RESULTS OF ASSAULTS AT ARMS CONTESTS

Dean Connell to Attend Session of Medical Court to See That Students Live Up to Their Promises.

The remainder of the events in the Queen's assault-at-arms were run off last evening. The best boxing bout was Shields and O'Connor. This was in the 145 pound class. Shields and O'Connor were very evenly matched, but in the three rounds Shields won by points.

Dodds, in the 135 pound class, threw MacIntyre.

Some of the fencing events have been postponed.

The Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. held their regular meeting yesterday. Instructive reports were heard from the delegates to the Kansas conference. The audience was delighted with numbers from the Choral Society.

In the inter-year basketball, arts '17 defaulted to arts '16. This leaves arts '15 and '16 still in the running for the arts championship.

A curious letter is posted in the different halls claiming to be from the manager of a theatrical troupe which intends playing in the city very soon. The letter says that the company intends to give a special performance on Saturday night for the benefit of the students and invites them to attend en masse with a supply of confetti and ribbons and in every way enliven the evening. The idea seems quite popular with the students and in all probability they will be well represented.

Things in medicine are very quiet just now except amongst the officers of the medical court, which is scheduled to hold next Monday night. It is reported that there are twenty-seven cases of more or less importance to be dealt with and also that the dean is considering attending to see that the students intend to live up to their promises. Already several enterprising final year men have notices up advertising the fact that they are ready to defend any cases and otherwise make it unpleasant for the prosecution.

Medicine '15 are considering joining with the same year in other faculties in producing their year book. The freshmen year is endeavoring to secure a year pin which it would be well for some of the other years to fall in line with. The final year are having photographs taken for their graduating group picture.

The men of science, feeling their superiority over the other faculties, have challenged all comers to meet their men-of-brain in an assault-of-arms, and an amusing sign in the gymnasium advertises the fact. The science book store is having a sale of all its stock, giving a thirty per cent. reduction in all its goods. Instruction classes are being held for those men of the Fifth Engineering Corps, who wish to qualify for officers.

Arts '14 and '15 intend holding a skating party some time early in February. Some members of the first year wished the skating party to be for that year only, considering this was their last year at Queen's.

Arts '14 year book, on which committees are all working hard, is nearly ready to go to print. The Choral Society has made arrangements to go to Belleville next Tuesday by special train. The date on which "Lion of Arc" is to be presented has not yet been decided upon but in all probability it will be in the near future.

FIRE ON THE LAURA D.

The Sloop Was Badly Damaged Before Blaze Was Extinguished

A fire which broke out on the sloop Laura D., owned by Sudds Bros., of Suncoo Island, on Friday evening last, did damage to the extent of about $1,100. The cause of the fire is unknown. When the blaze was discovered George Sudds made two holes in the ice at the side of the boat and by this means was able to get water to throw on the burning boat. After working for some hours Mr. Sudds extinguished the blaze, which had spread to the stern and cabin, which were ruined.

THE QUARRY ABOUT READY

A Dozen Men Will Start on Friday Morning

On Friday morning, a dozen men who have sought employment through the city engineers office will start to break stone at the city quarry on Montreal street.

Dean Starr has undertaken to get the lumber for the erection of a shack so that the men will be able to get warmed. It is likely that hot soup will be provided for the workers.

Ready to Give Classes

The commercial advisory committee of the Board of Education met on Wednesday, with J. G. Elliott as chairman, and decided to open free commercial night classes if there proved to be any demand from clerks and young men engaged in business.

HELMER-GRANT WEDDING

In Queen Street Methodist Church on Wednesday.

Rev. G. I. Campbell, of Queen Street Methodist church officiated at two weddings on Wednesday. The ceremony which took place in the church at five o'clock in the afternoon was that of the marriage of the pastor's cousin, Miss Nellie R. Grant, daughter of Charles P. Helmer, of Lunenburg. The couple were unattended, the bride being given away by her uncle, Allan Grant, of Wales, Ont. She was attired in a travelling suit of navy blue cheviot, and wore a velvet hat, with plumes to match, also wearing sable fur trim. After the ceremony the bride and groom and relatives repaired to the parsonage, where the wedding repast was partaken of.

