Winter Tours

CALIFORNIA, FLORIDA and THE UNNY SOUTH, Fast trains leave Kingston daily, making direct con-nection at Detroit and Buffalo for Florida and southern points and at Chicago for California and western

HOMESEEKERS' EXCURSIONS

Round trip fickets to Western Canada, via Chicago and North Bay on sale March 3rd, and every other Tuesday thereafter until October 27th, at very low fares. Tickets good for two months.

For full particulars apply to J. P. HANLEY. Ratiroad and Steamship Agent Cor. Johnson and Ontario Sts.

ANADIAN PACIFIC HOMESEEKERS EXCURSIONS

MANITOBA, ALBERTA SASKATCHEWAN Roch Tuesday March 3 to October 27, inclusive

Winnipeg and Return Edmonton and Return From Toronto, and Stations West and North of Toronto. Proportionate fares from Stations East of Toronto. Return Limit two months.

REDUCED SETTLERS' FARES (ONE-WAY SECOND CLASS) BACH TUESDAY, MARCH AND APRIL Settlers travelling with live stock and ects should take SETTLERS' SPECIAL TRAIN which leaves West Toronto each Tuesday during MARCH and APRIL after arrival regular 10.20 p.m. train from Toronto Union Station

Settlers and families without five stock hould use REGULAR TRAINS, leaving forosts 10.20 p.m. DAILY. Through Colonist and Tourist Sleepers.

Through trains Toronto to Winnipeg and cut. COLONIST CARS ON ALL TRAINS Particulars from Canadian Pacific Agents write M. G. Murphy, D.P.A., Toronto.

Particulars from F. Conway, a few days and your kidneys will ticket office. Cor., Princess and Wellington streets. Phone, 1197.

OCEAN STEAMSHIP AGENCY C. S. KIRKPATRICK 42 Clarence St. Phone 509

CANADIAN SERVICE. From Portland, Me Steamers will call Plymouth east-bound. Rates—Cabin (11) $46.25 up and class British eastbound, $30.25 up Westbound $30 up.
THE ROBERT REFORD CO., Limited.
General Agent, 50 King St. E., Toronto.

By large Cruising "CLEVELAND" From New York, Jan. 31, 1915 Visiting famous cities and countries on a palatial steamship which serves as your hotel. Every luxury and comfort assured.

135 days-$900 and up including Shore Trips and all necessary oxpenses.

Also Cruises to the West Indies, Pan-ama Canal, and Mediterranean trips. Send for booklet, stating cruise

HAMBURG-AMERICAN LINE

Hamburg American Line, Transportation Bldg., Corner Notre Dame ond Francis Xavier Sts., Mon-treal, Conada, or Local Agents.

Thomas Copley Telephone 987

Estate

Frame house on Beverly St., all improvements, gas, electric light, furnace, and a good lot 45 by 120 feet, for $3,000.00. Double frame house on Montreal Street renting for $324.00 per year for $3 000.00 Well built rough-cast house, No. 220 Queen Street, splendidly laid out and near Queen Street Methodist church, $3,-300.00 for a quick sale.

est Estate and General Insur-

177 WELLINGTON ST.

Scranton Coal

Is good coal and we guarantee promp

FLUSH KIDNEYS IF BLAD-

DER BOTHERS YOU.

stipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, ounces of Jad Salts from any good and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to Jad Salts cannot injure anyone;

nakes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney

SPECIAL SALE OF

BOOTS AND SHOES

FOR 15 DAYS.

must be cleared at prices that will greatly astonish you. That we can save you 25 to 50 per

Men's Box Calf Blucher, leather

Men's strong working Boots.

Men's extra coarse fine Blucher worth $2.00, our price $1.25 boots, really worth $2.50, our price $1.65

Women's Fine Vict Kid Blucher

838 KING STREET

Phone 1372

lined, worth $3.50, cent, on every pair.

disease. Agent, Geo. W. Mahood.

bladder disorders.

The moment your back hurts or bladder and urinary irritation.

kidneys aren't acting right, or futter of "The Ring and the Man." The Island of Rependation, "The (Copyright, 1911, by W. G. Chapman.)

