Builders of all kinds

THE

Many customers have been asking for a guessing contest. Here it is: We are going to offer a series of prizes to be given to the successful contestants. The contest is simple. No buying conditions are attached to it. Any one can

We simply wish you to guess the exact number of words apearing in this our space from lovember first to fifteenth. Numerals and compound words taken as one word. Contestants simply write their names and addresses on a plain postal eard and mail it to us at once. Prizes will be displayed in our window on next Wednesday,

Nov. 5th. The prizes are useful and valuable and the contest sim-

BEST'S The Satisfactory Drug Store.

blucher with viscolized sole cannot be beaten at $6.00.

Other tans and blacks from $2.50 to $6.00.

Custom shoes to order. Repairing at

260 PRINCESS ST. Branch, 206 Barrie street,

Question Spex Do your eyes tire early?

If so, You need Classes. Do your eyes burn?

If so, You need Classes. Does the type become blurred in reading If so, You need Classes.

De you suffer from frontal headache? If so, Classes will Help You. De you know if you have perfect eyesight? If not, we can inform You.

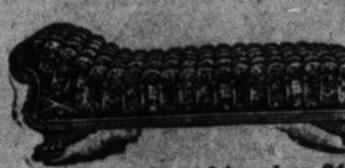

IT WILL COST YOU NOTHING.

KEELEY, Jr., PTOMETRIST & OPTICIAN 8 doors above Opera House

Furniture

PARLOR SETTS, $18.00, $35,00 AND UP.

eather, $20,00 to $50.00.

Supplies | McGill's Invincible Team Went Down to Defeat by 12 to in a Spectacular Game.

of the Montreal university.

the Queen's McGill rugby struggle at Queen's showed the edge on hathing the athletic grounds on Saturday at and outplayed them at periods. At ternoon, was the reason for the rejoicing of the students on Saturday night. And citizens interested in athlett out-kicked the red and white backs, and the local line combination letics of the university were good second the second that over that of their opponents.

Lean was given the first penalty for the scrapping in the scrimmage. With the scrimmage at no time indicative of the play. Mr. Sliter prophesied that lett out-kicked the red and white backs, and the local line combination Queen's, 6; McGill, 0.

Lean was given the first penalty for the scrimmage. With the scrapping in the scrimmage. With the scrapping in the scrimmage. With the scrimmage at no time a vinning column in the same week. The

"JACK" HAZLETT,

out since September, 1911. expected to take the scalps of the lo- and the speedy following up of cal collegians. But they received quite | Hazlett's kicks secured possession a joit. Queen's victory was the sur- of the pigskin in red and white ter-zame with Varsity in Toronto that his fourteen would yet redeem itself, Allowing for somewhat poor tackling.

tion, and much interest was manifested in watching Queen's try conclus-

TREADY FOR USE

less in price

Then the Montreal aggregation that the result was not allow the Montreal university.

Then the Montreal aggregation that the result was not allowed a wing man, in his quiet manner, that the result was not allowed a wing man, in his quiet manner, that the result was not allowed a wing man, in his quiet manner, that the result was not allowed a wing man, in his quiet manner, that the result was not allowed a wing man, in his quiet manner, that the result was not allowed a wing man, in his quiet manner, that the result was not allowed a wing man, in his quiet manner, that the result was not allowed a wing man, in his quiet manner, that the result was not allowed a wing man, in his quiet manner, that the result was not allowed a wing man, in his quiet manner, that the result was not allowed a wing man, in his quiet manner, that the result was not allowed a wing manner, that the result was not allowed a wing manner, that the result was not allowed a wing manner, that the result was not allowed a wing manner.

Queen's Offset McGPI Antics. All week Coach Sliter had been drilling his team to offset Shaughnessy's plays, and the Kingston collegians as a unit and individually carried out his orders. McGill offside interference play was rendered ineffective by four of the men on the fine stopping back several yards from their marks. The result was that interference beyond the position of the inner wings could not be got away with.

Coach Shaughnessy through the first periods of the game was again seen at his old trick of coaching. The officials by Draper sent the sphere to centre field. Lee, of the visitors, was sent to the touch line for tacking McLeod the touch line for tacking McLeod high. Here Macdonnell loomed up prominently. He took a pass from the theory of the men on the Motill squad to the Montreal twenty-yard line, and his team scored twenty-yard line. Queen's, 7; McGill, 0.

Up to this time Queen's, 7; McGill, 0.

Up to this time Queen's, 7; McGill, 0.

Up to this time Queen's had outplayed McGill in all departments, and the visitors could not unravel their trick plays. Hazlett sent another over the dead line. Queen's, 8; McGill, 0.

