Wage Case Settled

A resident of the township of Kingston who was charged with non-payment of wages amounting to $13.50, made a settlement with Justice of the Peace George Hunter, on Friday.

Met Immigrants

Friday was a very busy day with Immigration Officer George Hunter. He waited at the railroad station all day for eight immigrants who were expected to arrive in the city. As fast as the men arrive the local officer is able to place them on the farms of the county.

Must be Pretty

It is said that most English barmaids must retire before they are thirty, because the proprietors desire young and pretty lassies serving at the bar. But if they are young and pretty, probably few of them wait before they are thirty to retire into private life.

Injured in Runaway

There was a very exciting runaway yesterday afternoon on Queen street, when a horse attached to a light wagon became frightened and ran down the street. Isaac Zbar, a Hebrew, the owner and driver of the horse was thrown from the seat when the rig collided with the wall at St. Paul's church, and in the mix-up had the misfortune to have his arm broken and his face badly cut up. The horse was not so badly damaged as the driver, but what is left of the wagon is not likely to be repaired by the owner.

Sale at Y.W.C.A.

The Young Women's Christian association, of which Mrs. Smythe is superintendent, and Miss Knowles, secretary, held a very successful tea and sale in the building Friday afternoon, to raise money for general expenses in connection with the institution.

Mrs. H. W. Snelling took in the change at the door, and Mrs. J. Wright, president of the Y.W.C.A., greeted the guests. Mrs. J. S. R. MacCann was chairman of the sale committee. Mrs. Clark, Mrs. W. Wright, Mrs. Muirhead and Mrs. E. C. D. MacCallum were in charge of the bakery table. Mrs. Archibald Strachan poured tea, assisted by the Misses May Macdonnell, Edith Goodwin and Mildred Belton. There was an excellent attendance and the sum of $42 was raised.

THE LATE DR. M. I. BEEMAN

He Filled Large Place in Public Life.

Napanee Beaver.

The death occurred at Newburgh, on Saturday last, of Dr. Milton I. Beeman, one of the village's most respected citizens.

Milton Ira Beeman was born at Selby, Ont., on September 23rd, 1851. In early life he attended the school of his birthplace, and later the grammar schools at Newburgh and Napanee. In 1867 he obtained a first class certificate from the county board of trustees, and taught school for over two years. From 1878 to 1879 he attended the Toronto School of Medicine, and graduated from Toronto university in the latter year, obtaining a silver medal. He began the practice of medicine in Selby, and in the spring of 1874 opened an office in Centreville, remaining there until 1893, when he moved to Newburgh, where he has practiced his profession ever since.

In the year 1878 he married Lillian Henault. A family of six children survive. The children are: Mrs. H. E. Paul, Fort William, Ont.; Mrs. J. K. Fraser, Cobourg, Ont.; Gilbert, captain in the R.C.A., Halifax, N.S.; Harry, conducting a real estate business at Fort William, Ont.; and Mary and Louise at home.

The late Dr. Beeman was an adherent of the Methodist church, a conservative in politics, and was for some years secretary-treasurer of the liberal-conservative association of Addington. He was a member of the Ontario Medical association, being vice-president for one year; also a member of the Canadian Medical association. From 1905 to 1912 he was a valued member of the Provincial Board of Health of Ontario.

In 1874 he became a member of the Masonic order, and was a past master of Victoria Lodge, No. 199, Centreville, and Prince of Wales Lodge, No. 148, Newburgh. He was also past grand pursuivant of the Grand Lodge of Canada. He was also surgeon of the 47th Battalion Frontenac Infantry, and retired in 1899, with rank of major, after fifteen years of faithful service.

Deceased took considerable interest in municipal affairs, and served his village for two years as reeve, and for many years on the council board and school board.

The funeral, which was under Masonic auspices, was held on Monday afternoon, many outside members of the order attending.

Hugh C. Nickle, when spoken to by the Whig Friday afternoon, said that, if possible, Lake Ontario park would be thrown open to the public on June 22nd, three days after the last day of school for the "kiddies."

W. F. Nickle, K.C., M.P., returned to the city yesterday afternoon on the three-twenty C.P.R. train from Ottawa. He did not look any the worse for the recent happenings there.

A Lot of Talking

About Our Shoes

Of course people are talking about their good qualities.

We do not wish to say too much ourselves but if you will try a pair of our newest models you will be so delighted with them you will talk about them to your friends.

We are showing the very newest ideas of shoemaking ever displayed in this city.

Men's shoes, women's shoes and children's shoes, too, have had our special care of selecting so we would be able to please every person's own taste. Try us for your next pair.
