Guaranteed Rupture Holder On 60 Days Trial

Won't Cost You a Cent If The Two Months' Test Doesn't Prove All Our Claims.

Away with Worthless Trusses Like These

You can make a thorough prove-it-or-your-money-back test of this guaranteed rupture holder without having to risk a single cent. We'll send it to you for sixty days—practically lend it to you that long—just to let you see for yourself how it takes all the misery out of being ruptured.

Neither is just a few days' trial safe test. A truss or so-called "appliance" may seem alright the first week or so and then turn out to be no good whatever. But you can't possibly make a mistake if you are allowed sixty days' time in which to make a test. And there is only one thing of any kind for rupture that you can get on such a long trial—good enough to stand such a long and thorough test—this our guaranteed rupture holder—the famous Clute's Automatic Massaging Truss.

strains and constantly kept from coming out. Just as a broken bone can't be put together unless constantly held together. And that is the principle of our elastic or spring trusses—not one in ten ever holds, and the sooner or later make operation absolutely necessary instead of preventing it. But remember that the Clute's Truss is guaranteed to hold—and that it won't cost you a cent if it doesn't. And in addition to constant holding, it provides the only way ever discovered for overcoming the weakness which is the real cause of rupture. It does that entirely automatically—without any attention whatever from you. And has thus brought complete recovery in thousands of cases that seemed almost hopeless, and has saved thousands of people from having to risk their lives under the surgeon's knife. No Belt, No Leg-Straps, No Springs. The Clute's Truss does away entirely with the curse of wearing belts, leg-straps and springs. People who have tried it say it is as comfortable as their clothing. And it is waterproof—will hold in the bath. Also perspiration-proof. Easily kept clean. Get World's Greatest Rupture Book. Don't send any money—don't take any risk. Just write for our free book and find out all about it. This sensational book—cloth-bound, 96 pages, 26 separate articles, and 22 photographic illustrations—is full of facts for the ruptured never before put in print. It shows why elastic and spring trusses are a crime—how they are the ruptured man's worst enemy—why the law should stop their sale. It exposes the bungling "appliances," "methods," "systems," "plasters," etc. It shows why operation for rupture ends in permanent weakness or death—often after the complete recovery. And it tells all about the famous Clute's Automatic Massaging Truss—gives names and addresses of over 500 people in all parts of the country who have tried it—and have voluntarily endorsed it—also tells how you can get it on sixty days' trial, and how little it costs if you buy it. Simply use the coupon or say in a letter or postal "Send me your book—that will take only a minute, but may be the means of freeing you from all rupture troubles for the rest of your life." VOICE OF THE PULPIT

PRESIDENT OF THE ONTARIO ADVENTISTS' CONFERENCE.

Preached on "The Law of God"—Young Men Had Charge of Services in Brock Street Methodist Church.

Elder M. C. Kirkendall, of Oshawa, president of the Ontario Adventists' Conference, preached the Gospel in the hall on the corner of Montreal and Princess streets, on Sunday. His subject in the evening was "The Law of God," and the centre of his discourse was embodied in the text: "Christ is the End of the Law to every one that believeth."

Brook Street Methodist. Sunday was observed as Brotherhood Day in Brock Street Methodist church. Morning, afternoon and evening services were entirely given over to the young men of the church.

George Fould was the speaker at the morning service, his subject being "The Brotherhood." Nelson Gibson rendered a solo.

At the afternoon service in the Sunday school, a couple of short addresses were given by the members of the club. Mr. Nash and Mr. Leishman, of Queen's University, gave short addresses at the evening services. Mr. Nash took for his text Psalm cxix, 9. "Young men of Kingston, you will never amount to anything in the world if you expect pull to get you there."

At St. Paul's Church. Owing to the fact that he was suffering from a severe cold, Archdeacon O. G. Dobbs, the new-appointed chaplain at the penitentiary, was unable to preach at St. Paul's church on Sunday evening. The entire service was conducted by Canon Trout, who preached a most inspiring sermon dealing with the danger a person undertakes by looking back upon the past, when starting out to do better.

Pulpit Should be Fearless. "The true prophet should not only be a preacher of weight, but a political force that every force of evil fears," remarked Rev. T. W. Neal, preaching from the pulpit of Sydenham Street Methodist church on Sunday evening.

