EMPLOYERS OF GIRLS

WILL BE ASKED TO TAKE AN INTEREST IN THEIR WELFARE.

Children's Aid Society Appointed a Committee to Draw Up a Circular in Regard to the Matter - Proposed Amalgamation With Day Nursery.

The regular monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society was held on Wednesday afternoon in the police court room.
Rev. D. Laing, president, was in the chair, pointing out that the council had increased the grant to the society this year, which was a matter of good encouragement to the members of the society. At the present time the funds of the society are very low and the treasurer will be glad to receive subscriptions.

The report of the inspector was received and adopted. In the report reference was made to several cases of juvenile immorality brought before the executive officer.
A committee was appointed to draw up a circular asking employers of young girls to take an interest in their welfare in some measure for their protection.
Considerable discussion arose in the matter of proposed amalgamation with the Kingston day nursery. Rev. A. Laing pointed out that among the business men of the city the general opinion is to have these two societies made one. It was decided that the executive committee should be the committee to meet any committee of the day nursery to consider the matter.

BUYING UP WATERLOO

10,000 to Prevent Building on the Battlefield.

The Duke of Wellington, writing from Apsley House, Piccadilly, has asked the Lord Mayor of London (Sir T. Vansittart Bowater) to join a committee to be formed to raise £10,000 to prevent building on the battlefield at Waterloo. The Duke of Richmond, Lord Roberts, and Lord Methuen have consented to serve on the committee.

Orange in England

Oranges first came to England about the beginning of the sixteenth century, and found ready favor with those who could afford them. Curious use was sometimes made of the fruit soon after its introduction. Cavendish describes Cardinal Wolsey as entering a crowded chamber "holding in his hand a very fair orange, whereof the meat or substance within was taken out and filled up again with the part of a sponge, wherein was vinegar and other confections against the pestilent airs, the which he commonly smelt unto, passing among the press, or else when he was pestered with many suitors."

Insulated tools have been invented especially for handling electric fuses, even in connection with heavy currents.

A solid silver bedstead costing $15,000 recently was made in England for an Indian rajah.

WOLFE ISLAND NEWS

P. McDermott Last to Cross Harbor With Horse

Wolfe Island, March 21.—To P. McDermott belongs the credit of being the last to cross to the city with a horse, which feat he accomplished on Monday morning. His horse breaking in half a dozen times on his return at noon, he reached the island safely. Ice scows were used in the afternoon. Patrick crossed last year on the 19th of March with the last horse on the 21st of March and the ice moved out from dock to dock. The wind changed in the afternoon and it drifted back a start. On the 2nd the boat made a start, but could not reach the city with drift ice. No mail Friday or Saturday of that week. On the 25th, P. McDermott took in and carried the island since the 20th. It took him six hours to reach the city. He had accompanying him James Baker, William McAddo and a school teacher. The road was still filled with drift ice. On the 28th the boat left the island at 9.15 a.m., got back to the island at 5 p.m., and remained three quarters of an hour in the city. On the 29th no boat; she would not venture out. McDermott brought mail in ice boat. On the 21st of March she tried to land at prison-dock but could not and returned back to the island without reaching the city, the harbor was filled with drift ice.
On April 1st the ice all went down the river and the boat had clear sailing for the first time.
Dr. Spankie has made a record for himself, that of crossing to the city in an automobile on the 28th of March; a feat that has never been accomplished and possibly will never be again. The only obstacle the physician had to contend with in going over was to dodge the many air holes. Part of the American channel is open.
Many islanders had the pleasure of meeting the celebrated J. K. Hackett and wife who were on their way to meet George Mirgh, who is the former's uncle. To many of them he recalled his boyhood days spent so pleasantly on the island.
Contractor Leakey is erecting a boat house for David McLaren Smith Bros., have the material on the ground for the erection of a dwelling house. John Kane, Cape Vincent will shortly move to the island, as he is going to work for John Greenwood. Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Greenwood in the death of their 5 year-old son, who had been ailing for about a month. Interment took place on Sunday.
