

ARMED INTERVENTION BY THE UNITED STATES

Is Expected To Be Taken In Mexico.

HUERTA IS IGNORING

TAMPICO INCIDENT TO SEE WHAT U. S. WILL DO

H. Wilson, An Australian, Arrives From Tampico at Hamilton Ontario — He Says Mexicans Will Fight Every Inch of American Aggression.

Toronto, April 15.—Despatches from New York and Washington today are full of fight and rumors of fight. Prospects for armed intervention by the United States in the Mexico trouble are being eagerly discussed on all sides. Warships in Hampton roads and other naval docks are weighing their anchors and hurrying south. There is great excitement around the bulletin boards of the United States newspapers.

Troops, who have patiently waited on the Mexican border for three years or more, are taking heart again, and expect orders within a few hours to cross the Rio Grande. In official circles in Washington it is believed that General Huerta will continue to ignore the Tampico incident just to see how far Uncle Sam will go.

H. Wilson, an Australian, who reached Hamilton, Ont., yesterday with his wife and family in a terrible condition, is a refugee from the Tampico district. He says if the United States attempts to clean up Mexico, it will fight every inch of United States aggression. Mr. Wilson lost ninety thousand dollars in the Tampico district and had to fly to Canada.

Apology or Bloodshed

Washington, April 15.—Senator Shively and a delegation of "Clean-Up" congressmen had a conference this afternoon, with President Wilson and Secretary Bryan at the White House. After it Shively said: "The president assured me that this was no rosewater demonstration at Tampico. It is to be an apology or bloodshed. He also assured us that no other foreign power was behind this government's move."

DIED VERY SUDDENLY

The Late Miss Ada Tugwood, Stephen Street.

Miss Ada Tugwood, daughter of Alfred Tugwood, 19 Stephen street, died very suddenly of double pneumonia, about seven o'clock on Wednesday morning. Deceased, who was just nineteen years of age, had been ill only a very short time, and her death came as a great shock to her parents. Two sisters and five brothers remain: Mrs. G. Guy, 36 Maitland street; Alfred, of the Kingston fire department, and Annie, Thomas, George, William and Henry, at home. The funeral will take place from her late residence Saturday. Dean Starr will officiate.

Profit Sharing

This is the age of profit sharing. Business men are finding that to give their employees a share of the profits is stimulating to the employees and helpful to the business.

Co-operative advertising between merchant and manufacturer in the local newspapers is in a way, a phase of this profit-sharing movement.

The manufacturer brings to the merchant a certain share of his profits—by advertising in the newspapers of the merchant's city.

These profits in turn create more business, and when the merchant is shrewd enough to do his share in pushing the goods the increased sales are well worth while, both for the merchant and for the manufacturer.

OTTAWA STUDENTS STRIKE

Demand English Speaking Priest as Father Fallon's Successor

Ottawa, April 15.—Three hundred students of Ottawa university, back from the Easter vacation, paraded the streets of the city yesterday and refused to enter their class rooms, as a protest against the banishment of Father James Fallon, prefect of studies, by the Oblate Order. None of the English-speaking students, of whom there are over 400, resumed their studies, and matters are practically at a standstill at the institution. It had been announced that Father Fallon was to be succeeded by a French priest, Father Lajeunesse, but the English-speaking students demand a successor of their own nationality, Irish.

Jailed for Overcharging

Buffalo, N. Y., April 15.—Harry L. Smith, a chauffeur, to-day will begin a six months' sentence in the penitentiary for overcharging a fare. He charged an immigrant girl $12 for carrying her from a station to an east side street, a distance of about two miles.

POLICE INFORMATION

BEING SOUGHT THROUGH COUNCIL BY ALD. NICKLE

Who Asks Concerning the Covering of Beats — Instances a Case of a Merchant Being Unable to Find a Policeman.

Ald. Nickle has in view an improved police system in Kingston. He is seeking information through the City Council as to the present system, but was far from satisfied with the reports given last night on questions he had asked at a previous council meeting. The information was insufficient as his questions were not answered as desired.

For one thing he wanted to know the beats formerly covered by the police before the four new constables were appointed, and the beats as at present arranged.

The answer given to this was: "By the addition of the three men a better patrol service is accorded to the city during the day and proper patrol is preserved at night, with a sergeant and one policeman at the station."

