WOOD PILE SUGGESTED SOUTH LEEDS L. O. L.

AS WELL AS STONE PILE FOR THE UNEMPLOYED

Scheme Carried Out by Another City Recommended for Trial in Kingston - Let the Men Earn Their Money by Sawing Wood for Local Dealers.

How would the wood pile do for the unemployed in the winter? ... The suggestion has been made that a wood pile would also be of great advantage. It is pointed out that there is a city in the west which has a system of this kind, and it has worked out O.K.

The Whig was informed that in this city referred to, the Children's Aid Society has an agreement with some of the local wood dealers whereby unemployed men may be given jobs cutting wood. The dealers are able to have their wood cut by machinery, at the rate of thirty cents a cord, but agreed to let the men do it at the same price.

The organization took a share in the expense, adding seventy cents, and thus giving the worker $1 a cord for his labor. When men apply to the inspector of the society for work, they are referred to the wood pile. Of course, there are many who refuse to saw wood, in the same as they shun the stone pile, but there are men who will not work at anything. If the man sticks to his one job, and shows a willingness to earn a living, the society, when the opportunity presents itself, secures a permanent position for him. Penniless tourists could also be referred to the wood pile.

CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY

Receives $85 From Midland District School Society.

The Children's Aid Society met on Wednesday afternoon. For the first time in several years the mayor of the city attended the meeting of this society and was warmly welcomed. Rev. D. Laing, who presided, called upon the mayor to address the meeting which his worship gladly did. Mayor Shaw called attention to the petition of the Children's Aid society to council for a $300 grant, and stated that it will no doubt be given careful consideration at the meeting of the finance committee. The mayor also paid a warm tribute to Rev. A. E. Smart and highly commended him upon his successful undertakings.

The treasurer's report read by Rev. John Fairlie was not a very encouraging one, and Rev. Mr. Laing strongly called upon the members to be up and doing by making a canvass to secure more funds. Miss A. M. Massey, however, gladdened the hearts of the members by announcing that the Midland District school society had donated eighty-five dollars to this society, instead of only fifty, as in previous years. This was certainly good news for the members present, and upon motion of F. Welch seconded by W. Savary, a vote of thanks was tendered to this society for its liberality. J. M. Farrell is the chairman of the Midland society.

Eye Comfort

Many people never know what real eye-comfort is. Conjunctival inflammation, causing headache and blurred vision can be overcome with specially ground lenses. Our facilities for securing accuracy are unequalled and H. C. Brown, Oph. D., who has charge of our optical parlors, is an eyesight specialist of marked ability. Consult him if you are in doubt about your sight. R. J. Rediger, 347 King street. "Where the clock is on the wall."

With the Young People

No special meeting for the young people was held on Wednesday evening in connection with "Endeavor Week," the members of the respective societies attending the mid-week services of their churches.

On Friday evening the anniversary gathering will be held in the Bible school hall of Sydenham street Methodist church.

Settled For $600

The negligence case brought by Andrew J. Truell against the St. Lawrence River Ice company, has been settled, Mr. Truell receiving $600. The case grew out of injuries received by Mr. Truell when he fell from a conveyer at the company's plant here a year ago.

There Is No Ice

There is no ice in the St. Lawrence river at Cape Vincent, N.Y., and if the mild weather continues, it is quite likely that the horse races, advertised to be held there on the 10th and 12th, will have to be pulled off on the fair grounds or declared off.

Mrs. H. B. Mills, Bagot street, will not receive this week (Friday).

LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE - "CASCARETS"

Salts, Calomel and Pills act on Liver and Bowels like pepper acts in Nostrils - Danger!

