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. Lefroy Rice, and was very quiet. The couple were unattended and returned to the bride's home immediately after the marriage. Miss Davies is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Davies, Pine street. Mr. and Mrs. McConnell will reside in the city.

MAN ON LIST FINED.

Charged Another With Securing Liquor, But Charge Dismissed.

When Daniel Byron, on the prohibited list, was before the court a few days ago, for being drunk, he swore that Thomas Cambridge, known to many Kingstonsians as "Duke" Cambridge, and a veteran of the Crimean war, had secured the liquor for him. In police court Tuesday morning Cambridge stoutly denied the charge. The case against him was dismissed and Byron was fined $10 and costs.

A drunk, on remand a week, was given his liberty, and another was fined $2 and costs, or twenty days.

CONTEST IN PORTSMOUTH.

Warp Fight Looked for in Election For Reeve.

A good stiff fight is looked for at Portsmouth, in the contest for reeve. John Fisher, the present reeve, is again in the field, and his opponent is ex-Reeve R. J. Baiden. Last year, Mr. Baiden was defeated by eighteen votes. Residents at the bay state that the fight will be an interesting one. Two of the candidates for councillor have retired, Daniel Germain and John Grant. Four are to be elected from the following candidates for councillor: M. J. Kennedy, James Halliday, John Mills, John K. Marks, Nicholas Henderson and Joseph Forsythe.

POLICE HAD QUIET DAY.

No Arrests for Drunkenness on New Year's Day.

Kingston had a very quiet New Year's, so far as the police were concerned. All day long, they did not make an arrest for drunkenness, and they received no call for a disturbance of any kind. Surely, this is a good record. This, of course, does not mean that there was no drinking, but it means that the police had no call to take in charge any person who was unable to care for himself. On Christmas day, the police also had a clean sheet.

Sergeants' Mess Dance.

The sergeants' mess of The Royal Canadian Horse Artillery brigade celebrated the passing of the old year and the ushering in of the new, on Tuesday evening, with a quadrille party. The mess rooms were appropriately decorated for the event. With excellent music, the programme was well arranged with dances, quadrilles, cotillions, waltz, two-steps and five-steps. The committee in charge was composed of Q.M.S. Inst. S. Jordan, B. Sergt. Major W. Hopkins, B.Q.M.S. T. Eggleston, and Sergt. F. Temple.

Board of Education.

The Board of Education will not "get into harness" until the Wednesday evening following the first meeting of the City Council. Equally the first meeting of the new board is not held until February, but Trustee W. H. Macneil, who was honored with an acclamation, brought up the matter of the time of meeting, at the last meeting of the board, and a resolution of his, calling for the meeting on the Wednesday following the first meeting of council, was adopted.

Lecture in Bethel Church.

Bethel church was loaned to the Salvation Army Wednesday night, and it was well filled with an appreciative audience, to hear Col. Bullard on Salvation Army missions. The colonel has been a missionary of the army for thirty years. He showed fine stereoscopic views of scenes and events in Japan, India and Korea. The great hall made the church ringing, and the band songsters sang some excellent selections.

Gun Club Dance.

The Kingston Gun Club held a very enjoyable dance on New Year's eve, in the club hall. Good music, good floor and excellent refreshments, coupled with a well-chosen crowd of young people, made the affair one of the pleasantest of its kind this season. The officers are: N. R. Grimm, president; L. C. Robinson, vice-president, and E. J. Todd, secretary.

Oso Township Candidates.

Jerome Thompson, and Robert McVeigh, are the candidates for reeve in the township of Oso. Four councillors are to be elected from the following: S. C. Bourk, H. Sergeant, R. Kilborn, T. J. Munro, Davis Parks, David Sly, Archibald Grey and Levi Moss.

Sharbot Lake Wedding.

The marriage took place, in St. Andrew's Anglican church, Sharbot Lake, New Year's day, of Miss Ella Johnson, daughter of Thomas Johnson, Oshawa, and Alexander Gilmour, Ardoch. Rev. A. Edward Smart, Kingston, officiated.

