Rev. J. Edmond Lidstone, 355 Alfred street, to-day celebrated the deventieth annidersary of his birth. Forty years of his life has been spent in the Methodist ministry. Mr. Lidstone is well known in county and city. For many years be occupied pulpits in this section.

The reverend gentleman was born in Wolverhampton, England. For some eight years he followed life of a horticulturist. He later decided to go into the ministry, and spent four years as a probationer in the old land. During the fourth year he came to Canada. The foliowing year he was ordained at Brampion. During the same year he was sen! to Woodstock to supply for a pastor who was ill. The following year he was transferred to Collins Bay, where he remained for some years.

The remainder of his life was spent on the following circuits: St. Helens, Peel, Sydenham, Elginburg, Magog, Harrowsmith, South Mountain, Matilda, Richmond, Aylmer (East), Newington. While he was at the latter charge his health gave way and he asked to be superannuated. The committee thinking that he was overworked on the charge, decided to send him to Amaerst Island. He remained there but a short time when his health again failed, and for that reason he was superannuated.

After receiving his superannuation he took up residence at Harrowsmith. About a year ago he decided to move to the city, and he is now attached to Queen street church where he is greatly beloved.

Messages of congratulation wer received from the different membe of his former congregations to-day. It was expected that his only son, Dr. Arthur E., would be home fo be anniversary, but unfortunately uate of McGill university. For some geon on the ocean steamers running from Africa to Liverpool.
