NO NEW YORK GAMES FOR THE FRONTENACS

Fifty-Dollars Cheques for the Local Hospitals — Third Game Between Toronto and Victoria To-night.

On Thursday morning Stanley Trotter, secretary of the Frontenac hockey club, had word from the manager of the St. Nicholas rink, New York city, to the effect that it would be impossible to give the Frontenac dates for exhibition games here this season. However, the local club has yet to hear from Cleveland and Syracuse.

The three local hospitals, the general, Hotel Dieu and Oliver Mowat, have acknowledged, with thanks, the receipt of $50 cheques which were this season's contributions of the Frontenac club to these institutions.

Hockey Notes

The third and what will likely be the final game of the world's championship hockey series will be played at the Toronto Arena to-night, under N.H.A. rules. The Toronto announced Victoria's last Saturday in "easy" fashion with eastern rules in vogue, and came through with a one-goal win on Tuesday, playing the westerners at their own conditions. The blue shirts have only to win to-night's game to divide up the receipts, and it looks like a sure victory. Victoria will make a last stand.

Quebec won the right to meet the Montreal Wanderers in the finals of the professional hockey tournament that has been running at the St. Nicholas' skating rink, New York, when it defeated the Vancouver six by ten goals to eight, last night. The contest gave Quebec a grand total of twenty-six goals in their two matches.

Regina Victoria retain the Allan cup, defeating Grand Mere on the road by five goals.

THE TOWN OF GANANOQUE

Reported That Kingston Man Has Bought Restaurant.

Gananoque, March 19.—After an illness extending over some considerable time "Jerry" Corboy passed away at the home of his brother, William Corboy, corner Stone and Sydneyham streets, Tuesday evening. Deceased had resided here with his brother for the past few years and was highly respected. The funeral took place this morning to St. John's church, where a requiem mass was sung by Rev. Father Kehoe, and the remains were placed in the vault at Gananoque cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shevis and daughter, Miss Freda, Charles street, leave to-day for their old home in the motherland. They are going back on account of the climate not agreeing with Mrs. Shevis. Mayor W. J. Gibson spent a few days in Toronto this week on business. F. H. Avery, of St. Catharines, a former resident of the town and now one of the firm of Avery & Hara, of that city, is spending some time here on business. Rumor has it that Frank Hicks, proprietor of the King street restaurant, has sold out his business to a Kingston man.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Develop Power at Mississippi
Toronto, March 18. (To the Editor): As there is talk of developing power to supply Kingston from the Madawaska river, I would like to suggest the Mississippi river, which is not more than half the distance of the Madawaska. I had information some time ago from an engineer that was over the ground that 10,000 horsepower could be developed there. If this is so, and it is only forty miles distant from Kingston, it ought to commend itself to the city commissioners, as it could be furnished to Kingston for much less than the other distance, and is worth investigating, even though it should be done through Hon. Mr. Beck.—Yours, J. GALLO-WAY.

COUNTY ROADS COMMITTEE
To Meet Board of Trade About the York Road.

At a meeting in the court house on Thursday morning, the Frontenac county road committee considered, among other things, the grievance of the township of Kingston with the city regarding the York road. A resolution of Reeve J. Hawkey and Reeve W. J. Franklin was carried to the effect that the members of that committee and the county engineer should meet with the Board of Trade at an early date regarding the matter of the maintenance of the York road.

Market Tolls and Forestalling

The civic property committee meets on Friday afternoon, and the questions of the proposed surrendering on the part of the city of the market tolls and the forestalling by law may be considered. The committee will likely make a "pilgrimage" to the fair grounds and look over the buildings there, which have been the occasion of much unfavorable comment recently as far as Kingston is concerned.

Ordered to Pay Up

As yet no definite steps have been taken in connection with the case of Clayton Brown, ex-treasurer of school section No. 7 of the township of Storrington, whose funds were found to be short to the extent of $529. On Wednesday, Judge Price signed an order that he pay up.

