Very Cold Weather

Piccadilly, Feb. 18.—The people are very glad to see a change in the temperature. The thermometer has registered thirty-nine and forty degrees below zero here for several days. The chess meeting was held in the town hall on Wednesday of last week. It was poorly attended, owing to intense cold. A box social was held at J. Walker's on Friday, in aid of the building of the Presbyterian church shed. Excellent music was given by Messrs. Murray and Arrol. A tea meeting was held at Bethel on Friday last. A debate was given by the young people, "Resolved, that women be given the same rights as men." The affirmative was taken by three young ladies, Miss Genge, leader, and Miss Godfrey and Miss Freeman, assistants. The negative was taken by Mr. Beattie, leader, and Messrs. Quinn and Freeman, assistants. Points on both sides were ably dealt with and good points on both sides proved that the debaters must have spent a great deal of time. The judges, Miss Lake, and Mr. Smith, of Sydenham, and Mr. Parkin, Godfrey, decided in favor of the affirmative. Solos were rendered by Miss York and Mrs. Geddes, also both sides were ably dealt with and good points on both sides proved that the debaters must have spent a great deal of time. The judges, Miss Lake, and Mr. Smith, of Sydenham, and Mr. Parkin, Godfrey, decided in favor of the affirmative. Solos were rendered by Miss York and Mrs. Geddes, also both sides were ably dealt with and good points on both sides proved that the debaters must have spent a great deal of time.