Candidates Disqualified.

Two candidates, for councillor, in the township of Oso, were disqualified, as they had been found guilty of an infraction of the liquor license act, having been found intoxicated in a local option district.

QUEEN'S HOCKEY TEAM

AWAITS ICE AT RINK TO GET INTO CONDITION.

It Should Be Quite Strong This Winter—Farnham, Daloe and McGregor Will Likely Catch Places.

From the present outlook, Queen's University should be able to put a very good hockey team on the ice. So far this winter, the team has been up against it on account of not being able to have a practice, as the weather has been so mild. The players intended to start and practice on January 1st, but at the present time there is no ice in the covered rink.

A number of new players have registered at the university, among them being some good ones. Farnham, who played with Queen's at the time that George Richardson and "Marty" Walsh were in their primes, has entered in the Faculty of Education, and his addition to the team will mean a lot. Daloe, a freshman who comes from Varisty, is looked upon as being a find. Last season he played with the second Varsity team, and it is expected that he will be able to catch a place on the local senior outfit. McGregor, another freshman, comes from near Prescott, where he has played for a number of seasons, and last season he played on one of the teams up north.

It is not at all likely that Slier, who guarded the nets last winter, will be out again, his place will likely be taken by Smith, who comes from near Ottawa.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

What Happened in Kingston and Elsewhere in 1887.

Ald. J. D. Thompson elected mayor, having a majority of 102 votes over Ald. Drennan.

Lawrence Cox tried to skate over the harbor and broke through the ice. He had a narrow escape from death.

Rev. Eber Crumphy has left for Japan to work as a missionary.

The Fatal Wedding.

The famous play, "The Fatal Wedding," one of the best plays of a decade ago, is coming to Kingston. It is a play of extreme dramatic worth and intense heart-interest. A capable company of recognized players and a lavish scenic embellishment, makes the attraction a worthy one. "The Fatal Wedding" will be seen at the Grand on Monday, January 6th.

Officers' Refresher Course.

A refresher course opens at the Royal Military College on Friday. There will be seven officers attending, most of whom reported on Thursday. The officers preparing for staff college will spend six months. Among the officers are Major L. LeDuc, R.C.R., Montreal; Major E. L. Vaux, P.A.M.C., Winnipeg; and Capt. E. V. Eaton, R.C.R., Toronto.

ROY ASLEEP IN ALLEYWAY.

Picked up in Early Morning by Agent Children's Aid Society.

On his way up Princess street, shortly after midnight, Wednesday night, Rev. A. Edward Smart, agent for the Children's Aid Society, happened to glance in an alleyway, and there he noticed a little black bundle. On investigating, he found the bundle to be a lad of about fourteen years, who was recently taken over by the society. He was found asleep, and in spite of the cold weather, appeared to be enjoying his sleep. Mr. Smart had the lad taken to an hotel, and today, he is arranging to have the boy placed in a home and properly cared for.

Rev. Mr. Smart had quite an experience after he had located the boy. The lad commenced to cry, and a young Kingstonian, who happened to be passing at the time, was under the impression that the boy was being ill-treated, and, going up to Mr. Smart, he threatened to take a hand in the matter. Mr. Smart stood his ground against all comers, however, and when the matter was explained to the young man, he promptly apologized.

The lad had employment, and a good home, up till a couple of days ago, when he went astray.

To Settle in Winnipeg.

After the prayer meeting at Princess Street Methodist church, on Wednesday evening, a short session was held to give the members of the church a chance to bid good-bye to Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, who are leaving for Winnipeg. Mr. Williams has been a member of the official board for some years, and will be greatly missed. The congregation presented Mr. Williams with a splendid suit case, and Mrs. Williams with a lady's companion. They leave on Friday.

Weather Notes.

Pressure is decidedly high over the Pacific States, while it still remains low over the northern portion of the continent. The weather is fair and mild from Ontario to the maritime provinces and quite cold in Manitoba.
