A China Shower. On Thursday evening a surprise was sprung on Mrs. W. J. Paul, Clergy street West, when the Victoria Guild of Cooke's church, tendered her a china shower. The guests arrived early in the evening. The event arose over the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Paul will be twenty years married on the 20th of September, and the young ladies took this opportunity to show their appreciation for Mrs. Paul's services among them. An enjoyable evening was spent in games and music, and everyone present, heartily wished Mr. and Mrs. Paul many more years of happiness. Rev. J. W. McIntosh addressed the gathering, and at the close of the evening refreshments were served. Vote As Husbands. Copenhagen, Sept. 19.—Premier Zahle introduced a constitutional reform bill in parliament yesterday. The bill establishes among other things woman suffrage. The premier said that the municipal elections in which women have taken part have shown that they vote exactly as their husbands, the only effect being to increase the number of votes cast. There was no danger in extending the franchise to women.

Bad For the Whale. St. John's, Nfld., Sept. 19.—The steamship Vladimir Reitz put in here with a four-foot hole in her bow, caused by having struck a whale. As a Tired Mother. As a tired mother when the day is over Leads by the hand her little child to bed. Half-tired, half-reluctant to be led, And leaves his broken playthings on the floor. Still gazing at them through the open door. Nor wholly reassured and comforted By promises of others in their stead, Which though more pleasant may not please him more. So nature deals with us and takes away Our playthings one by one, and by the hand Leads us to rest so gently that we go scarce knowing if we wish to go or stay. Being too full of sleep to understand How far the unknown transcends the what we know.
