Parker Davies Trask Promoted from Grade to Grade.

Corpus Christi, Texas., May 1.-In classes with young men, Parker Davies Trask, of Corpus Christi, a pupil of big wrestling match between Wladek the University of Texas, who is but Zbysco, champion of Europe, and Dr. | fourteen years old, is doing excellent work. It was necessary to obtain special permission before he could enter the university. He is a graduate, of the old high school, class of '13.

He is still in knee breeches and is thoroughly a boyish boy. He bubbles over with life and is as mischievous as Parker was born at Springfield, Mass. He entered the first grade Ipswich, Mass., in the middle of the school year, just before he was six years of age. He could not read at that time. The following September he entered the second grade, and early in the fall his grandfather, Rev. John Low Rogers Trask, of Springfield, after visiting the school, asked his grandson about the third grade work that was recited in his room and discovered that the boy knew that work Upon examination the boy was immediately promoted. The next spring he moved to Springfield and took an examination on fourth grade work. He was then seven years old. Seeing on a blackboard both his grade work and the work of the grade above, he answered both sets of the questions correctly consequently he was placed in the nith grade. He continued in the Springfield school until he came to

MITCHEL FOR GOVERNOR

Texas.

Wilson Democrats Urge His Candidature in New York.

Albany, N.Y., May 1.—Wilson De-mocrats in the up-state counties who believe that the friends of the Washington administration should take the initiative of proposing candida-tes for governorships, United States senatorships, and other offices, are busy finding out whether John Pur-roy Mitchel, Mayor of New York, would be a popular candidate for governor. Mayor Mitchel, it is understood from his friends here, would be willing under certain circumstances to make a contest of the primaries in September.

The fact that he has lately accepted an invitation to deliver an address at Chatauqua assembly in Chataugua county, in July, is taken as an indication that he is eager to extend his political activities beyond New York City.

Friends of the National administra-tion are busy arranging for a preprimary conference to assert their leadership over Charles F. Murphy and his agents.
