An operation for Appendicitis was ordered by his doctor.

But Complete Cure was Effected by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

Almost anyone who has suffered from appendicitis will assure you that this trouble developed only after months or years of derangements of the liver and bowels. Appendicitis can almost invariably be prevented, and very frequently cured, by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. In the case described in this letter the doctors had ordered an operation, but thorough cure was brought about by this great medicine. Mrs. J. A. Ballantyne, Sturgeon Falls, Ont., writes: "My husband was treated for appendicitis and let doctors ordered an operation. But he would not consent to an operation and began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Since doing so he has had no need of an operation or even of a doctor, as the trouble has completely left him. I cannot find words to speak our gratitude for his cure. Dr. Chase's medicines have proven of wonderful benefit in our home as the Ointment cured my little girl of a severe burn when nothing else would bring relief."

One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers. Sample box mailed free if you mention this paper. Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Galway-Jane Wedding Gananoque, Feb. 9.—A pleasant event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lane, when their eldest daughter, Edythe Maude, was united in marriage to James W. Galway, on Wednesday evening, at eight o'clock. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. Taylor. The bride prettily attired in pale blue satin with overtones of embroidered satin, with crystal trimmings, and carrying a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern, entered the drawing-room on the arm of her father, by whom she was given away. The young couple, unattended, were united under a very pretty arch of evergreens and daffodils. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Melvin Taylor, pastor of Grace Methodist church, Gananoque. After congratulations, about forty guests sat down to a table well provisioned with wedding dainties. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful parlor suite. The number of beautiful and expensive presents received evidenced the esteem and affection the many friends and acquaintances had for bride and groom. The bride's going-away suit was of navy blue monarch serge, with panne velvet hat to match with white mount. Mr. and Mrs. Galway will reside at Pittsuary.

The Late Mrs. Jackson, Wilbur Wilbur, Feb. 9.—On Wednesday evening, January 28th, Mrs. Samuel Jackson passed peacefully to rest. Although she had been in poor health for the past two years and had been confined to the bed for about a month, death came suddenly and unexpectedly to the family. Mrs. Jackson was a patient and silent sufferer and through all her illness was cheerful and reconciled. She was a devoted and faithful wife and a loving mother. Deceased was born at Robertsville, county of Frontenac, June 2nd, 1861, one of a family of ten (of whom seven are living) born to Mr. and Mrs. Allan McDougald, and was married to Samuel Jackson, of Harper, in 1881. After their marriage they moved to Wilbur, where they spent the greater part of their married life, and where she was loved and respected by all who knew her. To them were born one son, James, of Kilsby, Sask., and three daughters, Mrs. Frederick J. Paul, Preston, Man.; Jessie, at home, and Edna, who died at the age of four years. She was a life-long Presbyterian in religion. The floral tributes included three links from Cornucopia lodge, No. 290, I.O.O.F., Snow Road, of which her husband was a member. Rev. William Ferguson, Watson's Corners, conducted the funeral services. Owing to the inability of her many friends to attend a short service was held at the home at Wilbur at 10.30 a.m., and another in the Presbyterian church at Snow Road at 1 p.m. The remains were taken to Crawford's cemetery, Elphinstone, where interment was made.

These passed away on Feb. 4th. Mrs. Amos Gardiner at Reston, Manitoba, formerly of Leeds. The late Mrs. Gardiner was a daughter of the late Thomas Purvis and Sarah McCready, and was born in the township of Yonge, on Feb. 8th, 1846.