"That is a poor answer to my question," declared Ald. Nickle, who intimated that he must have his query definitely answered. The reason he wanted to know about the beats was this: A merchant recently had found two men lurking in a laneway in rear of his place at 11-45 p.m. He started out to find a policeman and after covering six blocks in the business section he could not find a single constable.

This report was given of the number of licenses issued in the city: Shows, 5; pools and billiards, 9; victuaries, 2; auctioneers, 2; laundries, 20; meat shops, 36; second hand stores, 10.

Mayor Shaw said that the chief of police had reported that these licensed places were inspected once every month.

STILL KEEPING UP SEARCH

Mrs. C. F. Lavell Sends Circular Relative to Missing Husband

Mrs. C. F. Lavell is continuing the search for her husband, Prof. F. Lavell, who has been missing since November 24th last when he was reported missing at Hamilton. Yesterday the Postmaster James Stewart, received a batch of posters for distribution. A reward of $500 has been offered for the recovery of the professor, living or dead. He was formerly dean of the faculty of education at Queen's university and recently of Ohio State university of Columbus, Ohio.

Police Commissioners

The members of the Board of Police Commissioners held a meeting and received the annual report of the chief of police. The judge, H. A. Lavell, took his place on the commission. Mayor Shaw and Magistrate Farrell were present.

SAFE CRACKERS CAUGHT

At Fort William Offer Pistol Duel With Police

Fort William, April 15.—George Hardy, aged twenty-seven, of Baltimore, Md., and Bert Simpson, aged twenty, of Montreal, were captured after a running fight and pistol duel with the police on the docks here at three o'clock this morning. Hardy got two bullets in his leg and is now in hospital. These two men are accused of several safe crackings here recently.

ASKED CABINET

To Start Building Of Georgian Bay Canal.

A LARGE DEPUTATION

VISITED OTTAWA WEDNESDAY TO MAKE REQUEST

Liberals Dissatisfied Because the Estimates of the Militia and Public Works Departments Have Not Been Brought Down.

Ottawa, April 15.—To-day a huge delegation representing the Federation of Canadian Boards of Trade and Montreal Chamber of Commerce urged upon the government the desirability of taking immediate steps to commence the construction of the Georgian Bay canal. Mention was made of the fact that the government had recently been waited upon by a large delegation from Western Ontario urging the deep waterway from the head of the great lakes to Montreal, and the opinion was expressed that the Georgian Bay canal was even more important, as it would be an internal waterway, affording national protection far from the international boundary. The usual promise of consideration was made by the ministers.

Being the non-arrival of a number of members in the capital, the debate on the budget will not be proceeded with in the commons until Thursday. A number of government bills will be taken up in the meantime. The budget debate will continue all next week and it will be well toward the end of the month before other business can be taken up by the house.

Liberal members express some dissatisfaction over the fact that the estimates of the militia and public works departments have been held back. They stated this morning that if the government would indicate that it could slip these votes through without discussion towards the end of the session, it was very much mistaken.

LOTS OF WORK AHEAD FOR THE COMMONS

A Quiet Week Expected — Committees Have Much Business To Transact

Ottawa, April 15.—The balance of this week in the commons promises to be fairly quiet, with the budget debate continued. There will be no particular development in regard to the liberals' formulae a fiscal policy.

The senate also resumes to-day, and its special committee will tackle the consolidated railway act, which will be productive of several weeks' work. The principal features are those extending the powers of the Railway Commission, and particularly vesting in that body complete control over the stock issues by railway corporations. It is understood that the companies are preparing to vigorously oppose these limitations of their powers.

Morning sittings will do much to advance the work in the house, but while these are planned to begin very shortly, considerable committee work remains to be done. The Railway committee has about twenty bills pending, and the Private Bills committee a similar number. The Banking and Commerce committee has to finish the loan companies bill, while there are special committees on cigarettes, election law amendments and redistribution. It is expected that the last-mentioned body will be in a position to report inside of a fortnight, or possibly earlier.

Supplementary estimates and railway subsidies have yet to be brought down, but otherwise the government legislation is nearly all on the table.

CEMETERY CHAPLAINS

Toronto Clergy Plan Change That Will Save Time

Toronto, April 15.—The age of specialization has at last reached the Anglican clergy. It is to take effect in the service for the burial of the dead. It is planned to have chaplains at Mount Pleasant and at Prospect cemeteries who will hold all commercial services at the graveside in those cemeteries, so that it will not be necessary for the clergyman who conducts the service at the house or at the church to waste the best part of a day in going and coming on funeral duty. This will save time for other duties which have hitherto often suffered.

