CHURCH UNITY LEAGUE THE FRONTENAC CLUB

A BRANCH FORMED BY MEN OF ST. JAMES. HELD ITS ANNUAL MEETING ON TUESDAY NIGHT

An Address on the Objects of the League Was Given by Rev. A. P. Shatford, of Montreal.

Following an address on church unity by Rev. A. P. Shatford, of Montreal, in St. James' church school house on Tuesday evening, a resolution to form a branch of the Church Unity League in Kingston was carried without a dissenting voice. Francis King, who was in the chair, thanked the visiting cleric for his eloquent address, and Frederick Welch, in a short speech of appreciation, moved, seconded by G. E. Hague, that a branch of the Church Unity League be organized in Kingston. Archdeacon Dobbs also expressed his sympathy with the movement and objects of the league. A committee consisting of Archdeacon Dobbs, Rev. T. W. Savary, Francis King, Frederick Welch and G. E. Hague, was appointed to take the necessary steps in organization. Rev. A. P. Shatford, of the Church of St. James the Apostle, Montreal, delivered his sixth address, during his three days' visit in Kingston at St. James, Tuesday evening, to an audience that completely filled the room. His subject was church unity in general and the Church Unity League in particular. By his address Mr. Shatford showed his mastery of the subject and demonstrated that the Church Unity League has a strong man as general secretary.

The origin of the league was traced to its beginning in the attendance of a number of the Anglican clergymen of Canada at the Church Congress at Lambeth in 1908. Then an enthusiastic meeting was held at which strong resolutions on the subject of church unity were passed, urging Anglicans throughout the world to do all in their power to promote friendly relations with their fellow Christians of other religious bodies. Returning to Canada clergymen of Montreal and Toronto for two winters arranged for conferences with clergymen of other denominations at which the principles for which each stood were discussed. Following these, representative Anglican clergymen of Montreal and Toronto held a series of joint meetings to discuss the situation from the Anglican standpoint. After months of careful deliberation it was decided to endeavor to discover the mind of the church in regard to the matter under consideration. A letter suggesting two definite steps was sent out to forty clergymen of the different dioceses in Canada. Thirty-three signed their approval of the two propositions. It was decided to send the letter to each of the fifteen hundred Anglican clergymen in Canada, preparatory to a petition to be sent to the general synod. Over three hundred had signed the letter expressing approval of both suggestions, and many more of one or other of them, among the signers being two bishops. The primate of all Canada, the archbishop of Rupert's Land, had written expressing sympathy. Bishop Brent, of the Philippines, had written that the action proposed appealed strongly to him and that if he were a clergyman in Canada he would certainly sign it. The speaker defended the right of petition against attempts to head off the movement that had been made in certain quarters. The address closed with an eloquent appeal for closer co-operation with the other religious bodies.

Headquarters at Boston The "Salada" Tea company has just purchased from the New York, Haven and Hartford Railway company a parcel of land at the corner of Berkeley and Stuart streets. The land is part of the old Park Square Station property, and owing to its location is very valuable. The price paid was in the neighborhood of $100,000. A seven-story granite and terra cotta warehouse is to be erected on this site and it will be made the headquarters of their United States business. They will employ from seventy-five to one hundred men. The "Salada" Tea company have branches in several of the principal cities of the United States.

Are You Handicapped?
By weak, watery eyes or blurred vision? The success of many people, both in business and social life, depends mainly on two things—clear sight and an attractive appearance with defective eyes an otherwise bright personality is often dulled, and continued neglect of the visual apparatus results in nerve strain and chronic headaches. H. C. Brown, Oph.D., specializes in eye defects and, with the aid of specially ground lenses overcomes even the most severe cases of eyestrain. Engineers Help Sufferers
The National Association of Marine Engineers, which is holding a convention in Kingston, has already raised about $422 for a fund to help the families of engineers who lost their lives in the recent great lakes disaster. This is in addition to the general fund to which all the members subscribed. The local council gave $50 towards this fund. Seven members of the association were drowned in this disaster, the late engineer McCoskey, of Kingston, being one of the number.

Coming on Feb. 9th

Lewis, who represented Madame Nazimova upon her first visit to Kingston, four years ago, and the following season brought the Italian Grand Opera company of one hundred people to the city, is here now making arrangements for the New York Comedy Theatre season's success, Julia Dean in Mark Twain's brilliant comedy of home life, "Her Own Money," to play at the Grand Opera House Monday, February 9th.

There Were Big Extensions and Improvements Made During 1913—The Membership Up to Its Limit—New Directors Chosen

The Frontenac Club held its annual meeting on Tuesday night, in the club, with a large attendance of members. A. J. Macdonell, president, occupied the chair. The financial reports were presented and adopted. During the year extensions, new furniture, and improvements amounting to $9,700 were provided. The membership has reached its limit of 250 ordinary members. There are forty-two special members, sixty-two non-resident members, all making a total of 354. A new class was made for transient visitors, who will be put up for a month, inclusive of the two weeks' privilege of members, at $3.00 for the additional two weeks. The board elected: R. Easton Burns as auditor, and the following were elected directors: Messrs. A. J. Macdonell, G. Y. Chown, Dr. F. Etherington, W. C. Kent, W. H. Macnee, N. C. Poisson, Jr., G. H. Smythe, E. A. Turner, J. P. Hanley, C. E. Willis, A. W. Wheatley, G. B. McKay, H. T. Kalmus, W. B. Dalton, Jr., and Dr. A. R. E. Williamson.

Before Mr. Macdonell retired as president, the club, by resolution, expressed its great appreciation of his work during the past year; he had fulfilled the duties in a manner that commended him to every member. With hearty applause the resolution was put by Henry Merrick and carried with a standing vote.

HUBBY PUT HER OUT

YOUNG WOMAN THEN BECAME A STREET WALKER

Mrs. Annie Blair, Arrested For Vagrancy Remanded—Told Court She Would Not Stay at Home Because Her Husband Would Not Keep Her.

Annie Blair is about twenty-five years of age, and married. She had a home near Glenvale, but spends the most of her time in Kingston. Tuesday she was gathered in by the police, on a charge of vagrancy. Just a short time ago, she was before the court, on a similar charge, and was allowed to go on the understanding that she return to her home, and stay there. She went home, but did not remain there very long. She had been in and out of the city on several occasions, walking the streets most of the time, so the police placed her under arrest.

Mrs. Blair broke into tears, when arraigned before the magistrate, and did not deny the charge lodged against her. When asked by the court what she had been doing, she said that she had been walking the streets.

"And why don't you stay at your home?" asked the magistrate.

"Because my husband will not keep me," was the reply. "And is it because of the way you have been acting?"

"Yes, I guess so," replied the unfortunate young woman. The magistrate appeared to be somewhat puzzled to know just what to do with her, so remanded her so that the case might be investigated. The young woman acts very strangely, and it is believed that her mind has become unbalanced. She has been in Kingston for several days on this last trip she made from the country and has been putting in all her time walking the streets. She apparently has no money, and where she has been staying at nights appears to be a mystery.
