A HOCKEY SURPRISE

REGIOPOLIS DEFEATED THE COLLEGIATES, 7 TO 2.

And Won the Junior Intercollegiate Round by Three Goals—The Fans Received Quite a Surprise.

The greatest surprise in local hockey circles this season was pulled off at the covered rink Friday evening. It was in the Kingston group finals of the junior intercollegiate. The last "spasm" of the round was the attraction on Friday night from which Regiopolis College emerged victorious. This team defeated Collegiate Institute by 7-2, and carried the round by a margin of three points. Half time the tally was 5 to 1 for "Reg."

On Wednesday night K.C.I. won 6 to 4. Regiopolis now tries conclusions with Varsity III in the finals of the series. The boys, with a week's practice, ought to play a winning game. K.C.I. management admits it, and it is justifiable to say that Regiopolis hockeyists have made an extraordinarily good showing against the Collegiate team. Principal E. O. Sliter went to Regiopolis' dressing room after the game, and, in a few words, congratulated the boys upon their success, expressing the hope, with a degree of assurance, that Regiopolis would be the guardians of the intercollegiate silverware this year. He was loudly cheered. Regiopolis supporters celebrated the victory in no uncertain bursts of lung power. The boys from the college where Prof. W. Gill holds sway, certainly deserved the win. They forced the play at all stages. With three points to attain ahead of K.C.I. before they could win the round, they showed their determination from the beginning. There was marked improvement from Wednesday night. Though the lack of more drill in team work and playing positions was obvious, there was much to be admired, with little practice considered.

Regiopolis strengthened its line by bringing "Keboe" Kennedy from right wing to centre, where Millan backed him up. Blakey went to the wing. Collegiate Institute puck-chasers appeared repulsed at periods. But they put up a stubborn argument, checking was close, and the excitement at the highest pitch for the fans. The referee decided that the bench was the place for a number of the performers who got scrappy. The boys kept up "some" pace.

"Terry" Millan, of Regiopolis, again stamped himself as a "comer" in the hockey "frat," and took a lot of punishment. Kennedy, Blakey and Ryan went for it in persistent style, although the whole line wants to combine its efforts when whirling into its opponents' territory. The shooting was more accurate and forced in upon "Charlie" Stewart much oftener than K.C.I. pelted Walsh. J. Stewart, Williams, Toland and Cooke checked and skated well, but found inlets into "Reg." nets very hard to discover. The ice was sticky, and Cooke's shooting was inaccurate. R. Stewart contributed his full quota to K.C.I. machinery, and C. Stewart gathered in numerous attempts on the part of Millan & Co. to find his nets, which made K.C.I. supporters' hearts stand still until the rubber was cleared.

Story of the Scoring.
 In one-half minute after the initial face-off, Kennedy called on Stewart for Regiopolis' score in "debut."
 It fell to Millan, with Blakey off for muzzing up Toland, to break through K.C.I. defence and register the second. Regiopolis kept the "pot boiling," with the best of the play, and Millan, after a pretty piece of stick-handling, took Kennedy's pass and added another counter. Then the tide turned in the blue and white boys' favor, and Cooke landed K.C.I.'s only tally in the first period. With the score 3 to 1, and a tie on the round, the players chased the rubber up and down the ice for about five minutes, when, after a slow "com" play of Blakey and Millan, Kennedy scored. Again, with Brownfield decorating the fence, Ryan notched in a shot from his wing. Regiopolis 5, K.C.I. 1.

In the second period, honors were more equally divided. Millan scored both of Regiopolis' tallies, and R. Stewart rushing his defence, was responsible for K.C.I.'s second and last goal of the game. His team was more aggressive, and put its best into the "summing up" spasm. With about twelve minutes to play, R. Stewart went up into the line, and he and the forwards held the play in Regiopolis' territory for some time. Calling back Millan, their opponents put up a sturdy defence, and finally took an excursion into K.C.I. danger zone.

The blue and white losers put their heaviest into the last few minutes, but Regiopolis held the invaders' shots out of the nets. His temper crossed, J. Stewart handed out a severe check to Millan at twenty-five seconds to play. The youth, who was injured before, was carried off the ice. Finish, Regiopolis 7, K. C. I. 2.

The teams were:
 K. C. I.—Goal: C. Stewart; point, R. Stewart; cover, Brownfield; rover, Cooke; centre, J. Stewart; right wing, Toland; left wing, Williams.
 Referee—"Reg." Crawford.

Score Summary.
 First half:—
 Regiopolis—Kennedy, ½ min.
 Regiopolis—Millan, 5 min.
 Regiopolis—Millan, 3 min.
 K. C. I.—Cooke, 6 min.

 Regiopolis—Ryan, 6 min.
 Second half:—

May Take Legal Action.
 All lovers of manly hockey were shocked at the covered rink on Friday night, when "Jim" Stewart, the speedy little centre player of the K.C.I., knocked Norman Millan, the sixteen-year-old best player of Regiopolis, out in the last half minute of play. D. J. Millan, the father of the injured lad, on Saturday morning, threatened legal action, charging assault. The youth was badly used up during the game, and was carried off the ice with cut in the head before he received the stick across the neck at the wind-up. Dr. R. Hanley attended Millan in the dressing-room, and the player put in a restless night.

