THE USE OF BUNTING.

Will the city accept and act upon the suggestion of some months ago, namely, that it supply the merchants with Canadian and British flags...

Sir George Ross is said to have written a book on "The Senate of Canada." A lot has been written and spoken on the subject...

TITLES FOR PUBLIC MEN

How are titles conferred? One gets an answer by reading the discussion which followed the introduction of Burnham's bill to abolish these titles...

EDITORIAL NOTES

The scandal about the sale of titles in England will surely be investigated. If no one else moves, the king must do so.

The complaint in Ottawa is that after the water supply of the city has been clarified and doped it is only fit for washing purposes.

GREAT POWER SCHEME

The Conservation Commission of New York state proposes to conserve, own and develop, all the water powers in New York, so that eventually every factory in the state will be operated by electric energy...

Kingston Events 25 YEARS AGO.

One thousand people enjoyed skating at the Royal rink last night. The fire and light committee is starting out this year with an expenditure of $5,727 for street lights.

Birthdays Note

MONDAY, FEBRUARY NINTH The Hon. Arthur Beyer of Montreal member of the Dominion Senate and a man who is deeply interested in art and agriculture...

A King's Coin Collection.

Victor Emmanuel is considered, and rightly so, an exceedingly clever numismatist. A rather interesting story is told of the manner in which the king, while still little more than a child, acquired a taste for the science of numismatics.

Illiterates in Canada.

The literacy of Canadian people, native born and immigrants, is an interesting feature of census statistics recently published in more detailed form. Of the whole population, including immigrants, New Brunswick leads in illiterates with 14.5 per cent.

He's Finding Out.

Lord Hyde, the son and heir of the Earl of Clarendon, who immigrated to Canada with his wife and family 18 months ago, is on a brief visit to England, and was eagerly interviewed in London.

Greek Catholics' Standing.

Proper religious standing is given to Roman Catholics who observe the Greek rite by a special decree from Rome that has been received in Canada recently.

Salmon Were Cheap.

During the recent salmon run in British Columbia waters salmon were sold at retail in Vancouver shops for 15 cents apiece, the fish averaging five pounds dressed.

Cows Are Improving.

J. A. Ruddle in a recent address declared that the annual production of milk per cow in Canada had increased from 2,850 pounds in 1900 to 3,905 pounds in 1910.

A meddlesome woman is bad enough.

but when the meddling bee gets into a man's bonnet it is time to stand from under. White Rose flour pleases the most fastidious.