BRADY

CHAPTER III.—End hears the story of a mining engineer. Newbold, whose wife fell off a cliff and was so seriously hurt that he was compelled to shoot her to prevent her being eaten by wolves while he went for help.

CHAPTER IV.-Kirkby, the old guide who tells the story, gives Ehid a package of letters which he says were found on the dead woman's body. She reads the letters and at Kirkby's request keeps ough drenching in the downpour and

TAKE A GLASS OF SALTS TO CHAPTER V.-While Enid is bathing their way to the settlements now." in the river in fancied solitude, a big "But they wouldn't go back without Eating meat regularly eventually bear appears on the bank and is about searching for me, would they?" cried thority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges severe headaches, acid stomach, con-ing party realizing that Enid is lost in

CHAPTER VIII -- No trace of her bladder bothers you, get about four then act fine. This famous salts is CHAPTER IX -Enid regains consciousmade from the acid of grapes and mess in the hut of the man who had man, and then he checked himself, lemon juice, combined with lithia, dresses her foot which had been severely flushing again darkly.

next room a restless one as he lives over it no longer irritates, thus ending days that are gone. He has some secret freshed and ready for the substantial breakfast the man has prepared for her. | lips

> CHAPTER XIII .- Enid finds that must remain in the mountains until her lieve you to have gone down the canfoot is better and the mountain trails on. Kirkby with Mrs. Maitland and passable, or permit her companion to the others waited on the ridge until in search of help. She decides to have Mr. Maitland and his party joined him remain with her.

with unwonted meekness.

ing her hand, they started toward the foot was of little support to her and | it " the excitement had unnerved her, in spite of his hand she swayed; without waist and half lifted, half led her to the door. It seemed as natural as it was inevitable for him to assist her in this way, and in her weakness and be-Worth $2.50. our price....$1.50 Women's Fine Vici Kid Blucher wilderment she suffered it without for you." comment or resistance. Indeed, there was such strength and power in his arm, he was so secure there, that she liked it. As for him, his pulses were bounding at the contact; but for that matter even to look at her quickened his heart beat.

Entering the main room, he led her gently to one of the chairs near the table and immediately thereafter lighted the fire which he had taken the

YOU CAN'T EARN MONEY There are a lot of people in this town who cannot afford to be sick.

Perhaps none of you feel that can, but certainly some of you can't, for as soon as you are sick wages stop and worry and debts begin to pile up. The sensible thing for you to do, as soon as you feel Drop a card to 13 Pine street when wanting anything done in the carpentery line. Estimates given on all kinds of repairs and new work: also hard-will receive prompt attention. Shop Make yourself more comfortable and provide against serious sickness. We don't believe there is any other medicine made that will do as much towards saving your health and thus selping you to save your money as Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. It is medicine that gets right at trouble and relieves it by toning nerves, enriching the blood, and giving new strength and health to the whole body. It doesn't do this by means of alcohol or habit-forming drugs, because it contains none. It strength and health-giving power pophosphites, long endorsed by cessful physicians, the one for food value, the other for its tonic value. Here, for the first time, they are combined, and the result is a real nerve, blood and body-buildthat we are proud to tell you about. You don't need to hesitate in using it, because if it doesn't do all we say cost you nothing. If

It will be given to you without word or question. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and Mahood's Drug Store, Kingston, of Courage

Being the Story of Certain Persons Who Drank of It and Consucred A Romance of Colorado CYRUS TOWNSEND

STRUPGIO. CHAPTER I -Edith Maitland, a frank, free and unspoiled young Philadelphia girl, is taken to the Colorado mountains by her uncle, Robert Maitland. James Armstrong, Maitland's protege, falls in "I did. The trail had been washed love with her."

form or other, says a well-known au- mal is killed by a strange man. the girl.

jured. The strange man who shot the bear finds her unconscious and carries father for Entd's hand when the telegram arrives expressing the belief that the of going up the canon when I started pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a girl is dead. Armstrong says he will find glass of water before breakfast for her, and Maitland agrees to their mar-

CHAPTER XIL-Her rescuer goes absence she discovers books which show him to be a man of education.

had grown suddenly chill. Still hold- your dead body!"

precaution to lay before his departure.