BRANTFORD'S SORROW

Over the Death of Hon. William Paterson.

Brantford, March 19.—News of the death of Hon. William Paterson was received by his son, W. F. Paterson, shortly after three o'clock yesterday, and he left last evening for Picton to make arrangements for the funeral. The remains will be brought to Brantford for interment, but the date of the funeral has not yet been determined. It is thought it will be on Sunday next. There survive the widow, who was with him at the time of his death; two sons, W. F., of Brantford, president of the William Paterson & Son Co., Limited, and Charles Gordon, who holds a chair in the Theological College, San Francisco, Cal., and a daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Branscombe, at Picton, with whom he resided lately and at whose home death took place. His loss will be greatly felt here.

Although William Paterson was not born in Brant county, his county will always claim him for his own. Here he came when a mere boy to help for himself a career; here he was trained in oratory in the Feringdon Debating Society; here is the church of his love and of which he was a distinguished and honored member; here he built up the successful business with which his name is associated; here he ran with the old "goose-neck" hand engine; here he achieved the highest municipal office in the gift of the people of Brantford, and here he won the parliamentary honors which brought credit upon him and upon the county. Brant county always lay close to his heart. He was ever deeply interested in its concerns and loyal to its inhabitants, and to the very last he loved to visit the men who fought for and with him in his earlier parliamentary fights.

To Mrs. Paterson and the members of the family Brantford expresses sympathy in a loss which is very great to them, but is shared by the people of Brant county and of Canada, and not alone of Canada, but in no small measure by the empire as a whole.

BATTERSEA LIQUOR CASES

Four Dismissed and Judgment Reserved in Fifth

At the court house on Thursday morning five men who attended the Batterssea ice races on February 11th and 12th appeared before Justices of the Peace George H. Hunter and J. W. Bradshaw on the charge of being under the influence of liquor in a local option township. The charges against Martin Sands, Charles Hartley, John McGuire and Hamilton Johnson were dismissed, while the magistrates reserved their decision in the case of Thomas Hartley. They will give judgment on Saturday. The case against Thomas Hartley was the only one which gave the magistrates any difficulty in coming to a decision. Although six witnesses swore that Hartley was not under the influence of liquor on that occasion the magistrates did not think that the case should be dismissed. They put great confidence in the evidence given by one witness that he was drunk.

Hartley admitted that he might have acted as though he were under the influence of liquor, but he claimed that the injury which he received when he fell on the ice caused him to act in the way he did.

The case of Hartley was the first case to be heard. Thomas Clarke swore that he saw Hartley acting funny and thought he was under the influence of liquor, but would not swear that he was drunk.

The charge against John McGuire, of Jones' Falls, required considerable time to take the evidence. The accused swore that he had one-third of a glass of whiskey in a room in the hotel, but he was not under the influence of liquor in a public place, and the magistrates dismissed the case. After taking this drink McGuire went to bed and never left the place.

There was no evidence to show that Martin Sands or Hamilton Johnson were in any way under the influence of liquor.

T. J. Rigney appeared on behalf of John McGuire and Charles Hartley, while George Laturney acted for Martin Sands and Thomas Hartley.

WAITED AT STATION

For Her Dead Fiance to Arrive on Train.

London, Ont., March 19.—A most pathetic scene was witnessed at the Grand Trunk station on the arrival of the International Limited from Toronto. Hoping against hope that her fiance, John A. Graham, lost in the Woodbine hotel fire in Toronto, so was on the train, Edna Burridge, aged twenty-one, waited for him to appear in the crowd. She had a letter received from Graham a few hours before stating that he would be home on the limited sure and asking her to meet him. When he did not come the girl was completely prostrated. They were to be married in May.

Body Identified.

Toronto, March 19.—The third body taken from the ruins of the Woodbine hotel fire was positively identified this morning as that of John A. Graham, commercial traveller, of London. Two men are still missing and possibly dead—Frederick Levinson, of New York, and Samuel Beatty, of Guelph.