Oshawa Defeated Again.
 Orillia was again too much for the Oshawa team in the junior O.H.A. semi-final game at Oshawa on Friday evening, Orillia winning by 7 goals to 4, and taking the round by 15 to 1.

Is a Funny Sensation.
 It is not an uncommon ring incident connected with a sudden knockout blow that the semi-conscious victim will mutter something about the "guy that dropped that barrel of bricks on my head." The beaten fighter may not be trying for comedy effect at the time. He really thinks it. It is one of the peculiarities of boxing. The famous John L. Sullivan, when piloted to dreamland remarked that "falling off the Brooklyn bridge was a terrible sensation."

Jane Kilrain, when John L. stopped him in their famous meeting at Richmond, Mass., declared that some one had bent a telephone pole over his head, while Corbett thought he had been hit by a train when "Ruby Roberts" Fitzsimmons delivered the famous solar plexus blow.
 They tell one on "Young Corbett" when he was finally stopped, complaining after he had awakened in his dressing-room, that unfair tactics had been used to accomplish his taking off. "Corbett" declared that someone had turned off the lights and he had been sandbagged from behind. It's a peculiar sensation, this knockout. At such serious results have ever been reported, the mental hallucinations are worthy of a psychologist's attention.

Sporting Notes.
 The Ottawa Journal says that Greg George was probably the most effective man on the New Edinburgh line. His stick-handling was the best seen on either team. Since the Burghs put him in at rover, he has surprised the amateur fans.

The sale of Fred Mitchell, the stocky Buffalo backstop, to the Boston National was announced yesterday. Manager Stallings will use Mitchell as instructor and trainer of his young catchers and pitchers.
 The Montreal Arena company has made application for a permit to erect an artificial ice plant. This means that next year the arena company will have artificial ice at an expenditure of several hundred thousand dollars, and the seating capacity of the rink will be enlarged.

With only forty seconds to go before full time, the Boston Pilgrims tied the score with the Sherbrooke, Que., team at Boston, Thursday night, and won out in overtime.
 Quebec Chronicle: Dr. G. Stuart Ramsay, house physician of the Canton Christian hospital and son of G. B. The news of this victory was first received at McGill University, Montreal, from which Mr. Ramsay graduated and received his degree.

"REFUSE AND CHOOSE"

SUBJECT OF EVANGELICAL LIAISON MASTER'S ADDRESS.

"If You Want To Find the Wandering Boy, You'll Find Him Out With the Wandering Girls."

Refuse and choose was the subject of the discourse given in the Bethel church on Friday evening by Evangelist William D. Laumaster. His text was taken from Hebrews xi, 24-25: "By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called a son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season."

"Here we have a man," said the speaker, "who refused to be coddled in a false position as the son of a king. A man who was courageous enough to give up an exalted position and suffer affliction, rather than live in sin for a season. It was a great sacrifice, but it had its reward, for Moses in his wise choice became a child of God, who is the king of kings. We are not slow in these days to discern the good from the bad, the right from the wrong, but the trouble lies in our unwillingness to make any sacrifice and thereby we are continually seeking some middle course by which to escape."

Moses did not seek any middle course, but by faith absolutely refused to continue living in a false and sinful position. Many people will not choose Christ as their Saviour because they refuse to give up the sinful business, companionships and social positions which they are coddling. If they think the church will save them because they are a member of it they are mistaken. The church is no Saviour, but Jesus Christ is the Saviour, and if we refuse to choose Jesus Christ as our master then we must acknowledge we are the slaves of Satan.

It is a rare thing in these days of frivolity to see a young man or woman come boldly out for Christ. Yes, it is nearly a miracle, and is getting rarer every day. They are thinking too much of earthly treasures to lay up treasures in heaven. The young men and women can be often found seeking after the pleasures of this world than in meeting with God's people. Like an old man said, when he noticed how few boys were at the prayer meeting: "Where are the wandering boys to-night," and the answer came back that he would likely find them with the wandering girls. What seems to be the trouble? Are we afraid or ashamed to refuse to live a life of sin, and take a stand for Christ, or is it that we are seeking to find some middle course out? God has provided for us a way of escape, and that is by accepting Jesus Christ through faith. But you must appropriate it yourself. No one else can do it for you. Are you willing? Mr. Laumaster will speak to men only on Sunday afternoon at 4.15 o'clock.

READY TO USE HOMES.

Doesn't Want to Build Poor House of Its Own.
 Warden Ryan and the members of the county council, of Lennox county waited on Hon. W. J. Hanna and asked that their agreement respecting the care of the poor in the House of Refuge and the House of Providence be confirmed, instead of compelling the county to establish a House of Refuge of its own. They claim that so long as the county pays for the maintenance of its indigents there is no necessity to build a House of Refuge.

Hon. Mr. Hanna promised consideration, but he is understood to be opposed to making any exception among counties in this regard, and may insist that the county of Lennox erect its own House of Refuge.
Died After Operation.
 The remains of Alexander Molnis were taken from the general hospital, where he died after an operation, to his home at Olden, by the four o'clock K. & P. train on Friday. His remains will be buried in the Olden cemetery.

The customs revenue for February shows twenty-five millions of an increase.