In Spite of His Hand She Swayed.

fire soon filled it with glorious light, wriggle your corns away from the She watched him at his task and as leather of your shoes, when shoes he rose from the hearth questioned pinch, and feel tight, when feet are "Now tell me," she began, "you "First your supper, and then the story," he answered, turning toward the door of the other room. "No," pleaded the girl, "can't you Sore, tender, sweaty, smelly feet see that nothing is of any importance need "TIZ" because it's the only again, come back and get your mon- been."

"Where it had been!" "There wasn't a single vestige of left. That whole pocket, I knew it

"But Kirkby, and Mrs. Maitland

"They weren't there." "Did you search for them?"

"Certainly." "But they can't have been drowned." she exclaimed piteously.

"Of course not," he began reassuringly. "Kirkby is a veteran of these mountains and-"

girl in great surprise. darkly at his admission. "I haven't leave myself time to get back to you seen him for five years."

So that was the measure of his isolation, thought the woman, keen for the slightest evidence as to her companion's history, of which, by the way, he meant to tell her nothing. "Well?" she asked, breaking the "Kirkby would certainly see the cloud burst coming and he would take the people with him in the camp up on the hogback near it. It is far above out, but I scrambled up and found un-CHAPTER II.—His persistent woolng disputed evidence that my surmise thrills the girl, but she hesitates, and Armstrong goes east on business without a definite answer. with all who were in the camp were saved." "Thank God for that," said the girl, greatly relieved and comforted by his reassuring words. "And Robert Maitland and the rest on the mountain, what do you think of them?" "I am sure that they must have that they are all safe and perhaps on

"Certainly not. I suppose they are searching for you now." "Well then-

"Wait," said the man. "You started down the canon, you told every. CHAPTER VII.-Members of the camp- body you were going that way. They naturally searched in that direction they hadn't the faintest idea that you were going up the river.

"No," admitted Enid, "that is true I did not tell anyone. I didn't dream out in the morning, it was the result of a sudden impulse." "God bless that-" burst out the

What had he been about to say?

CHAPTER X.—The girl spends a fairly The question flashed across his own mind and into the woman's mind at the same time when she heard the incompleted sentence; but she, too, CHAPTER XI - Morning finds Enid re- checked the question that rose to her

"This is the way I figure it," consearch of Enid's party, but returns at tinued the man hurriedly to cover up nightfall alone and unsuccessful. In his his confusion. "They fancy themselves alone in these mountains which, save for me, they are; they bethem. They couldn't have saved very much to eat or wear from the camp. "It's too cold for you out here, you they were miles from a settlement; must go into the house at once." he they probably divided into two parties, declared masterfully, and she obeyed the larger with the woman and children, started for home, the second The sun had set and the night air went down the canon searching for

"And had it not been for you," cried cabin a few rods away. Her wounded the girl, impulsively, "they had found

"God permitted me to be of service to you." answered the man, simply. a thought he caught her about the "I can follow their speculations exactly; up or down, they believed you to have been in the canon when the cloud burst, therefore there was only one place and one direction to search

"And that was?" "Down the canon?" "What did you do then?" "I went down the canon myself. think I saw evidence that some one had preceded me, too." "Did you overtake them?" "Certainly not, they traveled as rapidly as I; they must have started

Nothing like "Tiz" for aching, sweaty calloused feet and corns-"TIZ" is glorious!

When your poor, suffering feet It had been dark in the cabin, but the sting from walking, when you try to swollen, sore, chafed-don't experi ment-just use "TIZ." Get instant aching, painful feet. Ah! how com fortable your shoes feel. Walk five miles, feet won't hurt you, won't swell after using "TIZ."

it will and satisfy you in every way, to me but the story? Did you find the remedy that draws out all the polsonous exudations which puff up the doesn't make you strong and well "I found the place where it had feet and cause foot torture. "TIZ" do that alone even if you were well, is the only remedy that takes pain and soreness right out of corns, cal-

Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" at any well, had been swept clean by the a whole year's foot comfort for only 25 cents. Think of it!

early in the morning and they had several hours the advantage of me." "But they must have stopp where for the night and—"

"Yes," answered the man; "if I ha only myself to consider, I should have pressed on through the night and overtaken them when they camped. "Only yourself?"

