PICTON'S NEW RECTOR

REV. F. L. BARBER APPOINTED BY BISHOP MILLS

To Succeed Canon E. Loucks — Picton Defeated Trenton at Hockey by 6 to 5 — Agricultural Meetings.

Picton, Jan. 12.—His lordship the Bishop of Ontario has been pleased to appoint as rector of the parish of St. Mary Magdalene, Picton, the Rev. F. Louis Barber, L.H., who has been since March, 1912, in charge of the parish as vicar, the former rector, Rev. Canon Loucks, having handed in his resignation, which was to take effect from the 1st January last.

The Rev. E. Loucks was appointed rector of Picton early in 1874, following the first rector of the parish, the Rev. W. Macaulay, thus holding the position for very close upon forty years, though he has not had the actual oversight of the parish for the last ten years.

The Rev. F. L. Barber took up his residence in Picton nearly two years since, coming from the parish of Bobcaygeon. During this time the handsome church has been completed and opened, the work of the parish being much more concentrated with one well appointed place of worship instead of, as formerly, part of the services being held in the old church away on the eastern extremity of the town and the remaining part in the barn-like parish house.

A fast and exciting game of hockey was played at the Picton Arena on Friday night between Trenton and Picton. The ice was in good condition and large crowds turned out to watch the game. Soon after the face-off Trenton scored and soon followed up with another goal. Picton after many attempts then managed to force the puck past the stolid defence of the Trenton goal-tender.

Shortly before the end of the half Trenton scored again and when half-time was called the tally stood 3 to 1 in Trenton's favor. During the second half the home team rallied and managed to place four goals between the nets, while Trenton scored two. Since the teams were tied at 5 to 5 it was agreed to play two more five-minute halves. Just about a minute before time was called a goal was scored by the home team and Picton was victorious by a score of 6 to 5.

For the first time this winter on Saturday Picton had the pleasure of seeing cutters out again and hearing the merry sleigh bells jingling, enough snow having fallen to make fairly good sleighing.

Quite a number visited town from outside points. Ice cutting has commenced, though the ice is not yet of any great thickness. The snow has spoiled the very excellent skating on the bay.

Much interest is being taken in the poultry exhibition to be held in the market hall this week. This is the first annual show of the Prince Edward County Poultry, Pigeon and Pet Stock association. There is an extensive prize list, and besides the live stock there are exhibits of dressed poultry and eggs. A special feature of the show will be an exhibit from the live stock branch of the dominion department of agriculture, under the direction of Messrs. S. C. Stuart and Booth. Helpful demonstrations will be given as to the best methods of preparing and packing poultry and eggs for market.

In connection with the poultry exhibition a convention will be held on the day previous, Thursday, Jan. 15th, at the office of the Department of Agriculture, Main street, Picton. There will be special features from Ottawa and Quebec. Meetings, entirely free, will be held afternoon and evening. At the afternoon meetings the following topics will be discussed: (1) Breeds of Poultry, Feeds and Feeding, Egg Production, Marketing Poultry and Eggs; and at the evening meeting commencing at 7.30, there will be for discussion (1) The Construction and Types of Poultry Houses, (2) Best Methods of Fattening Chickens.

The annual meeting of the Prince Edward Agricultural society will be held in the county buildings, Picton, on Wednesday, Jan. 21st.

At the Anglican church on Sunday evening last, the Rev. F. L. Barber, rector, commenced a course of sermons on the book entitled "The Inside of the Cup," by Winston Churchill.

This week will be observed by the various churches as a week of united prayer, a service being held in each church in turn. Monday, Main street church; Tuesday, Baptist church; Wednesday, First Methodist church; Thursday, Anglican Parish House; Friday, St. Andrew's Presbyterian church.

A FINE AFFAIR.

Was the Dance of the K. C. C. on Monday Evening.

The dance held in the city hall on Monday night by the Kingston Canoe Club was successful to the degree as to again justify the reputation the members have for such affairs. It was their New Year event, but was the chief of the season. The young people in attendance numerically larger than on some former occasions, were such as to provide a most congenial company. The music, supplied by Arbuckle's orchestra, was declared more pleasing than ever. There were about twenty dances, two of which were of the "moon variety," but the tango was not tolerated. The decorations added to the artistic appearance of the hall.

To W. Mills, the president of the club, and a committee composed of A. W. Brundage, Chairman, A. P. Campbell, G. S. Vanalstine, H. C. Cooke and R. Rogers are attributed the credit for the success.

RECALLS OLD DAYS

Charles George, Bath Road, is Eighty-five Years of Age.

Charles George, Bath Road, the well-known gardener, is now in his eighty-fifth year, hale and hearty, and receiving the congratulations of his friends—and they are legion. He came to this district sixty-five years ago, and recalling the old days in the city, stated that he well remembers when there were no trees in the City Park, and stated that when the warden of the penitentiary now lives, was nothing but woods. There was a toll gate at Morton's distillery property. The Whig joins with the many others in wishing Mr. George many more years of good health and prosperity.

THE T. N. O. REVENUES

ARE DECREASING AND THE DEFICITS ARE INCREASING

The Ontario Government is Using the Line as an Asset For the Conservative Party — Poor Management Shown.

Toronto, Jan. 13.—What is the matter with the T. N. O. railway? This is a provincial road owned by the people of Ontario and naturally they want to know why the revenues are decreasing and the deficits increasing so fast. The official returns just handed out by the government show a decline in net earnings of over $200,000 compared with last year. Considering the interest charges on the capital invested the deficit amounts to about $500,000—a seriously large amount.

What are the causes? The situation is undoubtedly a complicated one and merits careful study. A few points, however, loom up in any survey.

In the first place, Chairman Englehart, although an excellent business man and an admirable citizen, is not a railway expert; whereas surely the executive head of a railway should have technical training.

What is worse, the government is evidently using the line as an asset for the conservative party. The influence of politics is clearly shown in the appointments to various offices. In many cases employees of the road are practically acting as conservative organizers in New Ontario.

And what about the Elk Lake branch? What part of the deficit is to be attributed to this success? The chairman of the commission reported against the building of this branch but apparently for political reasons, work was gone on with. Has this section paid, or even nearly paid?

Another fundamental defect is the lack of any constructive policy by the government to bring in settlers to New Ontario and thus develop business on the government line. This failure is hurtful not only to the T. & N. O. railway but to the whole country of New Ontario.
