> NOTRE DAME CONCERT Honor of tht Opening of the New

The new hall of the Notre Dame convent was opened on Wednesday evening, and a large turnout was present. A high class programme was given and the principal parts were taken by two artists of Toronto, Miss Grace Smith and Paul Hahns. The remainder of the programme was ably taken by pupils of the convent who certainly excelled themselves. The programme included:

Piano solos by pupils of Notre Dam convent and Miss Grace Smith, of Toronto, the former rendering Chaminade's "Andante et Scherzettino," and the latter Mendelssohn's "Andante and Rondo Capriccioso," and various selections from Chopin's masterpieces. Choruses were sung by the pupils of Notre Dame, which included Challi nor's "Greeting song" and "White Little Cloud," also Wooler's "Winter Bells.' Paul Hahn, of Toronto, gave soles, which included Gounod's "Ave Maria" and Squire's "Gavotte Humoristique." Mr. Hahn and Miss Grace Smith played a beautiful duo piano and cello, entitled "Polonaise Brillante," which blended sweetly and was thoroughly enjoyed by the audi-Dame gave a chorus, "The Land of Dreams," and brought the delightful

Oswego This Summer That the boat service between Kingston and Oswego, inaugurated last summer, would be continued during this summer, was the statement of Lachlan Mucleay, of Oswego, who was in the city as one of the speakers at the Board of Trade dinner on Wednesday night. He stated that the senson was a very good one for a start er for the start off, and that still better trade would be looked for this

Italians Suffer Much. The three Italians who were burned at Parham on Wednesday morning, as a result of the explosion of a coal oil lamp, are suffering intense pain, at the general hospital. One of the men severely burned about the face, while the other two received severe burns about the hands. It is a very difficult matter to find out how the accident happened, as none of the men can speak a word of English. Shows Signs of Improvement Ross Byron, of Ottawa, who was injured at the covered rink, Tuesday evening, shows signs of improvement. At the general hospital, on Thursday morning, it was reported that he had passed a good

BETHEL CONGREGATION

Held Its Annual Meeting Wednesday Evening.

Bethei church held its thirty-ninth annual meeting, Wednesday evening, from eight to' ten o'clock, and adjourned to continue unfinished business next Wednesday evening. The finance reports showed an expenditure of $2,900 for the year, and balances of $4,421. The church gave $575 to missions and benevolence, besides sustaining its home work and spending ber to be manufactured into $237 in special evangelism. The membership was increased by eighteen, added on confession of faith, and decreased by losses of six. It was the third year of the present pastorate and the minister said that year was traditionally the "deadly third."

At the finish of the meeting Allan Haffner presented Rev. A. P. Mershon, the pastor, with a purse of gold, from the young men of the congregation, i testimony of loving esteem of friend ship, and endorsement of the pastor's life and work among the young people. The affair was a tender surpris and neatly done. During the year the congregation had also increased the pastor's salary by a cash gift. A social was held and refreshments dispensed by the Ladies' Aid Society.
