ST. PAUL'S CHOR CONCERT

On Thursday Evening Was a Great Success.

St. Paul's church choir put on a very successful concert on Thursday evening in the Sunday school hall, for the purpose of raising funds for its benefit. A good-sized audience was present, and Rev. W. D. F. Fitzgerald, who took the duties of chairman, paid a warm tribute to Mr. and Mrs. J. Hodges, who prepared the programme, included songs by Walter Cusack and Miss Nita Sutherland the former singing "The Veteran" and "When the Bell in the Lighthouse Rings Ding Dong." The latter in a sweet, clear voice sang "Let me Dream Again." Two recitations were skillfully rendered by Miss Vera Saunders and Charles Grider, the former a comical piece entitled, "Seeing Things at Night," and the latter, "Changin' Din." George Coward played two select piano solos.

J. E. Hartie brought down the house with his slight-of-hand undertakings, and had many artists who came to the city to play in the vaudeville houses along this line put in the shade. The last item upon the programme was a sketch by J. E. Hartie entitled, "The White Shawl," and the following persons took part: Miss Ethel May Sutherland, Miss Rhea Walker, Miss Nita Sutherland, J. E. Hartie, William Blake, Charles A. Hartie.

The plot of the sketch centered upon the character "Dr. Adolphus Carr" (J. E. Hartie) who was looking for a wife. He had no particular one in view, but being turned down by one, he tried to get in favor with another. The whole affair was very laughable and drew forth much applause from the audience.
