In the midst of the extreme heat this past week the new Bishop of Kingston has kept his appointments at different points in the diocese. On Thursday he consecrated a new church at Enterprise, in Rural Dean Jones' parish. He visits Merrickville, Burritt's Rapids and Kemppville on Sunday.

A Visitor From Porcupine.
A. J. Lawson, of Porcupine, is in the city. He has been prospecting for seven years and made wealth. Some time ago he struck things rich for John Clow, of Harrowsmith, on the latter's land, and as a result Mr. Clow is $40,000 richer than he was a year ago. Mr. Lawson says it is a shame for the Ontario government to urge people to go into northern Ontario regions to farm for it is no farming country, and those who went there for that purpose will find out their plight in a few years.

Light Rain Friday Evening.
While western and northern Ontario was flooded by rain on Friday Kingston and the east received only a light shower in the evening, the storm cloud having emptied itself before it reached this far. The rainfall in the west amounted to a deluge, which would have been welcomed here.

Old Boys' Entertainment.
The civic finance committee decided on Friday evening to ask the City Council for power to arrange a programme of entertainment for the Old Boys' on the 26th, 27th and 28th.

A. D. Simmonds, formerly of this city, died at Tamworth last Wednesday. The funeral was held on Saturday.

"Ice cream bricks." Gibson's. It is believed that China is steadily drifting toward the worst civil war in its history.

"Beef, Iron and Wine," 50c. Gibson's.