A Severe Sentence

Lindsay, April 15.—"Les" McGillvary, found guilty of dropping carbon bisulphide a poisonous drug, in a glass of beer about to be swallowed by Jim Gostlin, his friend, was sentenced by Judge McMillan to two years. The purpose of the dose was to temporarily "knock out" Gostlin to permit a robbery.

FOR POTATO GROWING

CONTEST FAVORED BY THE KINGSTON BOARD OF TRADE

Action Will be Taken on Scheme Suggested by C. Main, B. S. A.— Claimed that Yield in Frontenac County Can be Increased Two and a Half Times.

By a unanimous vote the Board of Trade at a meeting on Tuesday night favored a plan put forth by C. Main, B. S. A., district representative of the department of agriculture, Toronto, for a potato raising competition in Frontenac county.

Mr. Main gave a short address before the members, on the invitation of the council of the board, and was introduced by the president, Robert Meek.

Mr. Main, in referring to the potato growing competition, which he recommended, spoke of the great success one met with in Carleton county, when a well-known resident of that county financed the competition. Contests of this kind were being conducted in many counties and they were being financed either by boards of trade or influential citizens.

In this contest he had referred to, there were thirty-five applications for entrance into the competition. The rule was to have these contests under government jurisdiction, the exhibits to be shown at the county fairs. In this case the winner had grown 450 bushels to the acre, while the thirty-five averaged 305 to the acre. This went to show what could be done with proper method of cultivation, seed selection, etc.

The speaker related the success of other competitions, and held that the yield of potatoes in the county of Frontenac could be increased two and a half times. The contest was for boys between the ages of twelve and eighteen years. By holding the competition for the young boys it was hoped also to interest the older people on the farms as well.

Mr. Meek said he had been given to understand that the cost of the competition would be $200, and that there would be no difficulty in securing this amount. He regarded it as a wonderful opportunity to develop the resources of the county, and to develop just where there was the greatest need for development.

G. A. Bateman remarked that he knew of a quarter acre in the county which raised sixty bags of potatoes. This was good encouragement for anyone who might feel discouraged over the result.

Rev. J. D. Boyd favored the scheme, and also favored a competition of this kind for city people. Perhaps a competition in onions could be carried on.

The proposed competition will be brought before the committee on agriculture.

CAPT GEORGE B. BROWN WAS SHOT TO DEATH

Royal Military College Graduate Murdered At Hill Post On Afghan Frontier.

Word has been received that Capt. George B. Brown, of the 58th Vaughan Rifles, Frontier force, Indian army, who graduated from the Royal Military College, Kingston, in 1897, was murdered by natives at Hill Post, on the Afghan frontier. He was one of three who were shot down. Capt. Brown had been doing service in India for some years, and saw much active work. His headquarters were at Quetta.

Two days ago, Major Perreau, adjutant of the Royal Military College, received a letter from him, in which he told of the killing of a colonel of another British regiment not far away.

Capt. Brown made the remark that one never knew what might happen, or who would be next.

The late Capt. Brown was born in Ingersoll, Ont., and had been stationed in India for eighteen years. He was in Toronto during 1913 on furlough, and was thirty-six years old. Capt. Brown met death at the hands of a crazed dervish.

ABOLITION OF THE BAR AGAIN TURNED DOWN

In Ontario Legislature By Vote Of 57 to 15.

LEADER OF OPPOSITION

POINTED OUT STEADY DEMAND FOR REFORM.

Hon. W. J. Hanna Extolled His Party's Actions — The Liberal Proposal Has Now Been Rejected Three Times in Succession

Toronto, April 15.—For the third time in as many years the Liberal proposal to abolish the bar in Ontario was submitted to the legislature yesterday. For the third time this measure of temperance reform has been rejected by a straight party majority. Not even the offer of the leader of the opposition to join hands with the government and by united effort eliminate entirely the one institution that was more responsible than any other for the recognized evils of the liquor trade was accepted.

Hon. W. J. Hanna defended the position of the government. Admitting the necessity of minimizing the evils of the drink habit, he proposed an amendment that recognized the limitation placed upon the province in prohibiting the importation or manufacture of intoxicating liquor, but reaffirmed the evil effects of the treating habit. And at the same time forecasting important legislation before the present session closes.

