THERE IS NO AGREEMENT

With Companies About Putting Wires Under Ground.

No agreement has been made by the city with the telephone and telegraph companies having wires on Princess and King streets for their removal when the conduits are laid, but understandings have been arrived at. The telegraph companies, the Great North-Western and Canadian Pacific, have each a call wire on Princess street, which it is understood could be transferred in short notice. But how about the telephone wires? There are a large number of phones in this section.

China and the East.

A wonderful panorama greets the traveller approaching Hong Kong. Situated on the slope of a mountain this "London of the Far East," with its teeming cosmopolitan population, climbs terrace by terrace to the superlative "peak," the once burned sides of which, under British rule, now appear garbed in exquisite green, known as the "maize" pine. Across the mainland is a three-century old Portuguese town, Macao, the Oriental Monte Carlo. Ninety miles up the Pearl River brings one to Canton, with its interesting temples, flowery pagoda, and historical associations. The new white palatial "Empress" of the Canadian Pacific railway bring all this to within fifteen days.

Guy Brothers Minstrels.

Keeping abreast of the times this season Guy Brothers Greater Minstrels, which appear at the Grand on Saturday, Sept. 27th, matinee and night, casting twelve big vaudeville acts, that have made good wherever the show has played. This is in addition to the regular programme of solo vocalists, funny endmen, quartette singing and the regulation minstrel ensemble which we all look forward to. The novelty first part brings rounds of applause, wherever seen, as the stage during this season is particularly classy. Watch for the street parade at noon.

School Pupils' Bazaar.

The children attending Frontenac school are arranging for a bazaar to be given on October 10th. During the month of June, Principal R. F. Greenless sent a letter out to the parents asking them to make articles to be sold for the occasion. A large number of the mothers consented and as a result the event promises to be a big thing for the children. The money raised by this endeavor will be used for buying pictures for the walls in the school.

Considering the Offers.

F. Patrick, manager of the Vancouver hockey team, was in Renfrew last week and made overtures to two of the Renfrew players, Louis Imbleau and Alf Anderson, both of whom Imbleau has played practically since the Renfrew team was first organized, but Anderson, who is only twenty years old, has only been playing senior hockey for the past three years, having formerly played with the Renfrew Collegiate. Both players are considering the offers.

Treadgold, the local sporting goods man, who handed them over to the president, and were later given to the managers of the Victorians and Bonies teams. The medals are in the form of a watch fob and are very neatly gotten up. They are of bronze and are attached to a black silk ribbon.