"You made me promise to return "But do you know him?" queried the here by nightfall. I don't know wheth er I should have obeyed you or not. "I did once," said the man, flushing | kept on as long as I dared and still by dark."

She had no idea of the desperate speed he had made to reach her while it was still daylight. "If you hadn't come when you did,

I should have died," cried the girl impetuously. "You did perfectly right. don't think I am a coward; I hope not. I never was afraid before, but-" "Don't apologize or explain to me, it's not necessary; I understand everything you feel. It was only because I had given you my word to be back by sunset that I left off following their trail. I was afraid that you might think me dead or that something had happened and-" "I should, I did," admitted the girl. "It wasn't so bad during the day time, but when the sun went down and you did not come I began to imagine everything. I saw myself left alone here in these mountains, helpless, wounded, without a human being to speak to. I could not bear it." "But I have been here alone for five years," said the man grimly. "That's different. I don't know why you' have chosen solitude, but I-" "You are a woman," returned the other gently, "and you have suffered, that accounts for everything."

"Thank you," said Enid, gratefully. "Thank you," said Enid, gratefully. PUT "Back to you," reiterated the man and then he stopped. If he had allowed his heart to speak he would have said. Back to you from the very ends of the world. "But I want you to believe that I honestly did not leave the trail until the ultimate moment," he added.

"I do believe it;" she extended her hand to him. "You have been very good to me, I trust you absolutely."

And for the second time he took that graceful, dainty, aristocratic hand in his own larger, stronger, firmer grasp. His face flushed again; under other circumstances and in other days perhaps he might have kissed that hand. As it was he only held it for a moment and then gently re-

"And you think they are searching for me?" she asked. "I know it. I am sure of what myself would do for one I love-I loved, I mean, and they-" "And they will find me?" The man shook his head. "I am afraid they will be convinced that you have gone down with the flood. Didn't you have a cap or-"

"Yes," said the woman, "and a sweater. The bear you shot covered the sweater with blood. I could not put it on again." As she spoke she flushed a glorious crimson at the remembrance of that meeting, but the man was looking away with studied care. She thanked him in her heart for such generous and kindly consideration. "They will have gone down the stream with the rest, and it's just possible that the searchers may find them, the body of the bear, too: This river ends in a deep mountain lake and I think it is going to snow; it will be frozen hard tomorrow." "And they will think me-there?" "I am afraid so."

"And they won't come up here?" "It is scarcely possible." "Oh!" exclaimed the woman faintly at the dire possibility that she might not be found. "I took an empty bottle with me," said the man, breaking the silence, "in which I had enclosed a paper saying that you were here and safe, save for your wounded foot, and giving direction how to reach the place. I built a calra of rocks in a sheltered nook in the valley where your camp had been pitched and left the tightly corked bottle wedged on op of it. If they return to the camp they could scarcely fail to see it." "But if they don't go back there."

"Well, it was just a chance." "And if they don't find me?" "You will have to stay here for while; until your foot gets well enough to travel, anyway," returned the man, evasively. "But winter is coming on; you said the lake would freeze tonight and if it

"It will snow." The woman stared at him appalled. "And in that case-" "I am afraid," was the slow reply,

"that you will have to stay here." He hesitated in the face of her white, still face-"all winter," he added, des-

"My God," exclaimed the girl, 'alone, with you?" "Miss Maitland," said the man, resolutely, "I might as well tell you the truth. I can make my way to the set-, tlements now or later, but it will be a journey of perhaps a week. There will be no danger to me, but you will have to stay here. You could not go with me. If I am any judge you couldn't possibly use your foot for a mountain. journey for at least three weeks, and by that time we shall be snowed in as effectually as if we were within the arctic circle. But if you will let me go alone to the settlement I can bring back your uncle, a woman to keep you company, before the trails are impassible. Or enough mea to make it practicable to take you through the canons and down the trails to your home again. I could not

