STILL HAMMERING AT DAVID LEOYD GEORGE.

Party Organs Hint That Lloyd George is to be Disciplined by Asquith For His Anti-Armament Speech, But the Statement is HI-Founded.

London, Jan. 9.- The sensation in the newspapers is a despatch from Paris stating that Mr. Lloyd-George, who has been motoring in Algiers, has been recalled to attend an urgent cabinet council meeting. The general assumption is that Mr. Asquith has derided to discipline Mr. Lloyd-George on his "Little Navy" speech, and the consequent cabinet discussions.

Mr. Lloyd-George has not been called. The chancellor of the chequer intended to return to London on the 17th inst., but phenomenal weather of snow and ice caused a rearrangement of his programme.
