FRONTENAC HOCKEYISTS

PRESENTED WITH GIFTS, ON THURSDAY NIGHT

A Banquet Given in the Randolph Hotel - Kingston's Ice Representatives Were Remembered by the Hockey Fans.

The banquet given by the Frontenac hockey club in honor of the senior and junior players, in the Randolph Hotel, on Thursday night, was one of the notable events in the history of the club. The splendid menu was enjoyed by about fifty of the hockey fans.

The guests of the evening, including Mayor Shaw, were seated at the end table on either side of George B. McKay, the president of the club, who acted in the capacity of toastmaster. Before the gathering sat down to dinner, Mr. McKay asked Mayor Shaw to say grace.

The thirteen players and "Jim" Sutherland, Jr., and "Bouncer" Brouse, jr., were seated at a table by themselves. The only missing member of the team was "Tim" Ferguson, who was transferred to the bank at Cobalt about a week ago.

Immediately after the dinner Mayor Shaw was asked to present the souvenirs to the members of both teams. These gifts were given to the boys by the club and a number of the fans in appreciation of what they had done for the city. The mayor, in making the presentation of gold watches, diamond rings and gold lockets paid a tribute to the members of the both teams for the manly way in which they had always played the game. He said that the Frontenacs had brought the name of Kingston before the people of Canada from coast to coast as a result of the way they had played the game. His worship also made reference to the great good the club had done in furnishing rooms in the general hospital and Hotel Dieu.

Mills, Godard, Norman Millan and W. Cook, of the junior team, and Stanton, Cook and Reid, of the senior team, were presented with gold watches, suitably engraved. Angrove, Derry and "Rabie" Millan received diamond rings.

Brouse, Crawford and Boyer were given gold lockets. Ferguson received his locket before leaving the city.

James T. Sutherland, who has looked after the boys for some years received the surprise of his life, when a number of fans presented him with a beautiful chair. Mr. McKay made the presentation.

In appreciation of the help which Regiopolis College has shown to the Frontenac hockey club during the past couple of seasons the management of the Frontenacs thought that they would not allow this kindness to go unremembered and for that reason purchased a handsome shield and Mr. Sutherland made the presentation to F. J. Quinn, the athletic director of Regiopolis college.

During the past three seasons Regiopolis college has come forward and given the Frontenacs certain players who figured on the teams from that school. Among those who have played in Frontenac uniforms are Leo Millan, Bert Hunt, Rubie Millan, Norman Millan, R. Yellowley, M. Gratton, J. Gratton, R. Summerville and M. Moran. The names of these players are engraved at the bottom of the shield. Mr. Quinn on behalf of the Regiopolis college thanked the Frontenac club for the gift.

The toast to the "City Hockey League" was proposed by James T. Sutherland and responded by Sgt. Major S. Jordan, the president of the league.

Mr. Sutherland spoke of the city league as the training school for O. H. A. players. He referred to the success of Allan Davidson, "Jim" McCammon and Leo Millan, who were at one time city league players.

The toast, "Our Guests," was proposed by A. F. Rooney, and responded to by J. W. Kelly, of the Kingston Collegiate Institute team. J. P. Quinn, of Regiopolis, John Dawson, of Queen's university, and Sgt. Major Jordan, of the city hockey league.

The toast to the junior and senior hockey teams was proposed by James T. Sutherland and responded to by "Rabie" Millan, captain of the junior outfit, and "Reg." Crawford, of the senior team.

Dr. Robert Hanley, proposed the toast to the "Rooters," to which "Jack" Cousins, A. E. Hunt and "Jack" McDonald, responded.

The toast to the "Press" was responded to by E. H. McCammon and F. B. Pense.

Dr. Hanley was also called upon to toast the "Ladies," "Jack" D'Arterre, Stanley Trotter and "Jack" Godard responded.

During the evening musical numbers were given by "Jack" Cousins.

SKIN ERUPTIONS

Evidence of Impure Blood and Run-Down Condition.

When the blood becomes thin, poor, deoxygenated nature cries out through such external evidence for help, and the safest, surest and most helpful remedy we know is Vinol.

This is because it is a combination of the two most world-famed tonics—the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil (without the oil) and tonic iron for the blood. Vinol strengthens the digestive organs, creates a hearty appetite, purifies and enriches the blood, creates strength.

Mrs. Helen Wingate, St. Louis, Mo., says: "I was in very poor health, nervous and run-down, and nothing in the way of medicine did me any good until my druggist recommended Vinol. It built up my health, restored strength and I feel that I owe my life to Vinol. I cannot praise it too highly. We say positively there is nothing like Vinol to purify and enrich the blood and build up weak, run-down people. If it should fail in your case, we will return your money." Geo. W. Mahood, druggist, Kingston, Ont.

"Sam" McCullagh, A. F. Hunter and George Driver, Prof. James Small acted as accompanist. The gathering broke up at about one o'clock.

