NAVIGATION SEASON

TO BE PROLONGED AS LONG AS POSSIBLE

A Special Effort Will Be Made For a Free Channel From Quebec To Three Rivers All Winter.

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—With the approach of the close of the season of navigation the department of marine and fisheries is making preparations for the prolongation of that period as much as possible and the hastening of the 1914 season next spring. As usual special attention is being devoted to the work in the St. Lawrence ship channel with a view to preventing floods, securing earlier navigation to Montreal and a longer season for dredging operations.

An effort is to be made this year to keep the channel open from Quebec to Three Rivers during the whole winter. Although a new giant ice breaker, to be the largest in the Canadian service, is now under construction, it is learned that it will scarcely be ready before next spring. However, with the Montcalm and the Lady Grey, the department is going to do its best and, unless severe weather conditions are too severe, expects to keep the channel open, as usual, while the big ice breaker will probably be ready in time to break up the ice jam which generally forms at Cape Rouge. With the big boats, in commission the department has every expectation that an open channel can be maintained every winter between Quebec and Three Rivers.

Predictions as to the date of the closing of navigation this year place it as during the first or second week in December. All buoys will be left in the St. Lawrence as late as possible to enable the last ships to make the passage from Montreal and ice breakers will be detailed to assist in picking them up if necessary. The latter boats will later be put to the work of preventing jams by breaking up the ice while it is still light, special attention being paid to such points as Grandines and Batiscan while Cap Rouge, of course, will also be given a great deal of attention.

VICTOR MURDOCK
Progressive Leader of the U. S. House.

Red-headed, robust, rampant, Victor Murdock, progressive leader of the U. S. House in every debate of the house these days, Murdock, marshalled the Progressives in the big fight in the second congressional district of Maine on September 8th, when all three parties finished a notable battle on the stump in a look ahead to the effect on the congressional elections to come in the various states. A Republican was elected.

Murdock is from Kansas, was a newspaper reporter about to seek a metropolitan job on one of the New York papers when notified of his nomination to Congress, and is still managing editor of the Wichita Daily Eagle, which his family owns. He is a born insurger and led the anti-Cannan fight in the house along with Norris, of Nebraska. His pet hobby of fighting fast mail subsidies had broadened into long string of Progressive party platform tenet.

IS GENUINE TREAT

Favorite Light Opera Presented by Exceptionally Capable Cast.

The Ottawa Citizen says: Musically full of the deep, large toned melodies of the de Koven score, and exceptionally appreciated by a cast and ensemble well selected to bring forth the best in the comic opera, "Rob Roy" was presented at the Russell Theatre last evening.

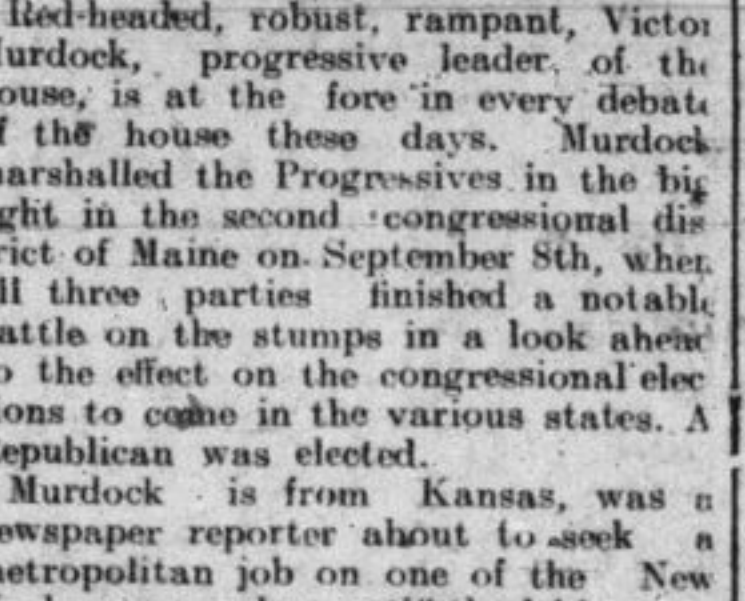

This organization is easily the best light opera company ever seen in Ottawa. Headed by Miss Bessie Abbott and soloists of grand opera calibre, with the principal comedy role in the keeping of Jefferson de Angelis, and with costumes and scenery of a lavish scale, the presentation was such as to delight every one present last night. The only regrettable feature of the engagement is that "Rob Roy" is here or one night only.

Miss Abbott proved equal to the many difficult portions of the score and her singing played a no unimportant part in making the production so thoroughly enjoyed.

Miss Bessie Abbott, who has a contralto of great richness and purity, sang the favorite, "Dearest Heart of My Heart," with great charm. Of the male voices, Herbert Waterous as "Lochiel" possibly carried off the palm. His singing of "The Song of the Sea" showed the resources of the wonderful baritone, and the audience repeatedly encored his efforts. James Stevens in the first act did not singably well with the "Rob Roy" number. In addition to the solos there were a number of quintets, etc., that were really beautiful.

"Jeff" de Angelis brings fun in his train as usual. He is a laugh maker all the time he is on and has a good assistant in Phillip Sheffield as the town crier. De Angelis has a part that suits him right down to the ground for comedy. His serenade and the wonderful turns caused rounds of merriment.

The ballets are novel and beautiful with really youthful and attractive girls.

GANANQUE TIDINGS
What is Transpiring in the Little River Town.

Gananque, Nov. 5.—Mrs. Thomas O'Connor passed to rest yesterday afternoon at the family residence, Charles street, after an illness extending over several months, a considerable amount of which was spent in St. Vincent de Paul hospital, Brockville, with an affliction of the throat. Deceased was well known and held in high esteem for her many estimable qualities. She says, beside her husband, one son, Thomas O'Connor, a student of St. Michael's school, Toronto, and one daughter, Miss Loreta, at home.

Mrs. Kate Gould, King street, is confined to her home suffering from a severe attack of grippe. Noe Jauthier, William Cliffe and Frederick Gratian, of Ottawa, left this morning on a hunting trip to Mud Bay, where they will spend the balance of the week. Mr. and Mrs. John Lasha and son, Keith, Charles street, who have been spending the past week with friends in Athens have returned home.

Likely To Be Financed.
It is reported that the committee appointed at the last meeting of the Cape Vincent Board of Trade, to look into the feasibility of erecting a summer hotel on the old Rathbun house site, is meeting with encouragement on all sides, and there seems to be no reason why the project cannot be financed.

A Duty Undone.
