THE P.W.O.R., 14TH REGIMENT SMOKER. One of the chief features of the regimental smoker which is to be held in the City Hall on Friday evening will be Ernest Johnson's impersonation of the famous Scotch comedian, Harry Lauder. Mr. Johnson, who comes from Ottawa, has quite a reputation as an imitator. "The Arrpror Watchman" says of him: "Those who have not had the pleasure of hearing and seeing the original Harry Lauder had the opportunity of viewing a good substitute during the past week in the person of Ernest Johnson, who makes a specialty of impersonating this noted singer. The 'make-up' and the accent especially is said to be perfect; the only difference is that Mr. Johnson is a much larger man. Many here look for a return visit of Mr. Johnson."

Deseronto, after visiting at Mrs. Ward's. Mr. and Mrs. E. Murray have taken up residence in the city for the winter. Miss Annie Gordon, of Delisle, Sask., formerly of this place, is renewing acquaintances in this vicinity. Mrs. Jas. Walker and children are visiting in Chelsea, Que. Mrs. Ward is slowly recovering from a severe attack of gripe. Mr. Harrington conducted the services at the funeral of the late Master Clarence Boyd on Wednesday. Her sudden death is much regretted by their many friends.