But shortly the red and white buck-seen at his old trick of coaching and showed strength in all depart-ments. Hazlett kicked as perhaps never before, on two occasions sending the sphere from the kick-off at Waterous and Rodden roughed it up mid-field far beyond the McGill goal and spent two minutes on the side is: tain practically won the game, for McLachlan was benched for high McCitt had one of his knees wrenched, but held out well. Hill and Macdon- of Hazlett's kicks, and was held for Queen's ell gave valuable support in the a rouge. Half time was called, the back division, being prominent at tally standing 9 to 1 for Queen's. acquitted himself handfliy. to injury he was replaced in the In the first few minutes of the team took revenge upon the Royal Mi second half by McCartney. Quig- second half, McGill displayed a itary College cadets for their fall here Captain of Queen's and the greatest ley, at quarter, had a chance and streak of aggressiveness, and capped the first of the season. The blue and the intercollegiate Union. did prove his worth. As for Kenthis by scoring five points. Rodden white defeated the soldiers by 35 to 17. nedy and Box, the terminals of the and Woollatt were ruled off, which At half time the score stood 15 to 8 liberal party, has been down and minute of the game.

Brophy failed Box is probably the smallest and 9, McGill 6. The general impression was that lightest performer in senior ranks Queen's would emerge second again. Coach Shaughnessy had never been too confident of making a meal of Queen's on their own plot, because he Queen's on their own plot, because he crossed McGill's line this season. had known Queen's and other teams With McLachlan and McLeod, Raitt Gill 6. after a series of reverses, to turn the was a new man in the "scrim"; also Queen's were meeting the on- ter he was replaced by Clarke. tables on almost declared winners of Frieda, who figured at left middle slaught of the visitors in veteran military unit played consistently for pennants. But the McGill bunch in wing. They displayed their ability style. But fear was expressed that the entire hour. But battling against general, keeping in mind the manner to keep company with McIlquham, even yet the tri-color would "blow a heavier wing line, and handicapped in which Queen's had fallen before the Rodden, Ellis, and the others on line, up," which would spell disaster. by cripped halves, Capt. "Jack" Mayin Montreal, and the latter's victory of the visiting machine. The tackover the cadets here last Saturday, ling of the locals was a feature, ritory. Queen's played a consistent

E. O. Sliter had remarked after the heady game throughout. McGill Stars In Line. Reports which had gone abroad he had little fault to find with their of injuries to a number of the performances against the blue and white there. But even he did not expect to take McGill placing a materially weak ened team on the field. Lee, Drappet to take McGill into camp.

On Saturday afternoon, with good or and Watrous, three who had touchdown would snatch the game. he had little fault to find with their of injuries to a number of the On Saturday afternoon, with good football weather, Queen's and McGill been on the hospital books, lined up engaged in one of the most spectacular games ever seen here. A good although the latter had a bad ear, although the latter had a bad ear. The two regular inside wings were did some tall Queen's rooting, such as should always encourage a team, and Wickson filled that cap Will. as should always encourage a team, the scriminage to riughes position, gained thirty yards. Queen's soldiers soon nied the score, 8-8, when whether winning or meeting reverse. and Wickson filled that gap. Wil-advantage when scoring would have tally.

| been most stimulating. They did | With seven minutes to play, and | ter the soldiers were seen to good ad-

the play, a team never struggled hard- 12 to 7 for Queen's. er to secure a try than did the visit- Near the wind-up of play McCartney counters. It was well on in the ing aggregation. The Montreal stu- and McCuay had replaced Scott and third period when the cadets forced er to secure a try than did the visitto cross the tri-color line. A fake McGill, and Queen's outside wing, quarter the soldiers boosted buck, with almost the entire team apparently forcing it, proved fruitless. When the full time was called Still on numerous occasions they press crowd, which had been on its ed very close to Queen's line, but the most of the time, rushed on locals relieved it. Williamson's touch- field and carried the Queen's finished stronger than McGill. In the dying moments, Hazlett had booted Queen's.

two splendid kicks over McGill line.

How Score Was Registered. At three o'clock the toss went to Maedom McCill, and Queen's kicked off against Hazlett a south-west wind blowing diagonally Hill across the field. Hazlett put the ball to Queen's posts, but Brophy chusel it back to the line and just managed to get it over, when he was tackled. The play remained for some minutes in the visitors' territory, and Hazlett opened well-ach up the scoring by kicking over the Raitt ak, run-down condition from which Research for some time. I tried Ump erent remedies but nothing seemed treal. to do me any good until I took Vinfrom which I received great bene

Queen's, I; McGill, U.

Then came a play that put the crowd at the height of joy, and here McGill's proud record was broken. On a kick by Hazlett over McGill's line, the ball was fumbled, and Box landed on it for a try. Hazlett failed to the control of his team against the, up to the control of his team against the, up to the control of his team against the control of his team ag that point, almost assured champions. He told a Whig man, in his quiet convert. Queen's, 6; McGill, 0.

