Would Give No Particulars
It is doubtful if it will, ever be known how Frederick McCormick, who resided at 83 Collingwood street, this city, met his death at the Grand Trunk station at Brockville, on Thursday morning, at an early hour. The Brockville Recorder states that before McCormick died in the general hospital he would not reveal the particulars surrounding the accident. For a time he refused to give his name, but before he died he revealed his identity. His left arm was severed near the elbow and his left leg above the knee.