AT THE GRAND

"Stop Thief." Scored a Great Success in Kingston

When the advance agent for "Stop Thief," Cohan and Harris' latest farce, by Carlyle Moore, stated that there was a laugh in the play every minute, he was not by any means exaggerating. The play was presented at the Grand on Thursday night, and scored a great success. As a laugh producer "Stop Thief" takes first place, as all through the three acts, the audience was kept in roars of laughter. The play centres around William Carr and the marriage of his daughter, Miss Madge Carr. The father suffers from absence of mind, and the bridegroom believing in heredity, finds himself a kleptomaniac. The fun starts on the day set for the marriage of Carr's daughter where the wedding presents and other valuables in the house suddenly disappear. The bridegroom asks the police to put a detective on the job to watch him, but it so happens that a professional burglar and his partner, a girl who lives out as lady's maid, reach the house just at the time of the wedding, and succeed in purloining valuables and sweeping the household in continual turmoil. The play is brimful of fun, and holds intense interest all the way through. The bridegroom and his father-in-law hold themselves responsible for the thefts, while the two real crooks hold sway, until finally cornered, in a thrilling climax in which all is forgiven. All the parts are in able hands. Sam Hardy as Jack Duggan, and Mary Ryan as Nell, his companion in crime, displayed marked ability. Frank Baice as William Carr, the absent-minded father, made good in this role. Special mention is due Percy Ames as James Cluney, the bridegroom. The entire cast is a strong one.

"The Old Homestead." Denman Thompson's charming play, "The Old Homestead," will be seen at the Grand on Saturday, April 4th, matinee and night. There are many reasons why "The Old Homestead" has been so successful for twenty-eight years. One of the most important of them is that the characters are drawn from real life. The audience seems to appreciate the fact that Cy Prime, Aunt Matilda, Seth Perkins, Ricketty Ann, Eb Ganzy and dead old Uncle Josh, are real, live people and not fictions of the author's imaginations.

"The Bird of Paradise." Wherever possible the properties employed in "The Bird of Paradise" are native Hawaiian handiwork, souvenirs picked up by Richard Walton Tully, during his residence among the inhabitants of several of the South Sea Islands. Everything, excepting the scenery and actors is genuinely Hawaiian, and even includes a band of Hawaiian singers, dancers, and musicians. Oliver Morosco will offer this quaint play with Miss Lenore Ulrich, as Luna, the Hawaiian maid, who finally sacrifices herself for love of her people, at the Grand on Thursday, April 9th.

Aged Missionary Visits Kingston. George Busking, agent and missionary of the Algoma and Northwest Evangelical and Colportage mission, is making his thirtieth annual visit to Kingston on behalf of the work which has been pursued from the Atlantic to the Pacific oceans. For sixty years he has been engaged in practical christian work, and his services have been recompensed by four times going to jail in various towns in England. His labors for forty years in this country are well known. Scriptures in twenty languages have been supplied through the country, especially among the laborers in the woods. The missionary is now getting infirm and unit for the extensive labors of the past, but so far his labors for this year have been more extensive than in any previous year. The mission publications have come into notoriety and are sought for by many. The donations of Kingston last year on behalf of the mission were $11.50, which is gratefully acknowledged. The mission depot is at 63 O'Hara avenue, Parkdale, Toronto.

THE SIXTH ANNIVERSARY

Of Duchess of York Lodge No. 56, D. and M. of E.

(The Duchess of York lodge, No. 56, Daughters and Maids of England, having been in existence for six years in the city, held the anniversary of its opening in the Sons of England hall, Thursday night. As usual, they were ably assisted by a number of sisters and brothers from Queen Alexandra lodge, Gananoque, and had a very pleasant time together.

The auditors' report for the quarter just closed, showed the lodge was in a flourishing condition, numerically and financially.

An adjournment was made to the supper room, where sixty-five sat down to a splendid meal, prepared by a special committee of ladies.

Afterwards a programme was given, consisting of songs by Mrs. Tupper, the Misses Smith and Ormston, Messrs. Parry, Starke, Jackson, Knowles, Acton, Parker; recitations by the Misses Bates and Knowlton; piano solos by several of those attending. The above was well interspersed by some beautiful selections on the gramophone by Mr. Redmond.

At 12:30 the celebration of the sixth anniversary was brought to a close by votes of thanks to all those assisting to make the event such a successful one, and by all joining hands and singing, "Auld Lang Syne," followed by the national anthem.

Then begin taking regularly three grain hypo-nitrate tablets, which are made from a health-germ of ordinary yeast and combined with hypophosphites and an absorbent phosphorus.

Physicians and chemists assert that this tablet is very largely used for increasing the weight and improving the nervous system because of its aid in digestion, assimilation and absorption. The food elements which go to make blood and solid tissue is retained when this treatment is regularly used for several months. Most physicians and apothecary shops supply them in sealed packages.

At Queen Street Church

At the second revival service in Queen Street Methodist church on Thursday evening, Rev. C. I. Campbell spoke, taking as his subject "The Christian Calling." Mr. Campbell said that every man was called to be a saint, irrespective of his profession or faith. Some were trying to reach the standard, but others were ignoring all. There was no excuse for these. Every saint was also called to service, no matter what his profession was. Were he merchant, teacher, clerk or newspaper man, he could serve in his own way.