The girl shook her head stubbornly. "A week alone in these mountains and I should be mad," she said deci-"It isn't to be thought of."

la increasing enormous Can we tell you ! Reason Why

"A Trial Package will bring Bolightenment"

PENS UP CLOGGED NOSTRILS AND HEAD IN ONE MINUTE---ENDS CATARRH MISERY

Stops Nasty Discharge, Clears Stuffed the nostrils; penetrates and heals and You Breathe Freely.

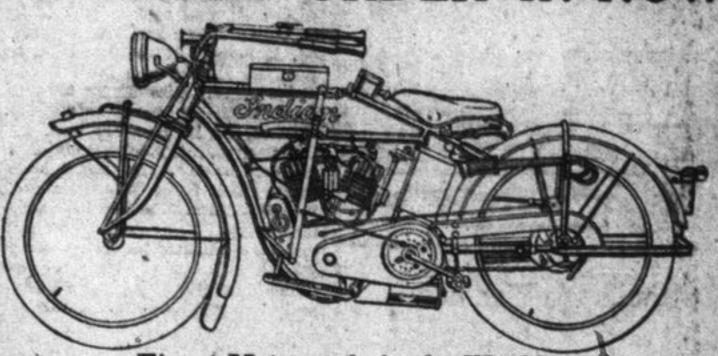

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." to try it-Apply a little in the nos- mediately.

Head, Heals Inflamed Air Passages | the inflamed swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat, clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of Get a small bottle anyway, just cleansing, soothing relief comes im-trils and instantly your clogged nose | Don't lay awake to-night strugand stopped up air passages of the gling for breath, with head stuffer head will open; you will breathe nostrils closed, hawking and blowfreely; duliness and headache dis- ing. Catarrh or a cold, with its runapepar. By morning! the catarrh, ning nose, foul mucous dropping incold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat to the throat, and raw dryness I distressing but truly needless. End such misery now! Get the Put, your faith-just oncesmall bottle of Ely's Cream Balm" "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold at any drug store. This sweet, frag- or catarrh will surely disappear. rant balm dissolves by the heat of Agent. Geo. W. Mahood.

YOUR ORDER IN NOW

Finest Motorcycle in the World.

Edwards comes from Ireland-what she doesn't know about Irish stews isn't worth knowing at all. You can make Irish Stew as well as Mrs. Edwards does, if you follow the simple recipe above. But be sure to use Edwards' Soup be certain to boil it for half-an-hour. No bother. Come-give them an Irish Stew for dinner to-day.

But you MUST boil them for half-an-hour-worth it.

Edwards' Soun is good as a soup by itself, it is good as a strengthener of other soups; good as a thickener of gravies; good for hashes, good for stews—too packer and good to be spolled by insufficient builing. Of all wholesale and retail Grocers, etc. in; but the Three varieties -- Brown, Tomato and White-W. G. PATRICK & CO., LIMITED, TORONTO. Representatives for the Province of Ontario.

WILSON'S INVALIDS' PORT THE BIG BRACING TONIC What the Doctor ordered

That Most Dreaded Tuberculosis More people die of Taberculosis annually than of any other disease, in fact, oneseventh of the total death-rate. Wilson's Invalids' Port (à la Quina du Pérou) is a most excellent tonic for patients suffering from this disease of the lungs, because they can take it continuously and rapidly absorb and assimilate it, and above all, it has a directly curative effect upon the tubercular process itself. The results obtained in the various Sanitoria for the treatment of Tuberculosis depend entirely upon the in-creased carbonic acid formation in the body from enhanced nutrition. Wilson's Invalids' Port by its appetizing and digestive qualities causes consti-tutional improvement and increased strength, thus attaining the same end as the Sanitoria in a more simple and

ASK YOUR DOCTOR BIG BOTTLE

