'Twas Only a Dream

BUT BUSINESS MAN CALLED POLICE FOR BURGLARS

Went to Sleep in His Office Sunday Night and Imagined Thieves Were Breaking Into His Office — Constable on Street Corner Rushed to His Assistance.

It came upon the midnight air, and it was an appeal from a well-known business man to the police for help.

"Come up here quick, they are trying to rob this place of mine," said a voice, and the owner of it had his hand poked out of a window. A police constable standing on the corner heard the appeal and dashed to the rescue, but only to find that it was all a false alarm, that the man who had given the call had been dreaming and that he had walked to the window in his sleep to give the alarm.

The constable made a hurried trip up a flight of stairs to the office of the business man, which is on Princess, and he at once noticed that the man was walking in his sleep. He shook him and he came round all right, and was very much amused when told what he had been doing.

The merchant stated that after attending church on Sunday evening he walked down to his office and while there laid down on a couch and went to sleep. After being in slumberland a short time he had a dream and imagined that thieves were breaking into his office, and rushing to his window he opened it and as luck would have it a police constable happened to be standing on the nearest corner and he called to him to come and help him. The dreamer had a good laugh over the affair afterwards and thought it was a good joke, and so told some of his friends.

DIED VERY SUDDENLY

Samuel Rees, Brock Street Had a Sudden Call

Samuel Rees, 430 Brock street, died very suddenly at his home on Sunday night at ten o'clock. Mr. Rees was apparently in good health all day Sunday and even attended church in the evening. His death, therefore, came as a great shock to all who knew him.

Mr. Rees, who was just fifty-one years of age, was employed at Queen's university as a carter. A widow and two children survive. Among the other relatives who are left to mourn are his brothers, Frank, of Winnipeg, and his sisters, Mrs. Lewis, of Odessa, Mrs. Brvant and Mrs. J. Morrison, of Toronto. Mr. Rees was a member of Union street Baptist church. The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon.

STOLEN BRASS IDENTIFIED

As Belonging to the Grand Trunk Railway

The two and a half tons of brass discovered in a local junk shop has been identified as belonging to the Grand Trunk railway, and steps will be taken to have it shipped back to the company's headquarters in Montreal.

W. N. Tisdale, special agent for the Grand Trunk in the city on Saturday, and identified the brass. It was shipped here from Ottawa, and it is expected that parties there will be arrested.

At the present time a number of arrests have been made for thefts of brass in Ottawa, and it is believed that the men under arrest may know something about this other theft.

H. A. Lavell Gazetted Judge

The Canadian Gazette of March 21st contains the following:

"Harry Anson Lavell, of the town of Smith's Falls, in the province of Ontario, esquire, barrister-at-law: to be judge of the county court of the county of Frontenac, in the said province, in the room and stead of Cornelius Valieu Price, esquire, who has retired from the said office.

"His Honor Harry Anson Lavell, judge of the county court of the county of Frontenac in the province of Ontario: to be a local judge of the high court division of the supreme court of Ontario, with the style and title of a local judge of the high court."

Itala's Great Masterpiece

"The Queen's Jewels," a masterpiece in special dramas in four parts, containing 4,000 feet of sensational and thrilling. See the big aeroplane chase, the hero's daring jump from train, the collapse of a giant climber, and sixty other wonderful scenes. It is a winner that will eclipse in popularity even the past great success of "Tigris" and "Father." See it at the Ideal theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Ladies and children are requested to attend matinees and avoid evening rush.

Queen's Athletic Awards

Ten students of Queen's, who took part in the intercollegiate events at the university during the past season, will receive a "Q" and a gift from the Alma Mater society. They are Ray Smith, Wallie Smith, Quigley, Len Smith, Box Johnson, and McKinnon, the members of the senior hockey team, intercollegiate champions, and A. D. Matheson, John Carmichael and W. S. Cole, who are champions in the intercollegiate assault-at-arms events.

The Special Officer

This is one of a number of true to life features which the King Edward theatre has made special arrangements to receive twice a week up to June 1st. "The Special Officer," to-night and Tuesday. Do not fail to see "John Bunny" in a very amusing comedy.

High Cost of Peerages

The Candid is the name of a London periodical. In the first number of this publication, just issued, the editor, Thomas Gibson Bowles, a former member of parliament, permits the cost to escape from the bag in giving the market price of a peerage. "One person," he says, "gave £50,000 to a party fund, and was subsequently made a baronet; another gave £150,000 and then £200,000 for a peerage." The list of honours for the last twelve years shows that it is almost always the rich man who possesses that kind of merit which obtains a peerage. One gentleman, to whom had been promised a baronetcy, was kept long in waiting. When at last the coveted title came a friend congratulated him on his accession to the inferior brand of nobility, and asked if he had not been obliged to pay for the honor. "Yes, damn 'em," was the frank reply; "they drew on me for £10,000."—Indianapolis News.

A Canadian Lord Mayor of London.

Ald. Hanson, who has been very ill, is much better, and will be well enough soon to leave for his home in Cornwall. Mr. Hanson, who, it is said, may be Lord Mayor of London before many years have passed, is a brother of Edward Hanson, of Montreal. Mrs. Hanson is a Canadian lady. She was a Miss Amyelbe, of Halton county, Ont., and her father was, I believe one of the founders of the Bank of Toronto. The Hansons have a charming house in London and another, Fowey Hall, in Cornwall. Alderman and Mrs. Hanson have a son and a daughter. The son is a captain in the 3rd West Riding Regiment, and served in the Boer War as a lieutenant of the City of London. The daughter is Mrs. Poole, married to Major F. C. Poole, D.S.O., Royal Artillery.

Were Brothers, Allright

When the late P. T. Barnum was exhibiting his famous Siamese twins they were, as is well remembered, a wonderful sensation.

A certain divine, accompanied by his daughter, was much interested, and their curiosity was unbounded. The young woman asked where the twins were born. Mr. Barnum said they were born in Siam.

"And are they brothers?" asked the clerical gentleman.

"Oh, yes," said the world's greatest press agent. "Well, well!" said the visitor. "Think of that, Mary! How kind to allow them to be brothers, and not to have linked a pair of strangers together for life!"—Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin"

The "Uncle Tom's Cabin" revival which will be seen at the Grand on Saturday, March 28th, matinee and night, is said to be the most expensive play in America. The company numbers over fifty members, while the scenic equipment is of such variety that two special seventy-foot cars are required for its transportation. A grand street parade will be given at noon.

To Sail for Scotland

Rev. S. J. M. and Mrs. Compton left at noon on Monday for Boston, where the latter will embark for Scotland, to spend the spring and summer. Mr. Compton will return again for the present, but later in the season will join Mrs. Compton in the old country.
