Weather Notes
Pressure is low over the western states and over Newfoundland and generally higher elsewhere. The weather is decidedly cold in the western provinces and to the northward of Lake Superior but only moderately cold over the remaining portions of Canada.

MISS VONETA PERRY.
With Perry's Peerless Players at the Grand the first three nights of this week.

Wants Them in Book Form
A western correspondent writes: "Alderman Harrison, of Kingston, should have his letters to the Whig published in book form, in order to give our Canadian people some good points in many ways in which our nation is wanting notably."

Removed to Toronto
Mr. and Mrs. William G. Gordon, who have been residing in Kingston with the former's father, Principal Gordon, of Queen's University, for several months, have gone to live in Toronto, and are at "The Abernethy," 6 Howard street.

Were Successful
A. I. Morgan, Kingston, and L. T. Venny, Brockville, are among the successful candidates for technical clerkships in the typographical survey branch of the department of the interior at a salary at the rate of $100 per month.

Truck Jumped Tracks
On Monday morning one of the trucks of a coal car being moved near the plant of the Kingston Milling company, jumped the tracks. It was not long before it was replaced, though the passengers for the early morning G. T. R. train had to be driven to the outer station.

Had a Fine Time
The members of Court Stanley, Canadian Order of Foresters held a gathering on Friday evening, when several new members were initiated. Organizer White officiated. The degree team of the lodge carried out the work. Business was completed at midnight, when supper was served. Members of the order were present from Brockville and Gananoque.

"The Stampede at Calgary, Alberta."
This world famed championship contest held under the Royal patronage of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, Governor General of Canada, showing the competitors contesting for the various prizes valued at $20,000 will be shown in full detail at the Ideal Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday. Be sure and see the "Cowboy" travelling with this picture on the streets both days. Admission. Matinee 5c; evening 10c.

The Late Mrs. William Gray
The death occurred on Sunday morning at 6.30 o'clock of Anna Gray, wife of William Gray, 93 Lower Bagot street, aged sixty years. The deceased had been in ill-health for the past fifteen years. Her maiden name was Anna Morton, and she was married thirty-two years ago. She is survived by her husband, four sons: Frederick, William, Howard and Roscoe; two brothers, Joseph and James, both of Kingston, and three sisters, Mrs. J. Weller, Mrs. E.

Loshaw and Mrs. J. Williamson, also of this city. The late Mrs. Gray was a member of Zion Presbyterian church.

Bear Saw His Shadow
To-day is Candlemas Day and many of the old and superstitious still cling to the idea that "if the sun shines bright and clear there will be two winters in that year." If this holds true we are certainly in for an extra winter this time as the sun could not have shone brighter than it did on Monday. There can be no doubt about it but that the bear saw his shadow.

Tribute to Late G. W. Maxwell
In Chalmers church on Sunday morning, a portion of the service was in memory of the late George W. Maxwell, an elder and clerk of the session. Rev. Dr. Macgillivray said that in the death of Mr. Maxwell the church has lost a thoroughly Christian man, who was strong in the faith, and dutiful and conscientious in all his doings. He was the type of man in whom there was no guile.

The Poultry Show
The Central Ontario Poultry, Pigeon and Pet Stock association opens its annual exhibition at the armories on Tuesday afternoon. Everything promises to make it a great success. At present there are between 1,300 and 1,500 entries, some of which have been sent in from fifty outside places, including Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa, Belleville, Brockville, Gananoque, Smith's Falls, Deseronto, Cobourg, etc. There are to be twenty-five cups awarded and they are now on display in E. P. Jenkins clothing store window. The secretary of this association in Kingston is George Holland, and the superintendent is R. Sinclair.

"The Little Co-ed"
Perry's Peerless Players will commence a three nights engagement at the Grand Opera House tonight, presenting "The Little Co-Ed"; Tuesday evening, "Wife in Name Only"; Wednesday afternoon, "A Girl from the Circus," and on Wednesday evening, "Up Against It." This company is headed by Dan Malloy and Hazel Corinne, supported by a company of artists whom Mr. Perry very carefully selected for his tour, and during their stay here will present some of the very latest royalty plays. Special scenery is carried for every production, which is given complete in every detail. Some very high-class specialties are introduced between the acts, preventing the long waits to get the stage set.
