ALDERMAN HARRISON IS THE CANDIDATE

He Will Be The Liberal Standard Bearer

IN CONTEST TO WIN

HE WILL GIVE HIMSELF UP TO THE CAMPAIGN.

A Big Rally In The Liberal Rooms—There Was Much Enthusiasm and a Number of Fine Addresses—Kingston to be Redeemed.

Ald. T. F. Harrison will be the standard-bearer for the liberals of Kingston, in the coming election for the Ontario legislature.

Ald. Harrison was nominated by a unanimous vote on Thursday evening, at one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings ever held by the Kingston Reform association. The association's room in the Golden Lion block was filled to overflowing, and Ald. Harrison was tendered an ovation when he accepted the nomination. The meeting was attended by "old war horses" in the liberal ranks, as they were termed, with a large attendance also of the young men of the party, members of the Young Liberal club. Col. R. E. Kent, the president, presided at the meeting. Ald. Harrison made a striking speech following his nomination, in which he dealt with many of the issues before the public, giving warm support to the policy of N. W. Rowell, the leader of the liberal party in the Ontario house.

In addition to the candidate, there were addresses by Ex-Ald. Robert Elliott, N. C. Polson, Jr., president of the Young Liberal club; Dr. A. W. Richardson, A. E. Weller, ex-president of the county of Frontenac Reform association; J. G. Elliott and Ald. N. E. O'Connor.

In his opening remarks, Col. Kent stated that the meeting was called for the express purpose of selecting a candidate, and stated that if the right man was nominated, the party would have no trouble in bringing about his election. He took occasion to pay a warm tribute to Mr. Rowell and the good work he had been carrying on. Mr. Rowell, he said, had been making great strides, and the people of Ontario were at his back.

There was a general feeling that the Whitney government had been long enough in power, and the liberal party had a policy which was sure to be a winner. The chairman spoke but briefly, after which he called for nominations.

W. A. Mitchell moved that the nomination be tendered to Ex-Ald. Robert Elliott, but the latter declined, and nominated Ald. Harrison, his selection being seconded by Ex-Ald. Dr. W. A. McCarthy.

Robert Elliott's Address

Mr. Elliott thanked the mover and seconder of his nomination, but stated that at the present time, it would be impossible for him to allow his name to go before the meeting. His withdrawal was largely through business reasons. He had served the city, in the council, for twenty years, and he did not begrudge the time he had given to civic affairs. He was glad to know that after his twenty years' service in the council, he held the confidence of the people, but begged to be excused from allowing his name to go to a ballot.

"But I have the name of a gentleman to place before this meeting which will mean victory for the liberal party," added Mr. Elliott. "I will move that Ald. T. F. Harrison be the standard-bearer for the party."

The name of Ald. Harrison was received with cheers and loud applause and it was some time before Mr. Elliott was able to proceed with his address, so enthusiastic was the audience over Mr. Elliott's selection.

"I am pleased that the name I have mentioned has been met with such hearty approval," continued Mr. Elliott. "Any person would consider it a great honor to follow a man like Mr. Rowell. He is a gentleman who is well qualified to fill any office in the gift of Ontario government, for the people of Ontario (loud applause). If we are to judge by current events, and by the fight he has put up from one end of the province to the other, and also in the legislature I say we, as liberals, should, if for no other reason, give him our loyal and hearty support, and in nominating Mr. Harrison we have secured a gentleman who is in hearty accord with Mr. Rowell's sentiments and views of liberalism."

Praise for Rowell

Mr. Elliott proceeded to point out some of the good things Mr. Rowell had put forth. He said there were one or two things the people of Kingston were directly interested in. One matter which Mr. Rowell was interested in, and which would work for the welfare of the people of Ontario, was that of tax reform. Just think what it would mean to the city of Kingston. In his tax reform policy, he was working to have the tax taken off buildings and houses, and placed on the land. Some might ask what improvement this would bring about. He would say that it would mean a vast improvement. "If we were given this privilege in Kingston, the many shacks would disappear as if by magic, and why? Because the land would be too valuable for the houses on them. Every vacant lot would be built upon. The land would be too valuable to be left vacant. More buildings would be erected, and more buildings would mean that rents would go down."

"And this is a most important question in these days of high cost of living. What percentage of the people of Kingston are householders? I took the trouble to find this out, and I learned that there are fifty per cent. more tenants. Every workingman for this one reason alone, should rally to the support of Mr. Rowell in this campaign. If we elect Mr. Harrison he will help put this legislation into effect. But this is not the only issue we have to consider."

Mr. Elliott stated that the fight for Mr. Rowell would not be fought by the liberals alone; the fight would also be engaged in by the progressive party against an unprogressive party.

Abolishing the Bars

The speaker said that "the abolition of the bar" policy would be an important issue in the contest. In the campaign a great many deserters, no doubt, would be found in the liberal ranks. Some whose business would be injured by the abolishing of the bar, would vote against it, and we could not blame them. It was through no fault of theirs that they were in the liquor business, as it was a licensed business by the government. It was carried on in a legitimate way.

"But it does seem that we have something stronger to face," added the speaker, warming up to his subject. "We have something more to consider than one hotelkeeper or ten hotelkeepers. There is more at stake. I notice that the Toronto Globe, and even some of the conservative newspapers, refer to the matter by saying that it is a question of saving the boys or saving the bar. I think it is the duty of every liberal to try, and save the boy and let the bar go (loud applause). There are good active men in the liquor business. They will soon be able to find other employment, and I am inclined to believe some of them will need other employment, as they will be in a position to retire as a result of the fruits of their labor."

"In the candidate we have selected to-night, nothing can be said against him. During all the time he has lived in Kingston, he has been an ardent worker in the cause of temperance and moral reform. Our conservative friends can have no objection to voting for Mr. Harrison if they have a leaning towards the temperance cause."
