A COTTAGE WAS BURNED
At the Foot of Tidd's Island, Near Gananoque.
Gananoque, March 5.—About 1.15 yesterday morning the sounding of the fire alarm roused the residents of the town from their slumbers. The blaze appeared to be at the river armory on John street, or the Gananoque canoe and Motor Boat association's club house. On arriving at the river front the blaze was still at the southward, being at the foot of Tidd's Island, where there is a cluster of cottages close together. W. V. Bullock, C. K. Wright's, R. Taylor and others, it being impossible to tell for a certainty which one it was. On crossing over it was found to be that of Robert Taylor, it being a complete loss. The other cottages in that section were somewhat scorched but otherwise uninjured.
Under the auspices of Canton Gananoque, No. 12, Patriarchs Militant, St. George, the musical wizard, gave an excellent and well attended entertainment in the I.O.O.F. hall last evening.
A pleasant social function was held yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Young Ladies' organized Bible class of Grace church. From 3 to 6 p.m. they served afternoon tea at the home of Florence Abbott, South street, one of their class members, and also made home-made candies.

STOLEN PRODUCE IN MARSH
Thousands of Dollars Worth Taken From Farmers.
London, Ont., March 5.—Following a sensational confession made to-day to special provincial police, thousands of dollars worth of produce stolen from farmers in the past ten weeks, was found hidden in a marsh near Ottaville. John and George Brown are now under arrest, and a score of others may be accused.

Dictaphones at Vancouver
Vancouver, March 5.—Evidence of the war, which two paving companies declared against each other in South Vancouver, is being manifested in the use of dictaphones, dictaphones, lawyers, and a confusion that threatens to give South Vancouver, the home of several thousand good and moderate citizens, another black eye in addition to those that municipality has already received from petty politicians.