First Baptist Church. Yesterday morning, Rev. Dr. Bates, of Toronto, occupied the pulpit of the first Baptist church and gave a most interesting and informing address on Baptist Educational Work.

Stole His Lunch. A passenger on an eight o'clock car on Monday morning, was very much surprised to find that while he had been talking to a passenger on the car, some unknown person had stolen his lunch. He had left three parcels on the seat.

Inspected Bridge. A very large number of citizens paid a visit to the new bridge on Sunday. During the afternoon several hundred people inspected the work. Many took the opportunity of walking over both the old and the new structure.

More Out-Door Living. Statistics prove that the death rate is very much greater in the winter months than in summer, and that the lack of fresh air is largely responsible for this condition. If the system becomes rundown, blood thin and watery, circulation poor, no appetite, don't dose with drugs, but take our delicious cod liver oil and iron tonic, Vinol, not a patent medicine, as everything in it is named on every package and it does not give you a hearty appetite, enrich the blood and create strength we will return your money; that shows our faith in Vinol.

Conscience Money. Smith Falls News. Received a letter some time ago written in French and it was not until this week that he had read it. Imagine his surprise on finding that it was from the parish priest at L'Orignal, where he lived some thirty-five years ago, saying that a man wanted to pay him $15 which was due him for freight since that time. This is truly a case of conscience money.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

"A Stitch in Time Saves Nine," is Good Advice.

Kingston, April 12.—(To the Editor): The condition of the Brock street roadway, from Bagot to Barrie street, reminds one of the old saying that "a stitch in time saves nine." If the Board of Works had seen to the weekly repair of the hollows on this fine piece of macadam roadway as they developed, and as the late Ald. John Carson always so strongly advocated, the road would not be so worn as it is to-day. True the traffic over it has been decidedly heavy, but the little hollows should have been looked after and not been allowed to develop into larger ones. I hope that the Board of Works, with its energetic chairman, Ald. W. J. Fair, will see to it that in future a policy of repair is inaugurated on all new macadam roadways.—CITIZEN.

"Strangers Welcome!"

Kingston, April 12.—(To the Editor): I have heard lately and I have heard it so frequently from new arrivals, that I am prevailed to drop a line to your estimable columns, feeling sure that the matter needs only to be mentioned to be remedied. It is the question of strangers attending church. I have heard many say that paying attention to the "stranger's welcome" sign, they have entered, but the extent of the welcome was simply to be shown to a seat. Surely the church organization will take the matter in hand and make the "welcome" a whole-hearted and interested one.—CIVICUS.

SHARP WORK OF STUDENTS

Was Detected, and Guilty Ones May Lose Examinations.

Two freshmen at Queen's University who, in trying their examinations, endeavored to "put one over" on the faculty and get through by unfair methods, will lose their year as a result. A hitch in their scheme put the authorities on the scent and they were found out. The plan of the freshmen was that one was to write two papers and hand the one in for his companion. Neglect to sign one of the papers led to investigation and discovery.

Another case is before the college authorities of a student who was found to have information on his person which was forbidden. The young man said he had not used the material, which consisted of a lecture of one of the professors. The authorities have his case under consideration and he may not be penalized.

AT THE ARMOURIES.

Classes of Instruction and Company Drill of 14th Regiment.

The class of instruction for officers and N.O.'s will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings of this week, at eight o'clock. At 8:30 o'clock on Thursday evening Major Horden, G.S.O., third division, will give a short lecture on the work to be covered in preparation for the annual camp. All officers concerned and sergeants are instructed to attend.

The companies of the regiment will be re-organized this week. Officer on duty for the week ending April 19th, Lieut. H. D. Wightman; next for duty, Lieut. F. Smythe.

Trainsloads of Immigrants.

Sharbot Lake was a busy place on Sunday. During the day five train loads of immigrants passed through that station carrying some three thousand people, who have come out from the old land to take up residence in Canada. A number were on their way to Toronto while the majority were heading for the great west. One of the crowds who came from the old land very few go to the United States. On one train there were only three who were going across the border.

Sunday First Spring Day.

The first summer-like day of the year as Sunday, and the people by hundreds promaded the sidewalks of the city. The old and new bridges were populated all afternoon with people enjoying the delightful air. For the first time this year canoes, rowboats and power craft shot here and there over the smooth waters of the harbor. The woods all around the city were alive with strollers enjoying the freshness of spring. Everyone and everything was pleasant.