Then the Montreal aggregation carand a scrimmage took place on Mc-Gill's goal line. Draper cleared. Mc-Lean was given the first penalty for color had fallen

After changing ends the play went to McGill's ten-yard line, and a kick by Draper sent the sphere to centre

But shortly the red and white buckfrom the touch line. The officials and the spectators were not blinded to this, and the referee, during a stop in the play, requested the coach to stop this work.

Queem's displayed marked improvement during the past week, provement during the past week, touch Queen's S. McGill 1.

ath Bruce victory seemed to stimul wing line, they were in the best of allowed Williamson to buck through for the winners. Coach Sliter's team, which, like trim, and required watching every the local open position for a try. Contrary to intention when leaving

Brophy failed to convert. Queen's here on Friday noon, Cadet Norman

But they did not, and as a reminder mard's fourteen stowed them under by that they were still in it, Hazlett a handy margin. Campbell, the Torregistered another score by punting onto quarterback, pulled off one of the over the dead line. Queen's 11, most spectacular plays by carrying McGill 6. The game was delayed cadets' third-quarter kick-off over for through injury to Wickson, of Mcin through inj

McGill was also given a good recep- liamson replaced Ross on the right emerged from another critical situ- following a triple buck, the red and ation. Finally Draper booted over white secured a try, and converted it McGill played to the best of their to Hazlett, who was held by Laing The ball went into the Cadets' touch ability, although a little more head work would have been of material This concluded the red and white point margin, 9 to 8.

been most stimulating. They did not have things their own way at any point of the game, and endeavored to execute a large number of their trick plays, a few of which were being kept in reserve for 'Varty. Lee, Woollatt. Brophy and Draper played their usual good proper played their usual good the last three minutes which were back division, but the last three minutes which were most stimulates to play, and ter the soldiers were seen to good advantage. Greenwood got away for the yards at one time, but was stopped by Carr when a try seemed eminute. But Varsity again tallied, Schemator of the secured a punt, and the play was forced up field. Macdonnell had run another out safely. But in the last three minutes which were and Brophy was out boated decidedly Opena's Haglett, boated. Draper and Brophy were out-booted decidedly Queen's, Hazlett booted In the second half Varsity scored oy the Queen's captain.

The sphere over the dead line. Time three tries, and Maynard converting the third and fourth periods of was called with the score standing ed one. Three roughes and touches ents endeavored in various manners Raitt on Queen's team. Lee, of Mackenzie to rouge. In the fou down in the second half was the fruit and officials triumphantly from the

be in the game all right next Satur-Flying Wing M. Wings

Coach Shau and I am strong and well a- the grounds to Queen's gym., and I am glad to recom- his team had dressed. The result of That surpass the best the combined action of the members have struggle with some of the men made to order at $10 to $15 combined with the blood making and bers of the team. When saked to combined with the blood making and bers of the team.

and Capt. "Jack" Hazlett, as well as members of the team, received showers of congratulations. Hazlett had against Queen's next Saturday and

'Varsity Took Revenge. At the Stadium in Toronto, on Sat-

not in good shape. In the last quar-

three tries, and Maynard convert-in goal accounted for the other five score to 11, by forcing Carr back over the line for a safety touch. Before time was called R.M.C. lande score being 36 to 17 for 'Varsity.'

a touchdown and convert, the final

The cadets returned to the city on Sunday noon. Macaulay stayed over in Toronto to have his knee at

The line-up was:

tended to. It was expected he would

Campbell Cochrane

Pearce Greenwood

Cory Matthews

rive of the state of Colorado, ordere

urday afternoon the Varsity

To day and Tuesday: Moderate west and north-west gales.

SIMPLICITY

keynote of 1913 CORSETING

The fashionable woman must be hipless and bustless, and above all she hould be slender. Hard to tain al lthis, you say? Not very hard when you realize there is the perfect model for your figure-to be obtaine damong our live model corsets-and one that will afford you perfect corset satisfaction.

Sole agents for:

American Lady Le Reine

it to yourself.

Kabo

Nemo (reducing) Frolaset (front laced) Mme. Lyra and Steacy's CL.00 Special.

Let us prove "the why" of the above-you owe

STEACY'S

"WHERE MOST PEOPLE DEAL."

And jugs of every description; the largest variety in Canada.

Dainty old-fashioned and modern shapes and styles. Hundreds to select from.

See our window display.

ROBERTSON'S, LIMITED

Fine China

Rich Cut Glass

COUNTING UP

the cost of our fixtures, supplies and installation, and then subtracting the improved appearance, the eye strain saved, the cleanliness, conveniences and comfort, and you'll find and electrical conveniences that we install in your home or office more than pay. Get our estimates and figure it out from an

LECTRICITY

H. W. Newman Electric Co. 79 Princess St., Kingston

Boys' Rugby Pants

Just as good for Hockey

88 Princess St.

Phone 52