Mr. and Mrs. Helmer left on the evening train for Brockville, Ottawa and eastern points. Concluding their matrimony at the residence of the bride in Lunenburg. The bride is a graduate nurse of Montreal and New York hospitals.

Ford-Buck Nuptials

Quietly in the parsonage, at eight o'clock, Rev. Mr. Campbell united in matrimony Miss Myrtle Buck, of Portsmouth, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Buck, and William N. Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ford, of the same village. To the young couple are extended the congratulations of many friends. They will reside in Portsmouth.

WORK ON THE FARM

Farmers Now on the Lookout for Help Next Summer.

The farmers in the Kingston district, having in view the great trouble they experienced last summer securing sufficient farm help, have started in very early in an endeavor to arrange for their help. George Hunter, immigration agent, when asked by the Whig, on Thursday morning, stated that he had received a great many applications from farmers for help.

REFUSED TO TAKE JOB

He Was Offered $5 a Month and His Board.

The Whig was informed on Thursday morning, about a citizen who wanted to do a good turn for a young fellow who was out of work. He secured him a place with a farmer, for the winter at $5 a month and board with his smoking tobacco thrown in, but the young fellow turned up his nose at the job, and is still walking the streets. The citizen stated that the young fellow should have taken the job until he could have secured something better.

Death of Little Norah Hughes

Very sincere sympathy is felt for Major and Mrs. W. S. Hughes, formerly of this city. On Wednesday forenoon, their little daughter, Norah Fitzgerald, aged four years and nine months, died in the Cornwall hospital after a short illness of meningitis. She had been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. McLeod, having left Kingston three weeks ago, prior to the family's removal to Ottawa, in view of Major Hughes' position as inspector of penitentiaries requiring his residence at the capital. Little Norah was a very bright child and popular with her Kingston playmates who will mourn the passing away of their former companion. The remains will be taken to Ottawa where interment will take place on Friday.

THREE BIG BOOKS FORMERLY $1.50 PER COPY, NOW 50 CENTS

The Winning of Barbara Worth
By HAROLD BELL WRIGHT
In this present-day story of desert life and the national reclamation work we have an clean and wholesome a book as man ever wrote; a story of big things, strong people, and high ideals.
He has delineated the passions, the longings, the motives, the loves and hatreds of men and women with added skill, and he has also with finer power analyzed human emotions and penetrated more keenly the depths of the human soul.
The plot, through which there runs an intense love interest, is mighty in its conception and is carried to a satisfactory close with the smoothness of running water. It is one of big incidents and rapid action, and bears a message as broad as humanity itself.—The Ministry of Capital.
In his descriptions the author has exceeded his own past efforts. He knows the desert and desert life, and has so vividly clothed his story with the local color and breezy atmosphere of the West that we also are privileged to see and know the great silent land and feel its spirit call.

Ben Hur
By General Lew Wallace
This famous Religious-Historical Romance with its mighty story, brilliant pagantry, thrilling action and deep religious reverence, hardly requires an outline, for every one is familiar with the "Star of Bethlehem" and "The Three Wise Men," the wonderful description of the "Chariot Race," and "Christ Healing the Sick on the Mount of Olives."
The whole world has placed "Ben-Hur" on a height of pre-eminence which no other novel of its time has reached. The clashing of rivalry and the deepest human passions, the perfect reproduction of brilliant Roman life, and the tense, fierce atmosphere of the arena have kept their deep fascination.
By Florence L. Barclay
In this delightful love story, a worthy successor to "The Rosary," we follow the fortunes of the young and lovely Lady Ingleby, recently widowed by the death of a husband who was never capable of really understanding her. While rustivating in the country, she meets her heart's delight under the simple and classic name of "Jim"—in reality an Earl—and these two proceed to fall deeply and rapturously in love with each other. When he learns her identity, a situation of singular power and fascination is developed, which Mrs. Barclay handles in a masterly manner. A most absorbing and unusual story.
