Most Panamas do

Victorias Play Senior City League

Without Tail, and Travelling at Great Speed
Chicago, May 22.—A new comet has appeared in the north-eastern skies, is of the ta-less variety, travelling at a stupendous speed, and has been visible for the last two nights through the great Yerkes telescope at Williams Bay, Wis. It is moving easterly towards the star Capella in the northwestern part of the heavens.

HOME RULE AMENDING BILL

Premier, However, Refuses to Explain Why.

London, May 22.—In the commons Premier Asquith announced the government intention to introduce the home rule amending bill in the House of Lords, but was unable to state the date of such introduction.

amending bill should be introduced in the Lords, but the premier declined to say. Neither would he satisfy curiosity regarding the bill's terms.

ing.

EDITOR DIED A HERO
Refused to Disclose Name — Beaten With Bamboos
London, May 22.—The Daily Telegraph's Pekin correspondent reports that the editor of a Kanchow newspaper was arrested by the general commanding the troops because he "unlawfully" published a verdict and depositions with regard to a certain man who had been decapitated.

Sparrow Pest in England In certain country places, especially near towns, a new source of food is being exploited. At one stock-yard after another you may see village laborers stretching foldnets for sparrows, and the birds are being caught simply for food. They keep down the butcher's bill.

Bush Fires Around Omph Omph, May 20.—Fires are raging in the surrounding vicinity and rain is much needed. Mr. and Mrs. John Massey have taken possession of their new home. Master William Mc-Culloch passed peacefully away on Monday morning, May 18th, after a lingering illness. The remains were taken to MacDonald's Corners for interment. Mr. Bartlett, who has been spending a few weeks at H. Banks', has returned to Montreal. Miss Elsie Banks was the guest of her all's little son, Kenneth, was the

He Unburdens Himself
"Can you bear it if I tell you something serious?" ventured the young husband.
"Yes; don't keep anything from me," gasped the bride.
"Remember, this does not mean that my love for you is growing less."
"Don't break my heart. What is it?"
"Well, my dear, I'm getting tired of angel food every day for dinner.
Would it be too much to ask you to have liver and onions?"—Toronto Mail and Express.

Lost Life in Saving Husband Hooersville, Pa., May 22.—While trying to stop her husband, who was walking in his sleep, from jumping out of a second storey window, at his home here, early yesterday, Mrs.
C. H. Wheeler, wife of a wealthy

PRAYER BOOK CHANGES

A NEW PETITION IS ADDED FOR LABOR MEN.

Changes Are Not Drastic—Litany to Be Shortened and Many New Prayers Are Added.

The first statement on the proposals for the revision of the prayer book, which the bishop of Kingston was requested to prepare by the special revision committee, shows that the "eminently conservative" revision which was forecasted leaves very few marks upon the old forms of morning and evening prayer.

In addition to the present rubric another has been added sanctioning the shortening of the service by the omission of the venite (in morning prayer), of one or more psalms, or of one lesson, of one canticle as appointed of the lesser litany and the Lord's prayer after the creed, and of the prayers following the third collect, except the prayer of St. Chrysostom and the grace.

Retain Creed
The Athanasian creed to be retained in the prayer book in its present place exactly as it stands without any alteration in text or rubric, but that a liturgical version omitting verses 1, 2, 28 and the last verse, be printed immediately after the creed as it now stands. This means that permission is given to use the liturgical version where preferred instead of the creed as it now stands.

Big Importations.
We have received this spring over 6,000,000 lbs. of straw hats—enough to com-
