TO BE TRIED IN FALL A FAMILY ROW AIRE

"JACK" O'BRIEN ELECTED TRIAL BY JUDGE AND JURY.

His Case Will Come Up at Assizes Which Open on October 7th—Prisoner Was Brought Before Judge Price for Election on Monday Morning.

"Jack" O'Brien, charged with the theft of a mail bag at Kingston Junction, on January 22nd, will stand trial before a judge and jury, at the assizes which will open at the court house on October 7th.

O'Brien was brought before Judge Price at eleven o'clock on Monday morning, and elected to be tried by a judge and jury, and his case was then set for the assizes.

The accused had no lawyer present on his behalf. J. L. Whiting, K.C., appeared on behalf of the prosecution. Very few people knew that O'Brien was coming before the judge, and as a result there were just three or four spectators in the court, who just happened to "drop in."

James Parkinson, inspector of the dominion police force, who arrested O'Brien, was present, but left on the noon train for Ottawa. He will return to Kingston for the trial.

When the case comes up in the fall, Chief of Police Walker, of Sudbury, will be one of the witnesses, and it is reported that there will also be witnesses from North Bay.

NAT'S FIFTH WIFE.

Boston, Aug. 11.—Nat Goodwin, actor, who is now enjoying domestic life with his fifth wife, having been divorced from the other four, said today in an interview that his matrimonial course is now run. He is absolutely satisfied with his latest wife, he said, and she is satisfied with him. He has no love for his past wives and no prospects or wishes for the future.

McCurdy's Report.
Continental and Commercial National Bank of Chicago in a general canvass report business showing a degree of confidence and courage that is intensely gratifying.

Trade movements under the influence of professional scalping operations may be seen to-day with some degree as result of a decided recovery which has taken place and the elements in the situation which have recently developed. It should be profitable to look for buy opportunities without reaching too high for stocks.

Herald—The efforts of bears to depress stocks by gloomy talk about the crops are futile.

World—There has been no time in recent years when good dividend paying securities have offered as attractive yields as they afford even at current levels.

Tribune—The traders are divided regarding the speculative trend of prices as technically the market is due for a reaction of several points.

Sun—There is a growing recognition of the substantial improvement which has taken place in financial conditions the world over.

American—Bankers are authority for the statement that the corner has been turned and confidence is gradually coming back.

Fighters Took Flight.
Saturday night the police received a call from the corner of Colborne and Clergy street, it being reported that some men were engaged in a fight. When the police arrived on the scene, they found that the fighters had taken flight and left. The police also had a report about a man begging money Saturday night on Montreal street but no arrests was made.

Horse Caused Trouble.
A strayaway horse played high jinks at noon, on Monday, on some of the lawns on Albert street, much to the annoyance of the citizens in that neighborhood, and a complaint was made to the police. Constable Nicholson was notified, and he put a stop to the trouble by taking the animal to the pound.

Peaches, Plums, Pears.
A full car load expected Tuesday morning at Carnovsky's. Price per basket, 35c. and up.

BEDFORD RELATIVES CHARGE ABUSIVE LANGUAGE

Was Used to One Another—Mother-in-law Charges Daughter-in-law, While Son Charges His Mother—The Case Adjudged.

At the court house, on Monday morning, with Magistrates, George Hunter and J. W. Bradshaw presiding, there was, for a short time, a "terrible state of affairs." Relatives in the township of Bedford cannot live in peace with one another, although in separate houses, and charges, of the use of abusive language were made. Mrs. Kate McNichols registered this charge against her daughter-in-law, Mrs. L. McNichols, and a counter charge of the same nature was brought against Mrs. Kate McNichols by her son, John, husband of the defendant in the first case.

After reading the charges Magistrate Hunter, professing the painful things that would be said in and developing from the evidence, advised the counsel for the parties to arrange a settlement without the case being proceeded with. Forthwith a mutual binding over of the three to keep the peace was agreed upon, upon the failure of which the offender was to pay $100.

The papers were prepared and Mr. and Mrs. J. McNichols signed them, but Mrs. Kate McNichols refused to do this and to pay her share of the costs of the court. Accordingly the evidence of Mrs. McNichols, jr., was taken in the case against the old lady and the hearing of the latter's side of the case was adjourned for one week.

Mrs. Kate McNichols took strong exception to an intimation made that not her the case on account of her general reputation.

SAYS WIFE SKIPPED OUT.

Local Greek Would Like to Find Runaway Wife.
A local Greek is looking for his wife, whom he claims has skipped out. He stated to-day that when she left his home there also disappeared $75 of his money and he is very anxious to locate her. He says that his wife was at home when he went to his work on Monday morning but that when he returned at noon she was missing, also her trunk and the $75.

Dangerous Logs Floating.

On Sunday afternoon, a strong gale sprang up and kept many people off the water. A great danger was encountered in the harbor in the afternoon when several of the large logs and piles of the old bridge were washed away and were floating about in the water. Two or three motor boats had pretty close calls from striking these floating obstructions as they could not easily be seen in the rough water. Greater care should be taken to have these logs piled away where they cannot be washed into the harbor and cause danger to motor boats.
