RUSH TO THE "PEN"

LARGE NUMBER OF PRISONERS ENROLLED RECENTLY

Majority of Unfortunates Came From West—Deputy Sheriff Jarvis, of Toronto Has Had Busy Time Conveying Prisoners.

There has been quite a rush of prisoners to the penitentiary within the past few weeks. Sheriff, deputy-sheriffs and constables from all parts of Ontario have been making trips to the big prison in Port Huron, having in their charge men who violated the law. The majority of those recently brought to the "pen" came from the west.

At the rate prisoners have been coming to the penitentiary this winter it looks as though the news of the alleged cruelty supposed to be practised in the above institution had very little effect as criminals have been coming here in groups of four, two and every now and again in odd numbers. Last Saturday, Deputy-Sheriff A. M. Jarvis, of Toronto, brought down four young men to serve terms, and the Whig received word on Friday morning that the same sheriff would be in the city again to-morrow with as many more. These two trips to the city have not been the only occasions when Deputy-Sheriff Jarvis has been here with prisoners to augment the already large number who are incarcerated in the penitentiary. If a record was taken, it would no doubt show that he has brought twenty prisoners here this winter.

Besides Sheriff Jarvis there have been other deputies here from time to time, with their additions from Lindsay, London and other places bringing with them both young and old men.

Friday morning George A. Balfour and George Foster brought two men from Lindsay, charged with counterfeiting.

FASHIONS REACH LIMIT

Even Paris Itself Shocked by Diaphanous Spring Modes

Paris, March 6.—The note of the immediate future in fashions is a still greater sentiment in dress than in the season about to close. The problem to which the Paris couturiers have addressed themselves is how to leave the female form divine as little covering as possible without absolutely shocking all the conventional notions of decency.

Already one sees draperies worn in public so thin that the skin shows even between the crossed lacings of the corset. A woman thus attired was seen in the crowd of rich bidders at one of the recent art sales at the Hotel Drouot. When she removed her dress, the men who observed her almost gasped.

The principle now accepted appears to be that a social function does not demand any more disguise of nature on the part of woman than does an athletic function on the part of men actually engaged in it.

Undulating volumes, but loose and somewhat vapory, nearly always suggesting an ephemeral quality, will characterize the spring gowns. The foundation skirt will lose nothing of its narrowness, but it will have deep flounces, giving something of the effect of crinoline, but also of great suppleness.

As for evening dresses they will be sleeveless and the décolletage will be extremely low; it will extend indeed to the ultimate permissible line.

Taffetas will be in great favor in the daytime, as well as velour de laine; but in the evening those who seek a more stately magnificence will resort to silver and gold brocade.

Gowns of most diaphanous texture are promised for the summer, which will probably mark the apogee of the rage for the "modeleshable." Artists in dress are lavishing great praise upon "symphonies in white," as permitting the most intimate approach in costume to all-perfecting nature.

Echo of Peterboro Disaster

Toronto, March 7.—John Kelly, of Toronto, was awarded $3,000 damages by Justice Kelly in this city, in his action against Frederick Micht, owner, and W. J. Johnson and John E. Belcher, contractor and architect, for the death of the plaintiff's wife as a result of the collapse of the Turnbull store in Peterboro last August. The action was for $20,000.

Life would be mighty monotonous if it were all sunshine.

NEEDS SHERLOCK HOLMES

Mystery Tragedy Located in Nova Scotia Woods.

Digby, N.S., March 7.—Digby has a mysterious affair to solve. Word has reached here that a strange horse and carriage has been found in the woods near the bay road, five miles west of Digby. Chief of Police Bowles found that the horse had been killed with an axe while in harness. The horse was carefully covered with two quilts and a horse blanket. In the buggy was a pad containing two bags of oats and meal. At the horse's head was an old fashioned axe. Considerable blood was on the snow in the vicinity of the team.

WED AT GREYNA GREEN

Ancient Glories of Famous Border Village Revived for a Day.

London, March 7.—Gretna Green, the famous Scottish border village, revived some of its ancient glories to-day when a wedding of the old-fashion of the runaway matches of the last century was celebrated between a man living in Perth and his bride, a native of Leven.

They chose the place because of its romantic associations and without consulting their parents, jumped into an automobile and journeyed to the border and were married.

Hon. W. H. Hearst, minister of lands, forests and mines, introduced a bill in the legislature, Wednesday, to amend the mining act to facilitate the granting of applications for mining claims.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR, ALL DANDRUFF GONE

Girls! Try It! Hair Gets Soft, Fluffy and Luxuriant At Once—No More Falling Hair.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair. Besides, it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff, no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. It eventually—why not now?

VILLA READY TO KILL

TERRAZAS IF $250,000 Is Not Paid at Once.

Rebel Leader, Who Holds for Ransom Son of Former Rockefeller of Mexico, Has Already Extorted $250,000 Gold by Torturing Father of Thirteen Children.

El Paso, Texas, March 6.—General Luis Terrazas yesterday afternoon appealed to Marion Letcher, American consul at Chihuahua, now in this city, to save his son, Luis, whose life has been made the forfeit of $250,000 pesos ($250,000) ransom money if not paid over to General Francisco Villa, the rebel leader.

Consul Letcher declared himself deeply moved by the appeal of the octogenarian, head of the great Mexican family, whose wide possessions have been confiscated by the constitutionalists, but he had to reply that he was helpless in the matter.

"I am 80 years old and neither life nor money mean much to me," said General Terrazas, with a tremor in his voice. "My son Luis, has thirteen children and they need him. I would gladly return to Chihuahua and Villa would kill me instead of my son."

While General Terrazas would not say as much, the interview left the inference that he is not in possession of the sum demanded. Luis, the son, is about 50 years old and for several months has been held prisoner.

