QUEEN'S HOCKEY CHAMPIONS LOST TO VARSITY

In the Last Senior Intercollegiate Game by 4 Goals to 3.—Queen's Only Defeat in the Series.

The University of Toronto's senior hockey team considered that they "stuck feathers in their caps" here Thursday night, when they won from Queen's 1, the champions of the intercollegiate, by four goals to three. This was the same score by which the tri-color defeated McGill here last week. Varsity was also in the lead of the procession at half time by 2 to 1.

Though Queen's suffered its only defeat in the series at the hands of the blue and white visitors in town last night, it did not shift the championship one particle. The local collegians had tucked safely away when they pulled out ahead of McGill here, the defeat somewhat marred the season's record of the team, which, in the intercollegiate series, has been three wins and one loss.

Varsity put its strong team on the ice for the struggle with Queen's, and the Toronto students were very much in earnest about returning the compliment to Queen's for the trip of the tri-color to the Queen's City some weeks ago and silencing Varsity's guns by a small margin. Last night's score, 4 to 3, was in keeping with the close margins of the tallies in the senior game this season.

The calibre of play displayed by the collegians last night, was, taken on the whole, anything but credit to the intercollegiate. There was little good team work. While some of Queen's performers put up a consistent game throughout, there was little starting down. At critical times the forwards either took hard luck or failed to take advantage of scoring opportunities. Varsity was ever dangerous, and Knight particularly so, when he swept down on his rushes. But the smaller Queen's men got so that they handled him pretty well. Box, in particular, took a lot of punishment for the opposing defence.

It was a great relief to the large crowd which had watched shot after shot of Queen's fail to locate the nets or batted aside by Laird, when Quigley pulled off his stunt of the game. He scampered down one of the wings, then centred, ice, shot, and scored Queen's initial score on the rebound. The ice was in good condition, considering the moderate weather during the day.

There was little difference between the two periods of play, the visitors registering two goals in each, while Queen's scored once in the first and two counters in the last half.

The best of feeling existed between the teams, which "smoked the pipe of peace" at a supper after the game. Knight, of Varsity, is one of the inside wings of the rugby team. McIlwain, a scrumrunner, is a spare of the lacrosse team.

The penalties of the game were: Force Brouse were largely for tripping. In the second half the players, and particularly Varsity, roughed things up a little too much. The game was delayed a number of times while injuries were patched up. Bailie whose leg was hurt, had to retire with some twenty minutes going of the second span of the session, and "Len" Smith, his check, went off to even up the sides.

Aird secured Varsity's initial goal on a sharply-delivered shot after Jupp had passed the rubber to him. The puck was passed in from right wing, and a scramble in Queen's nets resulted in Varsity's second by Bailie. But shortly before half time was rung on a new bell that has been installed Quigley pulled off his spectacular play, and scored Queen's only counter of the initial period. However, McKinnon evened up the score twelve minutes after play had resumed, but in the next thirteen minutes the blue and white called on Queen's for two more "hunks." This gave them the edge on their opponents by 4 to 2, and they played a defence game. It appeared that all was over but the shouting when Box landed the puck into Laird's nets, after Dobson had passed it in to the Queen's centre player.

The penalties of the game were: First half, Box, McKinnon, Knight, Bailie, Sinclair, Aird; second half, Knight and Box, Knight, McKinnon, L. Smith, Box, Aird.

Referee—Arthur Brouse, Frontenac.

Score Summary First half: Varsity, Aird 12 min. Varsity, Bailie 7 1/2 min. Queen's, Quigley 9 min. Second half: Queen's, McKinnon 12 min. Varsity, Sinclair 4 min. Varsity, Aird 9 min. Queen's, Box 4 min.

LOCOMOTIVE DEFECTS Circular Issued by Commission re Regulations. Ottawa, Feb. 27.—A circular has been issued to Canadian railways by the Railway Commission relative to certain regulations which it is proposed to put in force as regards defects in locomotives, barring them from being operated by railways. The majority of these regulations have been agreed on by representatives of the principal railway companies. They provide that locomotives must not be allowed to leave or to be used at terminals in which certain defects exist, including steam leaks, which make it impossible for the engineer to see signals clearly; defective air brakes; wheel defects, such as flanges worn beyond a certain prescribed limit, or containing shelled-out spots; defective springs, etc. Locomotives must also be equipped with double windows in cabs during the winter season.

DENIED CHARGE MADE

THAT ONLY GOOD TOBIES SECURED GOOD FARM HELP

George Hunter, Immigration Agent, Addressed Members of the Frontenac County Reform Association on the Question of Farm Help—Asked That the Best Workers be Well Paid.