Get a 10-cent box now. Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

HAD AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING ON TUESDAY

W. J. Thompson, Maple Grove, Elected Worshipful Master - A Big Tea Meeting Held at Maple Grove Methodist Church.

Gananoque, Feb. 5.-The annual session of the county of South Leeds Loyal Orange Lodge was held on Tuesday. The session opened at 10 a.m., with W.M., D. F. Warren, of Gananoque, in the chair. Afternoon and evening sessions were also held. There was a fairly good turnout of delegates from the various lodges of the county, including Brockville, Lansdowne, Gananoque, South Lake, and others. The official address of the venerable brethren, D. F. Warren, was full of enthusiasm for better existing conditions. The following officers were elected and duly installed: Worshipful master, D. F. Warren; worshipful past master, W. J. Thompson, Maple Grove; deputy master, David J. Butler, Gananoque; chaplain, Rev. F. D. Woodcock, Brockville; financial secretary, H. S. Cook; recording secretary, F. J. McCalpin, South Lake; treasurer, F. W. Johnston, Leeds; director of ceremonies, Thomas Bell, Leeds; first lecturer, Lucas Loshaw, Gananoque; second lecturer, George S. Mastin, Gananoque; inside tyler, George S. Crain, Gananoque; outside tyler, Frank Cook.

A pleasing circumstance at the evening session, which opened at 7.30, was the presentation of a past master's level to George S. Mastin, W.P.M. of Protection Lodge, No. 51, L.O.L., as a mark of appreciation for his zeal in the work of the order. The presentation was made by Oscar W. Landon, junior deputy master of the Eastern Ontario grand lodge. Short addresses followed from several of the newly elected officers and these were "brought to a close one of the best and most enthusiastic sessions held in this district for many a year.

One of the events of the season was the tea-meeting of the congregation of the Maple Grove Methodist church, which was held there last evening. Rev. Walter Cox, rector of Christ church, Gananoque, took the chair, and gave an address. The programme in the main was furnished by Gananoque talent conspicuous among whom were Messrs. Ralph B. Britton, Clarence C. Skinner, Miss Magray, Robert D. Gordon, and Miss Essie De Leon, all of whom rendered most excellent and highly appreciative numbers. Gordon E. Hurd, elocutionist, delighted the large audience with a number of splendid recitations. Added to this the pastor of Gananoque East circuit, Rev. A. E. Oliver, gave an interesting address.

The members of the Ladies' Orange Benevolent association held a social last evening in their lodge rooms in the Foresters' hall.

Gananoque Canoe and Motor Boat association held another dance. The popularity of this series of entertainments has been steadily increasing.

Charles A. Lewis, manager of the Merchants Bank, is confined to his home on Main street by illness.

At eight o'clock last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lane, of Pittsburg township, a pleasant event took place when their daughter, Miss Edith Lane was united in marriage to James Galloway, son of George H. Galloway of Pittsburg township. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Melvin Taylor, pastor of Grace church, before quite a large gathering of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride was the recipient of a large number of handsome and useful testimonials of esteem from her many friends. After the ceremony an excellent supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Galloway will locate in the township of Pittsburg, where the groom is a prosperous young farmer. Among those from town in attendance at the festivities were besides Rev. M. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCalpin, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McKenzie, and David Dowseley.

MARINERS MADE MERRY AT TENTH ANNUAL "AT HOME" IN CITY HALL

Four Hundred People Attended Event Which Was Great Success - Visiting Delegates to Marine Convention Were Present.

Four hundred people attended the tenth annual "At Home" of Council No. 4, National Association of Marine Engineers, held at the city hall on Wednesday night, and the event was a most enjoyable one to all who were present. The local council had as their guests, the visiting delegates to the marine convention, the night session having been postponed for the "At Home."

The hall was prettily decorated and a fine programme of music was rendered by the Grand Opera House orchestra. Supper was served in Ontario hall. The caterers were Messrs. Reid and Hambrook, and they gave a first-class service in every way. The visiting delegates to the convention had supper together, a special table being set for them on the platform. They had a very jolly time. Many who did not join in the dance, enjoyed a game of cards.

The members of the local council having the arrangements in charge are deserving of praise for the success of the affair. The committees were composed as follows: Managing committee - William Dunigan (chairman), Joseph Kennedy (secretary), G. Fleming, R. Knight, F. Sullivan, R. Taylor, E. Spencer and H. Dwyer. Entertaining committee - S. M. Murray (president), Alexander Miles, John Ewen, J. W. Hazlett, James Gillie, T. Bishop, W. S. Spencer and A. E. Kennedy.
