A LIVELY NOMINATION
HELD AT CATARAQUI ON MONDAY AFTERNOON
 Byron Gordon and Joseph Hawkey, Candidates For Reeve-ship, Meet On the Platform—The Former Denies Statements Made About Him.
 A very lively time occurred at the nomination meeting for the township of Kingston, held at Cataraqui, on Monday afternoon. While one of the speakers was busily engaged in presenting certain matters before the large audience, two men in the audience got into a "scrap." The cry of "Fight! Fight!" put an end to the address for a few minutes until the parties were separated.
 There promises to be one of the hardest fought elections ever held in the township of Kingston on Monday next. Byron Gordon, of Glenvale, was has been reeve for the past two years, is again an aspirant for the position. Joseph Hawkey, the deputy-reeve, is also a candidate.
 Dr. J. W. Edwards, who was also nominated, asked that his name be removed from the list. There are in the field for the deputy-reeve-ship—A. E. Weller, John Clyde, Benson Coulter.
 In the field for councillors are H. S. McIver, E. H. Stover, John McKeever, William McAdoo, Benjamin Kish, William Pillar, John Clyde, J. L. F. Sproule, Robert Polk, J. A. Rowden and Benson Coulter. Several other men were nominated, but they decided to withdraw.

 From the time that the nominations opened, at twelve o'clock, things were very busy in the village hall. It was four o'clock before the speeches were over.
 Byron Gordon, the present reeve of the township, told of expenditures during the past year. The printing amounted to $423.86; charities, $107.65; of this sum $50 was given to Mrs. Reynor at the Grand Trunk lower depot, whose husband was killed; salaries, $1,209; legal advice, $23; drainage, $594.53; Board of Health, $158.85; sheep killed by dogs, $155.59; crusher account, $3,013.14; bonus on wire fence, $1,163.57; roads and bridges, $2,047.42.
 Mr. Gordon took occasion to contradict several rumors, which had gone the rounds of the township. One of the rumors was to the effect that the committee, which had charge of purchasing the stone crusher, had received $2,000 "take off" of $200 from the Climax company. He was credited with receiving one-third of that amount. He said that he had never been approached by any representative of that company. He would consider it as an insult were he to be offered money under such circumstances.

 Mr. Gordon stated that he had been credited with saying that as long as he was reeve of the township the sand trucks would run over the Storrington road. This statement he declared to be untrue. As a matter of fact, he had gone to the provincial engineer, but was informed that there was no law to hinder them from running on the road. At a meeting held in Belleville he advocated that a tax should be placed on such trucks.
 Joseph Hawkey, the other nominee for the reeve-ship, was the next speaker. He stated that he had always been in favor of helping Kingston, but he thought that the city fathers should give the farmers of the county a free market. He had been opposed to moving the office of the representative of the Department of Agriculture from Sydenham to Kingston. During his address he made a few remarks which called forth details from Mr. Gordon.
 Dr. J. W. Edwards, when called upon to say a few words, stated that he did not believe that it should be in the interests of the township to unite the office of township clerk and treasurer, which had been suggested by some.

 A. E. Weller, who is in the field for the deputy reeve-ship, spoke at some length. He stated that the council which was to be elected by the people this year would be called upon to deal with some very important matters, and for that reason he would ask that the voters consider carefully whom they put in office. Among the matters discussed by the candidate were the proposed electric power supply for the township, which would likely be brought from Kingston Mills, increased township grants to the schools, and the removal of market tolls in the city.
 The other candidates who addressed the gathering were John Clyde, Benson Coulter, E. H. Stover, William Pillar and J. L. F. Sproule. John Riley acted as chairman.
 Several of the speakers made special reference to the attitude of the City Council on the market toll question. A. E. Weller, who is very anxious that the tolls be removed, stated that he had yet to find a man who is not in favor of a free market. The market gardeners, it appears, are anxious that if the market is to be made free, a certain portion be set aside for them. They claim that as they are regular attendants at the market place, they should be given a little better "show" than persons who only come once or twice a year.
 Mr. Weller stated that he believed the only way to get rid of the dog nuisance in the township would be to substitute cats. For some time, the council has been called upon to settle many bills for sheep which have been killed by the dogs.

FOR SCHOOL DECORATION
Moving Picture Shows Held To Raise Funds.
 There appears to be more than one way of raising money to be devoted towards decorating the walls of a schoolroom. One of these novel methods, which is being employed, taken the form of moving pictures, which are being shown in the King Edward theatre on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday mornings of this week. The proprietor of the King Edward gladly consented to allow those in charge of the affair to have the use of that theatre free during the evenings of the above mentioned days. Good-sized crowds attended on Monday and Tuesday morning. There was four thousand feet of film shown portraying "The Pied Piper of Hamelin," "Babes in the Woods," "Red Riding Hood," and some excellent films showing "Bird Life," "Hedgehog," in their natural habits. The pictures are also shown of the natives making pottery in Borneo and the different methods employed by them in burning and other ways of decorating it. The closing film showing the beautiful scenery surrounding "Monte Carlo" with its gardens, walks, etc. This latter picture is beautifully colored as well as the one entitled "The Babes in the Woods."
 The object of putting on this attraction is to raise funds for decoration purposes in Cataraqui, Sydenham, Louise and Rideau schools.

Special Island Ferry Trip.
 The steamer Wolfe Islander made another special trip to the foot of Wolfe Island, on Tuesday morning, to give the residents of that section another opportunity of doing some marketing before New Year's day. Owing to the mist which hung over the river, it made it difficult to make any speed, with the result that the ferry boat was late in reaching the city. The crew of the steamer hope that it will not snow until after the return trip is made. It will be remembered that the captain and crew experienced a difficult proposition last week when they were returning from their trip to the foot of the island.

AT THE GRAND
 The English Musical Comedy Company To-night.
 F. Stuart-Whyte's all-star, English musical comedy company, the "Vermonts," will be the offering at the Grand for two nights, commencing Tuesday. This sterling aggregation of London comedians and comedienne bears the enviable reputation of being the foremost organization of its kind ever brought to Canada. The personnel of the company includes twelve singing principals, and as there are a score of song numbers in each of their offerings, the term, musical comedy, may be used advisedly.
 The opening bill which will be presented to-night, is entitled "The Canadian Express," and was written by F. Stuart-Whyte after a trip on one of the principal transcontinental lines between Halifax and Vancouver. All of the familiar characters to be found in a railway coach have been woven into the story.
 "The Inner Shrine" New Year's Day.
 The cast which will interpret "The Inner Shrine," dramatized by Channing Pollock from the novel of the same name, and comes to Kingston for New Year's, matinee (and night), will be the same that will present this striking play at the Park Theatre, Boston, where it is booked for the next three months. Each player was specially engaged to fit the characters so pronounced in the novel. Heading the cast is the winsome Justina Wayne, an actress of wide experience, who interprets the role of Diane Evelyth, Basil King's heroine. That handsome and magnetic actor, Albert Andrus, was chosen for the part of Derek Prunz, the ardent lover and the hero of the story. That sterling actor, William Phillips, has been cast for the part of the Marquis de Bienville, and Marion Grimston, his fiancée, has been allotted to that young American beauty, Emma Zola Teismart. This young woman was the heroine of the great battle, near the city of Mexico, which took place in the early summer. Basil King, the author of the book, was at that time in Madrid, Spain, and hearing of the heroism of this young beauty, he immediately called her an offer to create the adventurous role in this intensely interesting play.