Before the business portion of the meeting of the County of Frontenac Reform Association was taken up, on Thursday afternoon, the members listened to an address from George Hunter, immigration agent at Kingston. The speaker was introduced by R. J. Vair, who stated that the question of farm help was all important to every member of the association.

Mr. Hunter said that it had been reported that the statement had been made on the Kingston market that no person but "good tobies" were able to get good men for their farm work. "I resent any such statement," said the speaker, who added that he had never been a high-bounded politician, and that there was no truth whatever in a statement of this kind.

Continuing, Mr. Hunter stated that he felt sure that the high cost of living could be attributed to a large extent to the lack of farm help, and thereupon explained the system by which the men are brought out from among the farmers, and distributed to be made for the men on trial. They were placed on a farm on trial, and when they were well paid, he added, "give him good wages and hire him for a year."

Referring to the class of farm laborers, the speaker stated that the best of the English agriculturalists were not coming out to Canada, owing to the good times in their home land. And as a result, it was not expected that many would come out during this spring. It was expected that quite a large batch of Irish boys and servant girls would come out of Canada. The boys would be from the agricultural districts, and would thus provide the very best farm help.

H. J. Vair stated that the farmers did not want the men from the cities, as they were not in a position to do good farm work.

Mr. Hunter stated that he had received several complaints about the class of farm helpers sent out from the cities. One farmer told him that his man was very lazy, that he milked a cow with one hand, and used the other to smoke a cigarette. Another stated that his helper fell asleep in the cellar, cutting potatoes.

REDISTRIBUTION MAPS Of Manitoba and Saskatchewan Are Ready. Ottawa, Feb. 27.—The map of the redistribution of seats in Manitoba and Saskatchewan has been prepared. Manitoba gets five new members, and Saskatchewan six. In the readjustment in the former province, Winnipeg will have three members, north, centre and south, of more than at present. The new territories, the north will have a new seat, while two others will come from a division of Macdonald and Dauphin counties.

In Saskatchewan, Regina, Saskatoon and Moose Jaw, cities, will each have a member, and the rural parts of the present constituencies will be made into separate ridings. Three seats will come likewise from a division of the present division of MacKenzie and Battleford.

The Alberta and Ontario maps are not yet ready, but the committee proposes to deal first with the west and then the east.

PLAY ABOUT CANADA Somerset Maugham's Drama "Land of Promise," Performed. London, Feb. 27.—Much interest was manifested in Anglo-Canadian circles in the production last night of the first London play devoted to Canada, namely, "Somerset Maugham's 'Land of Promise,'" which was produced by Charles Frohman at the Duke of York's theatre.

Three acts depict farm life in Manitoba. Irene Vanbrugh takes the part of a cultured English girl, amidst rough, primitive farm ways. Other leading players are C. V. France and Godfrey Tearle.

The play is honest to Canada. It illustrates that the great alone tells in Canadian farm life.

GUNMEN TO DIE Nothing But Executive Clemency Can Save Them Now. Albany, N. Y., Feb. 27.—"Gyp the Blood," "Lefty Louie," "Whitely Lewis" and "Dago Frank," the four gunmen jointly convicted with former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, will be electrocuted during the week beginning April 13th.

The date was fixed by the court of appeals to-day, when the judges signed the four death warrants.

The exercise of executive clemency by Governor Glynn now is all that can prevent the death of the gunmen. No appeals for pardons have been received by the governor.

LIBERALS AGGRESSIVE As a Result of the Evanturel Sensation.

Toronto, Feb. 27.—That a most unusual incident, on which undoubtedly Howard Ferguson, conservative member for Grenville, thought would be an embarrassment to Mr. Howell and the Liberal party, has turned out very differently from what was expected, is the outstanding fact in the Evanturel sensation.

Instead of being on the defensive, Mr. Howell and the other Liberal members are actively on the aggressive and there are significant indications that public sympathy is turning largely to Mr. Howell, owing to this affair and that temperance conservatives especially are seeing the whole issue in a new flood of light.

It is rather significant that on the very day when the sensation occurred the conservative party in the house voted down the amendment of Dr. McQueen regretting that the government had brought in neither the anti-treating legislation which they themselves had promised nor any measure either to abolish the bar or otherwise curtail the evils of the traffic.

ADMITTED CRIME The Slain Burglar Was Officer's Murderer.

Detroit, Feb. 27.—Wesley Moore, the young self-confessed automobile bandit, admitted to a newspaper reporter, in the presence of a deputy sheriff, that his brother, Alpheus, who was shot and killed Saturday night while trying to rob a grocery store, was the slayer of Patrolman Thomas F. Madden. The officer was killed several weeks ago when he attempted to detain two young men, who, he believed, had stolen the automobile in which they were riding.