Stole His Lunch.

A passenger on an eight o'clock car on Monday morning, was very much surprised to find that while he had been talking to a passenger on the car, some unknown person had stolen his lunch. He had left three parcels on the seat.

Inspected Bridge.

A very large number of citizens paid a visit to the new bridge on Sunday. During the afternoon several hundred people inspected the work. Many took the opportunity of walking over both the old and the new structure.

MORE OUT-DOOR LIVING

And Death Rate Will Be Lowered.

Statistics prove that the death rate is very much greater in the winter months than in summer, and that the lack of fresh air is largely responsible for this condition. A case has just come to our attention from Albany, N.Y. Mrs. H. Hartman says: "I was in a run-down condition for about five years until this spring, when I learned what a good tonic and strengthener Vinol is. It is certainly the best tonic I have ever used and it has done wonders for me." Try a bottle of Vinol on our guarantee. Mahood's Drug Store, Kingston, Ont.

AT THE GRAND. "Passers By" Presented Saturday a Remarkable Play. "Passers-By," one of C. Hadden Chambers' productions is truly a remarkable play. It was presented at the Grand, Saturday, matinee and night, and made a big hit with both audiences. A good deal of the play contains events of every day life, but there are a few things, which take a most unusual turn. But it is the remarkable turn of events which gives great interest to the play. The story centres around the life of Peter Waverton, and the four acts are given in his bachelor apartments, Piccadilly, England. He was engaged to a young lady, but the match was objected to by his half-sister, who, in a cunning manner, prevented Waverton from getting her letters. They drifted apart and Waverton becomes engaged to another girl. On a night when Waverton is endeavoring to help a number of passers-by, including a cabman and a tramp, by entertaining them in his rooms, he meets his former sweetheart, quite by accident. There is a little boy, and Waverton, cut off from his sweetheart through no fault of his own, is overjoyed. He tells the story, his half-sister snubs him, but Beatrice, his second love, stands by him when she understands it all, and it is here that one very strong part of the play is given. It is so safe to say that not one girl in ten would have acted in the same way. It is here that the woman of large heart was portrayed. Waverton remains true to his first love. All the parts are in able hands. As Peter Waverton, Walter Cluxton was exceptionally good; the role of William Pine, his man servant, who could see no good in people outside his own circle, was ably taken by Neel Tearle; Nighty, the cabman, and Burns, the tramp, were very interesting characters; Kathleen Arnold, as Margaret Saunders, was very good, while Bevor Alvarez, as Little Peter, was a shining star; Celeste Alvarez, as Lady Wurlie, and Margaret Lytell, as Beatrice Dainton, filled their part well.

Tempest and Sunshine To-night. "Tempest and Sunshine," to-night a southern drama was ever presented on any stage, will be the first offering of the Erie's Marks company at the Grand to-night. Its story is clean, has plenty of good clean comedy, and just enough pathos to make it interesting to the playgoer. The specialties, between the acts, are new and headed by a clever team of comedians and dancers. Prevost, Brock street, has received all his spring and summer goods for his order clothing department, also in ready-made clothing and general furnishing departments; they are all well assorted with new goods.

It Astonishes People. The fact that the Children's Aid Inspector has occasion to be at the police station, gives rise to some amusing incidents at his office on King street. People who are not aware of his duties there often seem quite surprised to hear that the young clergyman is at the police station. Not infrequently a scene similar to the following takes place. A lady who had urgent business called and inquired for Rev. A. E. Smart. "He is not here," said the man in the neighboring office, "he is at the police station." The woman stared in astonishment. "Oh dear me!" she exclaimed, and made a hasty exit. Hon. E. J. Davis Spoke. Hon. E. J. Davis, of Newmarket, led in the discussion of the Bible school lesson at the Wesleyan Club of Sydenham Street Methodist church, on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Davis set forth a number of practical lessons from the Biblical incident of Jacob and his dream. The honorable gentleman has for years been the leader of a similar organization of young men. His son, Elmer Davis, has charge of the local Wesleyan Club. Queen's Examination Results. The Whig will mail a copy containing complete results for 3c, to any address. Students, leave your order now.
