

Komments

Mrs. Edwards.

She's the cook who puts spice into spiciness - and variety into all sorts of meat dishes.

BEEF LOAF. Take three pounds round, chopped or ground fine. Add eight soda crackers rolled fine, four eggs, one cup milk, quarter cup butter or good dripping, teaspoonful of onlone chopped very fine. To this add one packet of EDWARDS DESICATED Brown Soup, form into a loaf, and place in baking pan, with a little hot water. Bake two hours, basting often.

Three varieties :-

Brown, · Tomato and White,

At gracer's everywhere.

W. G. PATRICK & CO., Limited, Toronto, representative for the province of

FLOUR

Our Robin Hood brand of flour has a guarantee in every bag for good quality.

> ANDREW MACLEAR Ontarlo Street.

HIII

444

announced Berric, who was less hard than any. "Who's the favorite-and

"Blatchford," returned Van Norblue ribbon winner. He's a good mounting. He is joining them. fellow, too, and good looking."

"With not a penny to his name." would be such an excellent match.

Langley's-'Dick" Langley's-polo and consequently in a measure "Dick" Langley himself was someits best snapped up to form part of Langley's stable.

marked position in the polo world. play. He went to Van Norden and "I've thought of nothing else-His handicap was the lowest-in said that he would lend Blatchford lived for nothing else-sweetheart." fact, now at near the close of his all his ponies. Van Norden jumped "Then—then—it's all right," she ter his name in the association's Think of any good man-i Blatchford were mounted like that.' Berrick had often found occasion to groan discontentedly.

Langley family for three generations that has had a spark of the sporting | dent escaping her steadfast gaze. spirit or would know it if they met it when the gong finally sounded, farm of Stanley Guess, west of Kepin board daylight. As for Dick—why when there could be no doubt as to ler, and has disposed of his farm gett, music teacher, held a rehearsal self up and invents things."

ony Cup was approaching. and destroying happiness. Played on looker cheering wildly. their own ground, failure was not appeared more likely.

"He's determined to play." Berlands, "and you must know the reayou. Do the gallery rackett."

edly, "I don't." "You know," said Langley to her one day as he drew up his steed be- I want to get down.

side her trap, "that I am to play in the cup games." "Yes," she answered. "I must do something then," he forward over the field.

almost groaned. "I fell that it's my "Mr. Langley-Dick," she called home. only chance. I know what the sport- softly. ing spirit is to you." wered at once. "I believe in it!

thoroughly." "It's for me to show you that I've once!" ot a little in me," he declared, desperately. "I want to do something to help our side win."

siastically. "That's the thing-to help our side to win." The week of the Colony club matches was the height of the West- that is not it. It-it's you-

At last the players stood in line in the center of the field with the astounded. Northbrooks grouped before them. All were present except Langley.

Sally Newlands suddenly grasped Mrs. Elswick's hand and held it. 'What is it?" the other gasped. "What?"

"Why-oh-Jack Blatchford den. "Jack Platchford. He's our there all dressed and ready. He is taking his place." A moment silent intensity followed. "Oh, "She's got all the gold that's Sally cried, "They have begun. necessary. That's one reason why it is number two. Mr. Langley isn't one of the team."

"Langley's head over heels in love "And Jack Blatchford's riding and sacrifice and doing everything ing. Miss H. Kinpley is the guest Dick's best pony Frisco," gasped Both men haw-hawed their amuse- Mrs. Elswick. "I don't understand is it—so that one's side may win. David entertained on Friday evenlat all."

To tell of the game were surplusage. It lives in Westmead annals. "Please," implored Mrs. Elswick to May I-will you-" thing of a joke. Almost every club Brackenbury, who hurried up, "what does it mean?"

Through this very fact he took a hope for us was to have Blatchford want me?" second year a simple zero stood af- at it. Consequently Blatchford is in sobbed. with all Langley's stable to use. Isn't he a wonder? Did you ever see! anything like him?"

he has a laboratory and shuts him- the result of the hardly fought field, here to George Cransom. Mr. Buck at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred and the Colony cup was theirs, then will not take over his new farm un- Hull on Febuary 17th. Some excel-The week of the match for the Col- a great shout went up. Instead of til another year. School has been lent music was rendered by Miss Leg-The turning away at once the crowd lin- closed for the past couple of weeks, gett's pupils and others present, and knowledge of its nearness haunted gered for several minutes. Not a cwing to the death of the teacher's a very pleasant evening was enjoyed. the Westmead mind, disturbing peace person, not a trap, moved each on- mother, Mrs. Driscoll, Wolfe Island, The Epworth League of the M. E.

to be considered, and yet nothing lent group, was almost lost to sight. les Smith attended the funeral of programme was prepared by the hand. Three were pounding him Grove, on February 20th. Rev. were served rick continued bluntly to Miss New- on the back. Langley, a polo mal- Lewis Staley had a good turnout at Miss Elva Dewolfe, Miss Mabel son. He wants to show-off before supporting his dragging steps with it farmers in this district have their ceiving the congratulations of their "Oh, I can't think as badly of him the club house. Sally Newlands, Lawrence, at H. Buck's; Andrew and their recent examinations in music. as that," she said, and added decid- standing up in the automobile, saw Miss Alice Grainger, at John Fowl- They all took honors. Roy Derbythem both.

"Where are you going?"

He, advanced slowly, turned with "The sporting spirit-yes," she an- a start and stared in amazement. "Oh," she panted, "it was splendid

"That's it!" she approved, enthu- ing it possible for him to play--" ed with generous enthusiasm.

"What?" he demanded.

