SOME OF THE PLANKS

Of the Rowell Programme Of Social Legislation.

Toronto, Nov. 5 .- It is interesting note in connection with the Peel byeelection the line of attack taken by the liberals. That its results in Brampton, where the chief struggle occurred were successful, is proved by the decisive change of that town from the conservative to the liberal column. In the first place the Rowell programme of social legislation was preached day and night. A few of the planks discussed were the following : Rural life: Improvements and in creased privileges and attractions country life to stop the course of rural depopulation and to foster the movement "back to the land." Sailor-artist On Grand Trunk Ship. A sailor-artist has been discovered among the crew of the Grand Trunk steamer Prince George which runs between Seattle, Wash, and Victoria, Vancouver and Prince Rupert, B.C., in the person of Boatswain Harry S Cowper, who last week won the gold medal and diploms at the Prince Rupert exhibition for the best oil painting of a local subject by a provincial artist. Mr. Cowper submitted three canvases; all of which were placed at the head of the competition, the gold medal being given to a canvas entitled. "The Steamer Prince

John in a Southeaster.' The picture had been painted on board ship for a diversion, under the dis advantages of a 'tween deck studio lit by an artificial light, and subject to the motion of the boat. But the disadvantages under which it was painted is not reflected in the painting which is full of artistic merit. Naturally Mr. Cowper's shipmates are pleased at the honor which came to
