NEW TUBERCULOSIS CURE

Discovery by Young Swiss Biologist Miss Radical Fratures.

Paris, April 30.—A new treatment for tuberculosis which, in the opinion of some of the principal experts in the disease, gives brighter hope for a cure of the scourge than anything yet discovered, was described to the academy of medicine at a sitting last night. The new method for combating the disease is the discovery of a young Swiss biologist, Henry Spahlinger.

The treatment described to the academy consists of combined intramuscular injections of antigenic solutions and of ferments, which are modified according to the condition of each patient. The treatment, it is claimed, causes the drying-up of lung cavities, and the disappearance of bacilli and stops the fever—three results which never have been attained by any previous method for the cure of tuberculosis. The attack of the injections is said to be extremely rapid on incipient cases.

In several cases described to the academy, the patients were said to have been able to follow their usual occupations. Of fifty-four persons treated, seventeen were said to have virtually been cured. Most of the other cases were still being treated. The report on the new treatment was read by Professor Maurice Leluthe. It was prepared by Professor Edmond Lardy, of Geneva, and doctors Edmond H. Colbeck and Leonard E. Williams, of London, all of them experts in lung diseases.

Spahlinger is not a doctor. Originally he was a lawyer, but abandoned law for science. He spent four years in work and $100,000 of his private fortune in the research which led to his discovery.

SHAUGHNESSY'S OPINION

Thinks Mackenzie and Mann Are to be Congratulated.

Vancouver, B.C., May 1.—"I think that Mackenzie and Mann are to be congratulated on their choice of partners," said Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific railway, when interviewed in the city. The remark was made in response to an inquiry if he had seen the announcement that the Dominion government had agreed on terms by which the Canadian Northern magnates were to get $45,000,000 of a further guarantee.

Sir Thomas was asked what the Canadian Pacific intended to do with its $45,000,000 now remaining from the last stock issue. "The Canadian Pacific railway has better use for its funds than to buy the Wabash or any one of the other lines we have been credited with having our eyes on," he said.

With reference to further double-tracking on the British Columbia division, the president said the Canadian Pacific would postpone additional work along that line until the Kettle valley branch was finished.

Sir Thomas said the C.P.R. would probably electrify a few miles each side of the Rogers Pass tunnel, but had not decided on any definite policy with regard to the other sections.

FOUR-SIDED DIVORCE.

Co-respondent in Garage Owner's Wife's Suit Sued by Husband.

Atlantic City, May 1.—Divorce proceedings were instituted here by Martin D. Boelkins, of Detroit, against Mrs. Edythe Boelkins, better known here as "Miss Edythe Miller," co-respondent in a sensational suit for divorce brought by Mrs. Raiston Irwin against her husband, a local garage proprietor. In this suit Mrs. Irwin charged that her husband had been frequently seen at the apartments of "Miss Miller," No. 1708 Pacific avenue, and a pitched battle between rival detective forces while evidence was being secured threatened intense excitement in that residential section.

Contrary to precedent, newspaper men were barred from the preliminary hearings, upon request of Mr. Boelkins's counsel, who came here from Detroit. The proceedings were held before Morris Blison, a local notary in the offices of Captain Samuel E. Perry.

CLIMATE AFFECTS WHEAT.

Influence on Growing Plant Greater Than Soil.

Washington, May 1.—Experiments conducted by the department of agriculture demonstrate that climate is the chief factor in determining the varying characteristics of wheat grown in different regions.

To ascertain this, experimenters grew wheat for six years in California, Kansas and Maryland on soil taken from each of those states. The results showed that all wheat grown in California, for example, was much alike whether raised on soil of that state or on soil imported from Kansas and Maryland. On the other hand it differed considerably from the Kansas and Maryland wheat, no matter on what soil these were grown.

In other words, it is stated, the wheat grown on the three soils in one locality was similar in composition and appearance, but quite different from the same wheat grown on the same soils in the two other localities.

REFUSES TO DIVULGE NAME

W. R. McCurdy Will Not Say Who Brought Famous Letter

Halifax, May 1.—W. R. McCurdy, news editor of the Halifax Herald, appeared at the bar of the house of assembly and refused to tell that body who brought the now famous "Ian McLean" letter to the Herald office on the night of April 15th. Mr. McCurdy made a brief address to the house, defending his action on the ground that to divulge this name would be a breach of the journalistic code, which might have serious personal results for him. He was remanded temporarily in the custody of the sergeant-at-arms, and will appear before the house again tomorrow afternoon, when some definite disposition of his case will be made.