At the time of his arrest the rebels demanded $250,000 gold as the price of his life. This sum was slow in being paid and Luis was taken out and a noose adjusted about his neck. Then he was repeatedly hoisted from the ground. The torture was continued until he signalled that he would pay the sum demanded—all that he had in the Chihuahua bank.

After this incident he was removed from the palace, where he had been confined, and allowed to live under guard with his family in one of his father's houses. Women relatives sometime later appealed to Villa to release him, but Villa was adamant.

BIG CARGO OF BUTTER

Arrives at Vancouver, B.C., From New Zealand.

Vancouver, March 7.—Terrific heat was encountered by the Canadian-Australian liner, Marama, Capt. Ralls, during the stage of her journey from Suva to Honolulu. The Marama, last evening, brought a list of 250 passengers, and another shipment of New Zealand butter arrived on the liner. For Victoria and Vancouver there are 300,000 pounds of this commodity. The Marama brought news that two new liners are now being constructed for the Canadian-Australian line, operating also via San Francisco and probably Puget Sound ports as well.

"NO PACE TO SPOON" THOUSANDS STAY SINGLE

750,000 Eligibles in New York City Do Not Marry—No Chance to Know Each Other

There are 500,000 unmarried men and 450,000 unmarried women in New York city. Most of these don't seem to intend to get married, according to the Rev. Dr. George R. Van De Water, who considers this a most unfortunate state of affairs. In a sermon which he preached recently in St. Andrew's Episcopal church, he declared that the lack of opportunity for members of the opposite sex to meet one another socially is largely responsible for this condition of things, and he suggested that, since social centres are not otherwise provided in sufficient number to bring young persons together and set them on the road to matrimony, it might be to the advantage of future generations to provide centres where, under proper supervision, young men and young women who are eligible for marriage might meet.

"The apartments in which most families live in New York city," said Dr. Van De Water, "are so small that there is absolutely no place for the young members of the family to do their courting unless they sit on the kitchen range. Now that they are introducing kitchenettes instead of kitchens into the apartments not even the range will be left. The apartments are going up in greater and greater numbers and, on the other hand, there were less than a hundred houses built in New York last year. This means that there is less and less opportunity for social life in the home. Young women cannot entertain in their homes, there is no place for social life, no place to receive their callers, apart from the room of the family.

"Another reason why fewer and fewer young men and women are marrying is that many young women now are engaged in self-supporting labors outside of the home, labors which leave them exhausted at the end of the day so that they have not enough strength to seek the social life that will afford them opportunities of meeting young men and so hearts they know that marriage is the goal to which they should look forward, but the economic struggle leaves them neither time nor strength to travel towards this goal.

"There are also in the city of New York great numbers of young men and women who come here as strangers, with no means of meeting attractive young persons of the opposite sex in the right environment and where there is proper supervision. Because we have chosen to disregard the fact that to bring these young persons together so that they will marry is of basic importance to the state, we have made no provision for affording them any social life, at least the provision has been altogether inadequate. In short, everything in New York is combining against the happy married life which is absolutely necessary if happy and healthy children are to be brought into the world. The children are fewer and fewer, which means that the very foundation of the state is attacked.

"The churches, of course, should give every possible opportunity for young men and women to have the pleasure of one another's society. Where is a better place to fall in love than the house of God? I would like to see every room in my church filled every night with young persons happily enjoying one another's companionship, falling in love, getting engaged, and preparing for the happy homes of the future."

And what Doctor Van De Water says of New York is becoming increasingly true of Toronto. Is the problem to be met and solved now when it is comparatively young, or shall we wait until conditions are as bad as they are in New York? What answer will Toronto's churches give? Or is it a matter for the municipal authorities to deal with?

FOR DOMINION EXHIBITION

London, March 7.—Leonard Palmer, director of the Financial News, who sailed last week for Canada, is due in Montreal shortly. Beyond attending to his private interest he will probably deal with the proposals for the 1917 Dominion exhibition, with regard to which he has been active here. He has secured the adhesion of Sir Charles Tupper and also received confirmation of the support of Lord Strathcona shortly before his death. It is to be remembered that Mr. Palmer conducted a party of British manufacturers across Canada two years ago.

ON THE VERGE OF A BREAK-DOWN

Wrecked Strength And Shattered Nerves Completely Restored By "Fruit-a-tives", The Famous Medicine Made From Fruit.

MRS. W. N. KELLY.

HAGERSVILLE, ONT., Aug. 20th, 1913

"I can highly recommend 'Fruit-a-tives' as they did me an awful lot of good and I cannot speak too highly about them. About four years ago, I commenced taking 'Fruit-a-tives' for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth but it was money well spent because they did all that you claim for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other laxatives, that I found ONLY pleasure, as well as health, in taking them. They seemed to me to be particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and I trust that some other women may start taking 'Fruit-a-tives' after reading my letter, and if they do, I am satisfied the results will be the same as in my own case."

Mrs. W. N. KELLY

A blood purifier, a general tonic, a builder of health and strength, "Fruit-a-tives" is one of the great discoveries of the century in curative medicine. One of the valuable properties of "Fruit-a-tives" is its marvelous cleansing powers. When these tablets are taken, they act on the three great eliminating organs of the body—the bowels, kidneys and skin. "Fruit-a-tives" keeps the system free of waste matter, prevents the formation of an excess of uric acid, and insures the flow of the digestive juices. "Fruit-a-tives" sweetens the stomach, increases the flow of the digestive juices, makes digestion complete and enables the system to absorb and assimilate an abundance of nourishment from the food eaten.

"Fruit-a-tives" builds up, invigorates, strengthens the whole system. As a general tonic, there is nothing else quite so good. And these tablets are a mild action, so pleasant to take, that they are particularly suited to women.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all Dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.
