Growing Old with Glasses—Gracefully
At the age of forty
Glasses are required for close work. You may see apparently as well as ever, but there is a strain on the eyes that can only be relieved by a pair of eyeglasses or spectacles especially suited to your needs.
Glasses prescribed and fitted by our Eyesight Specialist, H. C. Brown, Oph. D., will return the clear, comfortable vision of youth, and be neat and inconspicuous in appearance. No charge is made for a thorough examination and test of the eyes.

MARIE PROVES HERSELF
From the moment Marie was born she had been looked upon as an asset—as something that could be turned into money. The Lindseys were poor, and Mrs. Lindsay craved money. She made up her mind that her daughter should marry wealthy. And as wealth seemed to be embodied in the person of young Sam Travers she decided that he should be the husband of Marie.

Quality Announcement
We beg to notify our customers that where it is found necessary to carry coal delivering, there is an extra charge of 25 cents per ton. Most places can be easily arranged so that the coal may be either shoveled or spotted into the bin, and we recommend that you attend to this and save the carrying charge.
