LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

People Heard the Statement.

Moscow, March 13.—(To the Editor): My attention was drawn to a letter in the Whig, recently signed by Robt. McLaughlin, purporting to be a reply to mine which appeared in the Whig of the 6th ult., and in which he denies making the statement which I accused him of, but made no explanation about the heavy short-weight nor why they were figured in. I can only say that the people who were at the meeting knew the statement was made. As for the personal references, made I will say nothing, as I am known by the people with whom I have been brought up and doing business for a great many years, much better than by Mr. McLaughlin.—E. L. VAN LUVEN.