His tone betckened that he stood a couple of days at Conway last

"Don't you understand?"

chose to drop out-after Blatchford appendicitis on Tuesday. He is prodid so well. It was the only way gressing favorably. Mr. and Mrs is for our side to win."

she asked, as they suddenly stood an auction sale of farm stock and Oh! the sporting spirit isn't playing Danniel, of Black River Bridge, for the gallery. Generally the best spent a day at J. D. Boagard's of it is what the gallery doesn't see. Allan Harrison entertained a fe / of It's quite as much self forgetfulness his family friends on Monda, evenone honestly can, so that-yes, that of Miss G. McCormock. The Misses standing by each others?"

"Really!" he half cried in amaze- ing and was much enjoyed. ment. "Are you satisfied with me? "I said-almost," she answered briskly, "that I'd give my heart and "Why," he explained, "Langley hand myself to who did the best, this neighborhood, passed away on saw at the last moment that the only and you are he. Oh, Dick, do you Sunday, March 1st. Deceased had

Reports From Railton If perfect pole was ever witnessed snowstorm was very severe, leaving and and Mabel at home. it was to be seen in Blatchford's per- the roads blocked from traffic for A very successful social was held Blachford, the centre of a turbu- Nora Stanley as teacher. Mrs. Char- day evening, February 28th. A fine let in his hand—almost seemed to be his ice bee last week. Most of the Stout and Miss Mildred Hull are rewas making his way alone toward wood up. Mr. and Mrs. Edward many friends for successfully passing er's, Murvale; Mr. O'Reiley has re- shire, Chantry, has rented his farm "Oh," she exclaimed, "I can't wait. turned to Kingston after spending a and moved to his factory here. He few holidays at James E. O'Brien's; intends making cheese the coming Mr. and Mrs. Jeffery, Sydenham, at season. Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Church "Never mind," she answered, hur- Thomas Hogan's; Miss A. M. Grain- and little daughter, Grace, visited riedly descending. She fairly ran ger has returned to Toronto, after friends at Sweet's Corners on Sun-

Budget From Bongard's

Bongard's, March 3-Owing to the blocked condition of the roads there -glorious-I wanted to tell you at was no mail on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bongard and Mr. and Mrs-D. T. McCormock attended "What you did. Letting Mr. dinner party at H. Bongard's now resides here, is preparing a life Blatchford have the ponies-mak- Waupoos on Tuesday. Mrs. of Lord Strathcona, based on the O. W. Hicks and Mrs. D. McCormock author's own records. "How he did it!" Langley exclaim- entertained on Friday evening last. Mrs. C. W. Wright, son and daugh-"Yes, I know," she answered. "But ter, of Sandhurst, visited Mrs. J. D. boro Review for the past eight Bongard and other relatives here months has resigned.

last week. The Misses Baton spent week. K. Cambridge and C. Mc-"You are the real victor!" she Cormock spent the week end exclaimed, with breaking voice. Napanee. H. Carnahan and wife spent Thursday at Mr. and Mrs. "I-," he said. "I thought you'd Huggabone's, Sandhurst. J. Kearnever want to see me again after I ney under went an operation for L. Miller, Napanee, were at L. "That is it. What did we say?" Pierce's. Mrs. J. R. Bongard had still. "To help our side to win. implements on Tuesday. A. Mc-Didn't we agree that was the test-ing last. A debate was given by Epworth league on Wednesday event

Died at Crosby Station Crosby Station, March 3 .- James been in poor health for some months, but was not considered dangerously ill until a few days before his death. Mr. Stout was a good neighbor, and will be greatly missed in this locality. He leaves his wife, two sons and two daughters; Sherman, of this Railton, March 4 .- Sunday night's place; Mrs. Earl, Soperton, and Leonformance that day. Miss Sally New- two days. We have not had any at the residence of James Barker on lands sat as if in a trance, no inci- mail from the post office. Herbert February 20th in aid of St. Mary's Buck has purchased the handsome church, Newboro, the proceeds but will re-open this week with Miss church held a heart social on Tues-Two men were shoving him by each her sister, Mrs. B. Martin, Maple members of the league, refreshments spending two weeks' holidays at her day last. School is progressing nicely under the able management of G. W. Wheeler.

Writing Life of Strathcona

London, March 5.-W. T. R. Preston, a late official under the department of trade and commerce, who

J. L. Milligan, editor of the Peter-the body-waste producing uric acid must b gradually arrested and the blood purified Correct diet is essential. Abstain from tea and anything containing alcohol; eat meat only once a day and take SCOTT'S EMULSION after every meal. SCOTT'S EMULSION makes new blood free from the poisonous products which irritate the joints and muscles; its medicinal force relieves the enlarged, stiffened joints; and more, SCOTT'S EMULSION stimulates the forces to expel the poisonous acids by its concentrated nourishing properties. Physicians everywhere prescribe Scott's Emulsion for rheumatism. EVERY DRUGGIST HAS IT.

Great Saving In Women's Shoes

In order to clear our shelves before the spring shoes arrive, we have decided to put a price on the following lines. They are our regular stock and the prices mean a big saving to you.

Women's Tan Queen Quality and E. P. Reid, $5.50 and $6.00 shoes$3.95

Women's $4.50 and $5.00 Shoes, black and tan, lace and button$3.25

A Bargain for Men With Small Feet

If you can wear sizes 4, 4 1-2 or 5, you can have your choice of a large assortment of black and tan shoes in button or lace.

Stamped Price $5.00. Now $3.00

THE HOME OF GOOD SHOES

(IIIII)

WARE ALD S

CELEBRATED

EGYPTIAN CIGARETTES

ODALISQUE 25° PER BOX OF 10 EXTRA FINE 30° . . 10

Imported from Cairo, Egypt

THEODORO VAFIADIS & CO. CAIRO.

Purveyors to the Khedivial Family.