Miss L. Mowat is entertaining at a dance this afternoon at the tea hour, in honor of the girl students at the "Residence." She will be assisted by her sister, Miss Ethelwyn Mowat, Miss Phipps (Port Dover), Miss Nina Ferguson and Miss Annie Fowler, and the other guests will be Miss Dorothy Goodwin, Miss Edith Goodwin, Miss May Macdonnell, Miss Helen Drummond (Toronto), Miss Phyllis Knight, Miss Christie Wilson (Burlington), Miss Frances Fraser, Miss Florence Bissonette, Miss Mabel Harrison, Layton, J. K. Robertson, Professor or J. L. Morrison, Neil Stewart, W. Stewart, Roger Clarke, Arthur Whytock, H. Whytock, Hibbert Donnelly, H. Connor, North, Guy Macfarlane, Macgregor, C. Ben Bate, McIntosh, Dr. McKay, Mr. McKay, Gilbert, Collamer Calvin and Rex Calvin.

Mrs. J. B. Carruthers, Mrs. W. F. Nickle, Mrs. A. E. Ross, Mrs. W. H. Macnee, Mrs. A. P. Chown, Mrs. James Hamilton and Mrs. Maurice V. Plummer will be the patronesses at the Daughters of the Empire charity ball, fixed for February 10th. The stewards are Messrs. W. W. Gibson, d'Este, Basil Fullerton, Arthur Whytock, Stewart Crawford, N. C. Polson, Jr., W. Kent Macnee, E. V. Leslie, Kenneth Mundell, Frederick Skinner (Gananoque), and a representative from Belleville. Ontario hall will be occupied with bridge and supper, the city hall being reserved for dancing. Tickets may only be obtained from the Daughters of the Empire and the stewards.

The Arts dance in Grant hall last evening was a decided success, and very much enjoyed by those who were among the fortunate guests. The floor of Grant hall was as usual in perfect condition for dancing, and Arbuckle's orchestra played delightfully for the eighteen dances. Supper was served in the reading room at quartette tables, each being centred by a vase of pink carnations and marigolds. The reading room was attractively arranged for sitting out, and chairs and cushions were also invitingly arranged on the platform. The patronesses were most handsomely gowned.

Mrs. F. W. Nelles, William street, was hostess at an interesting bridge on Friday afternoon. There were three tables in play and the guests were Mrs. W. A. Simson, Mrs. Hugh Macpherson, Mrs. H. L. Ashby, Mrs. Richard Waldron, Mrs. A. W. Winnett, Mrs. W. A. Mitchell, Mrs. C. Livingston, Mrs. C. Warwick, Mrs. Henry Wade, Mrs. W. B. Mudie, Mrs. Robert Gardner, Mrs. Nedham. The winners of the pretty prizes were Mrs. Ashby, Mrs. Winnett and Mrs. Nedham.

Mrs. G. M. Giles, "Calderswood," was hostess at a small but most enjoyable bridge on Thursday afternoon. She was assisted in serving tea by her daughter, Mrs. Watts, who is able guest for the winter, and Miss Kathleen Crisp. The guests were Mrs. P. E. Pridaux, Mrs. James Hamilton, Mrs. D. S. Robertson, Miss Mary Hora, Mrs. Harold W. Nelles, Mrs. W. A. Simson, and Miss Eleanor Macdonnell.

An enjoyable Dutch luncheon was given at the Country Club on Friday in honour of Miss Audrey Gernon, when covers were laid for eleven. The other guests were: Mrs. Neil C. Polson, Jr., Miss Marion Kirby, Miss Madge Dawson, Miss Hilda Kent, Miss Doris Kent, Miss Helen Campbell, Miss Isabelle Waldron, Miss Rose Rogers, Miss Kathleen Carruthers and Miss Vera Carson.

Miss Kathleen Saunders entertained at an informal bridge on Thursday evening, in honor of her guest, Miss Ethel Hawley, of Napuae, the other players being Mrs. Hal-loway Waddell, Mrs. P. G. Campbell, Mrs. W. H. Craig, Miss Norton-Taylor, Miss Mariana Rodden and Miss Mabel Brownfield.

