Told In Twilight

The commandant, staff and gentlemen cadets were hosts at one of the most enjoyable dances of the season last evening, at the Royal Military College. Appropriate for the winter season were the snow shoes, crimson sashes, and toboggans most cleverly arranged for decoration in the gymnasium, where the dance was held. Mrs. Wolf, wearing a handsome gown of pale blue satin, with white lace overdress, and carrying an armful of crimson and white roses, presented to her by the cadets, assisted Colonel Carleton in receiving the guests a great many of whom were from out-of-town. There were eighteen dances, the delightful music being supplied by Arduick's orchestra. Among the large number of guests present were noticed: Major and Mrs. Wolf, Major and Mrs. Percival, Captain and Mrs. Maurice Plummer, Professor and Mrs. Mrs. Martin, Captain and Mrs. Cochrane, Dr. and Mrs. Kilborn, Professor and Mrs. Willhoft, Dr. and Mrs. Phelan, Mrs. Pelletier (Ottawa), Mrs. D. Kingston's Famous Fur Store. ANNUAL FUR SALE

It's pretty hard to tell just how long this very cold weather will last. We have seen cold weather and lots of snow and ice in April in this district. Our big genuine annual fur sale is now on just when you need furs and good furs mean all the comfort and enjoyments of cold weather for many winters to come. ALL FURS AND WINTER GOODS AT CUT PRICES. To-day we specially mention Furs for Children.

Will Wrestle Here Next Week. If Mr. Phillips succeeds in winning from Mr. Cleamon next Wednesday night, he will start a school of wrestling. He will take on Keegan, if he wins from Cleamon. He does not want the public to think he is crawling away from the wrestlers. According to Cleamon's clippings, Phillips will not leave an opening for any of the wrestlers. He will be in excellent condition, and will show the people of Kingston that they have a champion wrestler as well as a champion hockey team. He is anxious to see Kingston come to the top of the ladder as far as sport is concerned, as there are some good sports here, which back up the writers' statement, judging from the crowd that went to Belleville.