What might be regarded as a piece of sharp practice was accomplished by A. Gregg (Algoma) on the conclusion of Mr. Hanna's speech. In a debate of such a character the usual practice is to alternate the speakers from either side. When Mr. Hanna finished, Mr. Proudfoot, who was to follow for the opposition, rose in his seat, and seemed to have the eye of the speaker, but to the astonishment of many, Mr. Gregg also rose and got the necessary recognition from the chair. The effect of Mr. Gregg's speech, apparently to apologize for not accepting the Liberal proposal because public opinion had not advanced that far was to move a sub-amendment which precluded and further amendment on the part of the opposition.

The vote was taken shortly before one o'clock this morning, resulting in the adoption of Mr. Gregg's amendment to the amendment by 57 to 15. Mr. Studholme voted with the Liberals.

Mr. Rowell's speech was the most logical and well-reasoned presentation of the temperance policy that has been made by the Liberal leader. The fact that this was the third time that the "abolish-the-bar" resolution was up for discussion did not impair public interest. The galleries were crowded well before three o'clock, there was a full attendance of members, and the house was on the "qui vive" with anticipation.

THE LATE JOHN COX

A Prominent Howe Islander Died on Tuesday

John Cox, of Howe Island, died at his home on Tuesday. Deceased was in his seventieth year and death was due to the general effects of age. Mr. Cox was a member of the Roman Catholic church and a conservative in politics. He was county commissioner for some years, and had been reeve of Howe Island. Four sons and five daughters are left: Matthew, at home; Lawrence, in Hammond, Ind.; John, of Columbus, Ohio; Vincent, of Montreal; Mrs. James Callahan; Mrs. W. J. Collins; Mrs. W. J. Baulieu and Miss Marion, of Montreal; and Mrs. R. J. Patterson, of New York. Miss Agnes Kingston, is a sister-in-law. The funeral will take place on Thursday morning, at 9:30 o'clock, at the Roman Catholic church at Howe Island, where a solemn requiem mass will be sung.

HEATING CITY BUILDINGS

One Hundred and Fifty Tons of Coal Were Used.

It required 150 tons of coal to heat the city buildings during the winter. It was an extra hard winter on the coal bin as every citizen will admit, and it is interesting to note just how much fuel was required to keep the various offices warm. Soft coal screenings were used and the heating included the police station as well as the city buildings.

At the Collegiate Institute, where there are four floors to heat, and where there is a continuous flow of cold air for ventilation purposes, 63 tons of soft coal were used.

SEVENTY-FIVE MEDICALS

Writing on the Final Examinations at Queen's.

The largest number of students in the history of Queen's medical college are writing on the final examinations which are being held at university. Seventy-two students in the final year have applied for degrees. There are eight other students writing on the final examinations. It is expected that the result of examinations will be announced on Saturday, April 25th.

TWO FARM HANDS "BEAT IT."

After Being Engaged by Kingston Township Farmer

Immigration Officer George Hunter is on the "war path" after an Austrian and Pole who made a "get-away" from two farmers of the county on Tuesday afternoon and have not been seen or heard of since. It appears that on Tuesday the immigration officer sent these two men out to Smith Elliott, in the township of Kingston, for the purpose of working on his farm. When the men arrived Mr. Elliott was not home but his wife gave them something to eat. When Mr. Elliott arrived at the home he hired one of the men and sent the other on to his next door neighbor, Mr. Bennington, who engaged him. The men remained for the second meal and then "beat it."

The law states that any immigrant who refuses to work at the place where they are sent by the immigration officer of the county are liable to fine or imprisonment.

This is the second pair of men which have given the immigration officer trouble during the past ten days. The first pair made a "get-away" from the Windsor Hotel, where their employers were waiting for them.

It is understood that the men refuse to live up to the conditions under which they were brought from the old country. Their fare is paid by the agents on the other side of the water on condition that they repay that amount as soon as they receive employment in Canada. Their Canadian employer is supposed to deduct three-quarters of their monthly salary until the passage has been covered.

UPPER LAKES NAVIGATION

Will Not Open Until the End of the Month.

Although navigation has opened in the Kingston harbor and the first vessel, the Ford River, has cleared to load coal at Erie, advices from the upper lakes state that navigation will not open there until the end of the month.

Altogether there is in the neighborhood of 29,000,000 bushels of grain stored in elevators at Port William and Port Arthur and in steamers wintering in the harbor.
