SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

HARMLESS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS AND NEUTRALIZE IRRITATING ACIDS

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread; the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then set normally again. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effective lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble. Agent, George W. Mahood.

A SCATHING ARTICLE
IN QUEBEC ROMAN CATHOLIC CLERICAL ORGAN

Regarding Ex-Mayor Nathan, of Rome, Who is to Visit America—It Makes a Strong Threat.

Quebec, March 31.—The approaching visit of ex-Mayor Nathan of Rome as the Italian government commissioner to the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco is the subject of a scathing article in l'Action Sociale, the Quebec clerical organ, which promises him a stormy reception if he sees fit to give lectures in Canada while on his way to the Pacific coast.

"It may well happen before long," the clerical says, that the Italian government may see itself constrained to revoke this scandalous nomination, as Catholics in America are indignant to see this malevolent being, who for several years has been the agent of the Ghetto and Free Masonry at Rome, announcing with the support of the Jewish press his official coming to America.

"We remember the revolting insults which, in his quality of mayor of Rome, he launched in 1910 against the august person of the sovereign pontiff, and we remember what energetic protests arose at once from every part of the Catholic world on this occasion. Montreal and Quebec distinguished themselves in this noble and vigorous campaign and the indignant voice of French Canada made the Jew-Mason howl with rage whilst it carried consolation to the heart of the august old man at the Vatican.

"But Israelitish audacity knows no bounds and Ernesto Nathan is getting ready to embark for the United States, where he will represent the radical and masonicizing government of Italy."

After quoting from the "Monitor," of San Francisco, and the "America," of New York, to show how unpopular Nathan's visit is likely to prove with the Catholics, the clerical organ continues:

"We join our energetic protest to these proud declarations of the Catholics of San Francisco and we declare moreover that if Nathan dares to put in execution his project of giving lectures in Canada while on his way to San Francisco he can expect to meet in New France the warmest reception that he has ever encountered in his stormy and infamous career. The insult of the pope will not have opened his mouth before he learns, even if there are in Canada 50,000 Jews ready to applaud him, there are also two million Catholics who have no intention of allowing themselves to be imposed upon or insulted by a fanatic such as he is.

"The young Catholics of our country are at least as enlightened as their brothers in the United States and it may well be that Nathan will all his life remember the ovation which will be given him on the day that he makes the acquaintance of the proud youth of French Canada.

"To-day we have but one piece of advice to him: Let him stay in Italy or if he has the audacity to come to Canada let him take care to go on his way peacefully without exhibiting the repertory of his insults against the church and the pope."

STRIKE OF KING'S TENANTS
May Possibly be Outcome of Discontent at Sandringham

London, March 31.—King George may have to deal with a rent strike on his private estate at Sandringham. There is considerable discontent among the tenants of the small farms on the royal estate, and they are asking a reduction of rents on the ground that the recent increase in wages of the king's laborers was given at their expense.

These small farms, varying from one to three acres, were created by King Edward, who offered very low rents in order to attract tenants with small capital. On King George's accession the farm holders received with dismay a notice that the rents would be raised by 10 per cent., and the agent of the royal estate has now recommended that the rents be increased another ten per cent.

The tenants are unanimous in the opinion that the last increase means that they are being called upon to pay the extra wages of the laborers and are refusing further damage on their pockets.

No reply has as yet been given their request for consideration of their grievance, but some settlement must be reached with them by May, otherwise, there will be something very like a rent strike on the royal estate.

WONDERFUL BOY POET
Extract From Seven-Year-Old's Effort in Poetry Review

London, March 31.—The Poetry Review publishes several poems of a remarkable seven-year-old boy, Logan Wiltshire, who cannot read or write, but who dictates to his mother, who records with "the most scrupulous exactitude."

One example of his work is the following:

"The god of dreams came to me last night, and I had a dream of the world when the world was a child. And in this child world there were two gods, the god of nature and the god of genius.

"The god of nature provided all the materials, and the god of genius took them and made them into wonderful things. Nature gave genius a pair of leaves, and genius made them into wings—wings for birds, wings for butterflies, wings for all things that fly.

"Such a beautiful dream, such a wonderful dream—the world when it was a child."

All his efforts, the Review says, show the inspiration of a true poet and wonderful power of self-expression.

WAR NECESSITY DIMINISHING
Interesting Aspects of Peace Movement Discussed at Boston

Boston, March 31.—Justice Benjamin Russell of the supreme court of Nova Scotia and Professor Jay William Hudson of the university of Missouri discussed international peace at a meeting of the state branch of the American School Peace League.

Justice Russell spoke of "The Really Imaginary Line" dividing the United States and Canada, and declared that during the past century there has developed between Britain and the United States clashing interests which, had European powers been the interested principals, would have led inevitably to war.

Professor Hudson said: "The change in public opinion in regard to the necessity for war is nowhere better exemplified than in the policy of the president of the United States towards Mexico—a policy that makes for peace, but forward in a way that public opinion would not have sanctioned 25 years ago."

WHOLE BODY A SOLID RASH

Thick, Fine and Red. Agony of Itching and Burning Frightful. One Cake of Cuticura Soap and Box of Cuticura Ointment Cured.

