Which Is It?

In the matter of a home you work for a landlord or yourself. As a renter you work exclusively for a landlord. As a home buyer you work chiefly for yourself. In buying a home upon the easy payment plan, your equity in it steadily increases until you are its sole owner. That's better than paying endless tribute—the rent-payer's task. Especially when you can buy a home at such a reasonable figure and at such easy terms as we are prepared to give you.

MADE STRONG PROTEST SIX SUNDAY SCHOOLS

AGAINST CONSTABLE PUTTING HANDCUFFS ON LAD.

W. F. Nickle, K.C., said it was outrageous for Constable to Take Action He Did—Four Lads Before Court For Loitering on Street Corner.

In police court on Wednesday morning, W. F. Nickle, K.C., made a vigorous protest against the action of Police Constable Cotter, for having placed the handcuffs on a young lad, who was arraigned in the police court on a charge of loitering on a street corner. Mr. Nickle appeared on behalf of the boy, who entered a plea of "not guilty." The magistrate dismissed the charge against this lad and three others, who admitted the offence, were let go with a warning, the magistrate stating that their loitering around the street corners was a source of great annoyance to ladies passing. The lads were charged with "holding down" the corner of Princess and Nelson street on Sunday evening, Dec. 21st. One lad protested strongly that he was not one of the "bunch," while Constable Cotter swore that he was.

The fact that the constable had put the handcuffs on the lad, and walked him down the street a couple of blocks was brought out in the evidence. Mr. Nickle stated that the boy was well known here, of respectable parents, and that it was an outrage for the constable to have put the handcuffs on him.

Constable Cotter stated that he had put the handcuffs on the boy so as to take precautions that he would not get away from him. He wanted to get from the lad the names of the others who had been loitering around the corner. Just as soon as he got the names he gave the boy his liberty.

D. A. Givens, city solicitor, stated that the constable had only taken advantage of the power given him by his position. Magistrate Farrell said that lack of judgment had been shown in the handling of the matter, but stated that he had nothing further to say on the matter before the court.

Four drunks were in the line-up. Magistrate Farrell appealed to them to make New Year's resolution and stand by it.

Three milkmen were summoned for not paying their license, but a settlement has been made in each case, and no further action was taken.

IN HOCKEY CIRCLES

FRONTENACS LOST IN PRESTON BY 7 TO 5

Collegiates Play in Belleville on Thursday Evening—The Ice Ponds Produce Good Hockey Players.

The two Kingston teams met defeat in exhibition matches, on Tuesday night. The Frontenacs seniors went down by a score of 7 to 5, at Preston, while Queen's were trimmed by Ottawa College, in New York city, by 6 to 1. The Frontenacs played an excellent game in Preston, considering that it was their first match this season. The Preston bunch have been playing the game and were in good condition.

It was found necessary for the match to be played in the old rink, on account of there not being ice in the new one.

Queen's Lost in New York.

Queen's senior squad were forced to bow to Father Stanton's boys in the first match of the Canadian Intercollegiate hockey series being played in New York city, on Tuesday night. During the first period Ray Smith, goal tender for the Kingstonians, was kept very busy. The following was the Queen's line: Goal, Ray Smith; point, McKinnon; rover, point, W. Smith; rover, L. Smith; centre, Boy; right wing, Dobson; left wing, Rappell.

Kilmear Reid Elected Captain.

Before the Frontenacs seniors went on the ice at Preston, on Tuesday evening, the players got together and elected "Shawnee" Reid as captain of the outfit for this season.

K.C.I. Versus Trenton.

The Kingston Collegiate Institute O.H.A. team will open the series in Belleville on New Year's (Thursday evening), when it plays Trenton. When the O.H.A. executive met some weeks ago the management of the Trenton club asked that all its home games be played in Belleville, on account of the Trenton rink being destroyed by fire.

It is likely that the following will be the local team: Goal, C. Stewart; defence, A. Singleton and B. Ferguson; rover, H. Cooke; centre, J. Stewart (captain); wings, H. Toland, Paul and C. Young.

Ice Pond Players.

The management of the Frontenac Hockey Club is convinced that the place to find promising material for a hockey team is among the boys who play on the ponds in the outer sections of the city. On the last week, Stanley Trotter visited Caton's pasture, where a number of lads were playing the game. After making a close inspection he discovered some boys who showed the earmarks of hockey artists. It is expected that before the season is completed some of this material will be seen with the junior Frontenacs.

Bible Class Entertained.

Rev. E. LeRoy Rice entertained the members of the Bible class of the First Congregational church, at his home, on Tuesday evening, when the members spent an enjoyable time. A short programme was contributed by members of the class. Refreshments were served.

HELD CHRISTMAS EVENTS ON TUESDAY EVENING

St. Andrew's, St. Luke's, St. George's, and Queen Street Children Had Happy Times in Their Church Halls.

Tuesday evening was the Christmas tree occasion for four of the city Sunday schools. At St. Andrew's church all scores of the scholars of the King Sunday school, of which James Craig is superintendent, spent a very happy time. Refreshments were served, and a programme followed, with the arrival of Santa Claus, who distributed gifts from the nicely decked tree.

Rev. S.J.M. Compton presided and made an address. The programme consisted of the chorus, "O Canada," by some of the cadets; recitations by Donald McIntyre, Bertha Wilson Orton Donnelly, Willie Aiken, Jean Simmons, Melville Borland, Kent McIntyre, Ethel Mercer, John Denton, Gertrude Ayresworth, Jean McPherson, Isabel Stuart; a Dutch song by Mary, Agatha and Cornelia Housman; a dialogue by ten scholars trained by Mrs. R. Carr Harris; vocal solos by the Misses L. Cullen and M. Wilson, a duet by Alice and Helen Stevens, and a vocal selection by Miss N. Tolgman. H. Breck operated the lantern, and threw views on the screen.

Bethel Sunday School.

The Sunday School and congregation of Bethel church gathered in full strength last night around their Christmas tree. The church auditorium was filled, and the great tree which reached to the ceiling was loaded with hundreds of gifts. The entertainment preceded a distribution. Two choruses were given by the primary and junior department scholars, conducted by Misses Alice Moxley, Wilhelmina Knapp, Myrtle Clyde, and Violet Hilland; recitations by Helen Kennedy and Gladys Montgomery; vocal solo by Doris Woolgan. Misses Alice Babecek's and Ella Porter's classes of girls gave a star drill. Allan Haffner's class of boys discussed Seven Cities of the Bible. Miss Lillian Thompson's class appeared in dialogue. Bethel made quartette, William Thompson, Allan and Frederick Haffner and Frederick J. Wilson sang "The Holy Night," and Allan Haffner rendered the tenor solo, "The Star of Bethlehem." George Mills, the superintendent, deacons, B. W. Robertson and John Veale, and the pastor gave brief speeches. Distribution of gifts was made by several young men. The programme was arranged by Miss Isabel Moxley, organist.

First Baptist Bible School.

The First Baptist Bible school held its Christmas tree entertainment last evening. The Sunday school hall was packed with a deeply interested audience of both old and young. The proceedings were opened with prayer by the pastor, Dr. E. J. Lake, superintendent, managed the stereopticon with his usual splendid success, while J. D. Calvin, associate superintendent, presided and carried through the varied and very interesting programme. The first part of the programme was supplied by members of the school, songs, choruses, recitations, etc. All did well.

The second part consisted of a series of views thrown upon the screen. Part of these recalled the sports of last mid-summer picnic. A considerable number of views from pictures taken at the ceremonies of laying the corner stone of the new church building, last