A marriage of interest to Kingstonsians took place in Halifax recently, when Miss Betty Gravelly was married to Captain R. J. S. Langford, of the Royal Canadian Regiment, and a graduate of the Royal Military College. Captain Keene Hemming, R.C.R., was Captain Langford's best man.

An informal Dutch luncheon was given at the Country Club on Wednesday when the guests included: Mrs. Austin Gillies, Miss Mildred Jones, Miss Marjorie Pense, Miss Brenda Wurtelle, Miss Susie Anglin, and Miss Sherrin, who is Mrs. F. S. Johnston's guest.

THREE BIG BOOKS FORMERLY $1.50 PER COPY, NOW 50 CENTS

The Winning of Barbara Worth!
By HAROLD BELL WRIGHT
In this present-day story of desert life and the national reconstruction work we have as clean and wholesome a book as man ever wrote; a story of big things, strong people, and high ideals.
He has delineated the passions, the longings, the loves and hatreds of men and women with added skill, and he has also with finer power analyzed human emotions and penetrated more keenly the depths of the human soul.
The plot, through which there runs an intense love interest, is mighty in its conception and is carried to a satisfactory close with the smoothness of running water. It is one of big incidents and rapid action, and bears a message as broad as humanity itself—The Ministry of Capital.
In his descriptions the author has exceeded his own past efforts. He knows the desert and desert life, and has so vividly clothed his story with the local color and breezy atmosphere of the West that we also are privileged to see and know the great silent land and feel its spirit call.

Ben Hur
By General Lew Wallace
This famous Religious-Historical Romance with its mighty story, brilliant pageantry, thrilling action and deep religious reverence, hardly requires an outline, for every one is familiar with the "Star of Bethlehem and The Three Wise Men," the wonderful description of the "Chariot Race," and "Christ Healing the Sick on the Mount of Olives."
The whole world has placed "Ben-Hur" on a height of pre-eminence which no other novel of its time has reached. The clashing of rivalry and the deepest human passions, the perfect reproduction of brilliant Roman life, and the tense, fierce atmosphere of the arena have kept their deep fascination.

The Mistress of Shensstone
By Florence L. Barclay.
In this delightful love story, a worthy successor to "The Rosary," we follow the fortunes of the young and lovely Lady Inglesby, recently widowed by the death of a husband who was never capable of really understanding her. While rusticated in France, in the country, she meets her heart's delight under the simple and classic name of "Jim"—in reality an Earl—and these two proceed to fall deeply and rapturously in love with each other. When he learns her identity, a situation of singular power and fascination is developed, which Mrs. Barclay handles in a masterly manner. A most absorbing and unusual story. A phone to 919 will bring you a copy.

THE CANADA LIFE REPORT

Another Record Year For This Fine Old Company.

It has become a matter of habit to look for a favorable annual statement from our oldest life-office, and that printed to-day is no exception to the rule. All along the line the accomplishment was good, and in many respects better than in any previous year.

The policies issued in 1913 were for nearly $17,000,000 and those actually paid for were for $15,349,000, bringing the total business for the year up to $52,321,364. The total income for the year reached the enormous sum of $8,094,886, an increase of about $700,000. The assets now stand at $52,161,795 having increased in the year by over $3,860,000.

The Canada Life has always moved along conservative lines, its ambition being for strength rather than mere size, and the president E. W. Cox, in his address announced the complete valuation of all bonds and debentures owned by the company on the amortization system. This re-valuation has been going on for some years, and means practically that the valuation of these securities is based on the original price paid, their present value being computed under the actual rate of interest realized. This method assumes that the securities will be held till maturity, when they will be at par, and it enables the company to ignore market values.

This is a method of valuation which the Life Presidents' Association is urging the different states throughout the union to adopt, and the voluntary action of Canada Life management in ignoring the temporary advantage of fluctuating market values is to be highly commended. It is one more indication of the solid and substantial nature of everything pertaining to that great company.

The death of Senator Cox was marked by a revolution of the directors, in which the great value of his services to the company was noted. The new president, E. W. Cox, has devoted his business career to the welfare of the Canada Life, and with the support of his capable staff will, without doubt, conserve the interests of the policyholders to the very best advantage.