Lower Union, N. S.—"At first we thought my child's trouble was his teeth. The whole body was a solid rash and his arms pits and elbows and thighs the skin came off as if he had been scalded. It was a very thick fine rash, red in color and intensely itchy and burning. The skin just wiped off leaving a raw sore with little specks of yellow matter in them. The skin on every finger split down on each side and looked like a ruff. His feet broke out in little yellow pimples and the bottom of his feet did the same and he would say he could not walk, that there were pins sticking in his feet.

"The agony of itching and burning was something frightful. If he got a chance he would scratch the skin right off and make a sore, but to prevent that I made mittens for him out of cotton. Every night from twelve o'clock until three in the morning he would have to be taken up out of bed and rocked, his sufferings were so bad.

"With no permanent cure in sight I got the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The first night the child slept the whole night through, the first night for four months. I am thankful to say the cure was complete and I just got one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment." (Signed) Mrs. Samuel Higgins, May 17, 1913.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold everywhere. For literal free sample of each, with 32-p. book, send post-card to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. D, Boston, U. S. A.

"LEAVE STATE CHURCH"
MOVE HAS BEEN VERY EFFECTIVE IN GERMANY

The Berlin Synod's Inventory Shows that the Protest Against Establishment Brings Astonishing Results.

Berlin, March 31.—What extensive proportion of the "Leave the State Church" movement has attained in Germany were disclosed for the first time at a meeting of the Berlin synod last week.

The movement is supported by free thinkers like Prof. Ernst Haackel and Professor Drews, and energetically by the social democratic party. It was stated at the synod meeting that matters had reached a point where even the reichstag no longer contained a Protestant majority, as considerably more than half the imperial parliament consisted of Roman Catholics, Jews and socialist free thinkers who had renounced all church allegiance.

During 1913 a total of 12,731 persons were induced to desert the state evangelical church, and for the last six years the number aggregated more than 50,000. A speaker at the synod meeting branded the deserters as "heathens."

The state church authorities are feeling the effect of this on their exchequer. The German states impose a church tax amounting roundly to $5 a year, so that $250,000 of annual revenue has been lost since 1908.

The synod adopted resolutions thanking the ministers of the church for the vigorous resistance they were offering to the movement, and appealed to the nation to support the endeavor to keep the church of the Reformation from being wrecked.

The resolution points out that the promoters of the "Leave the Church" movement are actuated wholly by the policy of negation. They are making no effort to reform the present church or to establish a new sect. Their warfare is, therefore, assailed as deliberately malicious and unreasonable.

JAILER HAS NO REST
Is Harassed by Callers and Worried by Complaints

Paris, March 31.—Mme. Calliaux has been greatly benefited by her two days' rest in St. Lazare prison, while M. Boucard, the investigating magistrate, has been examining witnesses at the preliminary enquiry into the killing of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro. She has regained much of her habitual serenity, and it is said, has expressed some strong criticism of the prison arrangements. The director of the prison, in his own behalf, says he has not had a minute's rest since Mme. Calliaux was brought to the prison. His telephone rings ceaselessly and an endless file of messengers delivers telegrams to Mme. Calliaux all day long.

Her husband, M. Calliaux, the ex-minister of finance, and her daughter, were among Mme. Calliaux's visitors recently, but they remained only a short time. A few curious spectators gathered around the entrance to the prison.

CHURCH BAN HURTS TRADE
Cardinal Interviewed on Behalf of Parisian Modistes

London, March 31.—The Rome correspondent of the Sunday Observer states that the directress of La Mode Illustrée has interviewed Cardinal Merry del Val on behalf of Parisian modistes and complained that business was suffering as a result of the strictness of the church on modern fashions, especially with Scotland, America, where rigorous instructions on dress were issued. Promising to confer with the pope, the cardinal said it was impossible to keep a corps of artists at the Vatican to decide such points, but when dress became too outre the church must intervene.

Edmonton Street Naming
Edmonton, Alta., March 31.—Writers of poetry and prose will be immortalized in Edmonton, if the alternative scheme for street naming and numbering, approved by the city council at its last meeting, meets with popular favor at a special plebiscite called for April 6. George Gowat, a local banker, and Dr. D. G. Revell, joint authors of the plan, won the prize of $100 in gold in a contest open to the world. There were more than 200 entrants, representing seventeen nationalities. The scheme also makes use of the names of cities, countries and provinces, historical characters, mountains and numbers. Numbers are used exclusively under the present plan of street naming, the highest being in the geographical centre of the city, where the house numbers run into five figures. The new plan substitutes a logical and easily remembered set of names in place of those adopted a year ago, and permits of unlimited extensions as the city grows in any and all directions.

The Alberta Penitentiary
Edmonton, Alta., March 31.—Fifteen nationalities are represented by 204 prisoners at the Alberta penitentiary in Edmonton, according to the annual report just issued by Warden McCauley. The United States heads the list with 61. Canada being second with 58. From other countries are: England, 28; Austria, 18; Ireland, 18; Russia, 9; Germany, 6; Sweden, 4; Italy, 3; Australia, 2; and Mexico, France, South Africa and China, 1 each. Most of the inmates give their occupation as farmers and laborers. McCauley reports that the prisoners completed the building of the warden's house, the wing cell block and the foundation for the workshops, the material being supplied by the penitentiary brick yards. The large farm surrounding the institution supplied all the vegetables and the coal mined on the ground was used at fuel. The per capita cost of the prisoners is $430 a year. This is a dollar a day more than he earns.
