OUTRAGE BY SUFFRAGETTES

Church in Scotland Burned With Priceless Contents

Dunbar, Scotland, Feb. 7.—An "iron squad" of militant suffragettes to-day burned to the ground the historic parish church of the village of Whitekirk, near here. A large quantity of antique literature was left strewn about the scene.

The church was erected in the sixteenth century, and contained many relics of the battle in which the Scots were routed by Oliver Cromwell's forces in 1650. In the vicinity is the famous battle-ground of Dunbar, where the English totally defeated the Scots in 1296, and caused John Balliol to give up the crown of Scotland.

Many priceless scriptural relics and curios from the Holy Land were destroyed by the fire.

The incendiaries apparently had sprayed the interior of the church with inflammable oils. They also used explosives as several massive slabs of stone were shattered.

Solving H. C. of L.

A woman contributor to the Toronto Star has solved the high cost of living to her perfect satisfaction and is certainly sounds reasonable. She says:

"If every housewife would solve the problem of the cost of meat and eggs as easily as I have, the cost would necessarily come down. The way is to do without. I have not bought eggs for two months, and we have not missed them, and we are satisfied with meat two or three times a week, and then not the best cuts. But I will not stint on milk; I get the plates of porridge and milk the children eat before going to school, and how they enjoy the evening meal of boiled onions and mashed potatoes, with a plain dessert one night and something equally as simple the next. The strange part is that in the future when money was more plentiful than it is now, we had all the meat and eggs we wanted, with other good things, at this season we looked thin and pale, and were supposed to need sulphur or some other spring medicine. But now that we are living on the plainest and cheapest food we can find, our friends remark, 'How well you are looking.' I would not go back to the old way of living if I could."

"Films developed," Gibson's. D. W. Wright, one of Gunn's Limited managers, is likely to manage the Toronto city abattoir.

Wedded at Cusheadall

A pretty wedding took place at the church of the Holy Name on Tuesday morning at eight o'clock when Mary Anna Fowler, eldest daughter of Patrick Fowler was married to Bernard John Quinn, son of the late John Quinn. The bride was attended by her sister, Rose Fowler, while James Bradder, cousin of the groom, acted as groomsmen. The bride was given away by her father. She wore an Alice blue suit and white picture hat and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair ferns. The bridesmaid wore a navy blue suit and pink hat and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and maiden hair ferns. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful gold watch wrist bracelet, set with diamonds and to the groomsmen a Knights of Columbus gold watch fob.

After the ceremony the wedding parties repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous repast awaited them. They received many rich and costly presents showing the high esteem in which the young couple were held. The happy wedding breakfast the young couple left on the 12.40 train for Hamilton and other western points. On their return home they will reside on the Point Road.

After a trip from Ossining, N. Y., during which he talked with and lovingly cared his wife, Charles Becker, the former lieutenant of the New York police department, was lodged in a cell in the Tombs, New York on Thursday night.

"Films developed," Gibson's. The death occurred on Thursday morning of J. B. Sparrow, the head of the Sparrow Amusement and Theatre company, Montreal, one of the greatest impresarios of the world has ever produced.

"Films developed," Gibson's.
