GROUP TIE PREVENTED

ONLY BY FRONTENACS DEFEAT IN FIRST GAME

When They Went to Toronto Early in January With Little Practice—Another Warning to Spectators

While St. Michael's hockey club hates to see anything wearing St. Michael's uniform beaten (and it is not very often that it occurs), the Torontonians here on Friday night took their defeat in a congenial sportsmanlike manner.

Although Frontenacs have finished their scheduled games their victory in the final one gives them some standing, and doubtless exhibition games will be arranged.

The brief scrap which some of the opposing players had on the ice in the closing minutes of last night's game occasions a remark here. The Whig wishes to again sound the reminder that spectators pay into the rink to see the play or anything that might possibly take place on the ice surface, and nothing else.

Frontenacs vs Oshawa Although no definite dates have been as yet decided by secretary Hewitt of the O. H. A., Frontenacs and Oshawa will likely meet in the first game of the round either here or in Oshawa at the end of next week.

After Championship There is a very keen contest going on at the curling rink in the afternoon series of games, for the championship. At the present time, the teams skipped by Prof. Watson, Prof. Goodman and George Hague are making a very strong bid for the honors.

At Ideal Theatre The management of the Ideal Theater beg to announce to their many patrons that they have made arrangements with the famous players corporation who are presenting under the personal direction of Daniel Frohman, all of the biggest and best dramas and comedies from the pens of the best playwrights with casts which include such famous stars as Mrs. Fiske, Lily Langtry, James J. Hackett, Laura Sawyer, N. C. Goodwin, Mary Pickford, etc., to handle all their big successes.

The Late Mrs. F. Haycock

Napawee Beaver. These passed away at Shanaron, Sask., on January 22nd, Mrs. Frank Haycock, nee Jessie Conway, formerly of Newburgh, Ont. She took sick on January 19th, with what the doctors called paralytic obstruction of the bowels.

Board of Trade Council

The council of the Board of Trade met on Friday afternoon and passed on a number of matters to come up at Tuesday night's meeting of the board.

Nominations for next year's officers of the board will be made at that meeting. Owing to a change in the constitution, making the annual meeting of the board two months earlier than previously, the present officers' terms will be that much shorter.

The council appointed Ald. H. Nickle and J. G. Elliott its members on the peace centenary celebration committee.
