RELIGIOUS WAR

In The Balkans Is Appalling To People

CAMPAIGN TO DRIVE

THE GREEKS FROM THRACE IS THE OBJECT.

Peace Treaties Are Responsible for New Era of Struggle and Butchery — Greeks Are Oppressed by Turks.

London, June 2.—The troubles of Mexico and Ulster have wholly overshadowed public interest in the near east during recent months. But the formal ending of the Balkan war has brought no rest to that long-suffering region.

Thrace, Macedonia and Albania are boiling with racial and religious strife.

Stories of fighting, of prosecution and of massacre come to the London papers from many correspondents, and are printed in small type with little comment. Europe has come to accept these conditions as a matter of course.

The changes of boundaries and of sovereignty which resulted from the peace treaties, and the launching of Albania as an autonomous state are responsible for the new era of struggle and butchery. Every power concerned in the new allotments is trying to impress not only its laws but its own state religion upon those who have become its subjects, if the current historians are to be believed.

People Forcibly Converted.

Forcible "conversions" by wholesale seem the order of the day. Between the Christian and the Musselman dispensations, between Greeks, Turks, Bulgarians, Roumanians, Servians and Albanians there is little choice of standards of civilization. Much of the information comes from Athens, which presents events only from the standpoint of Greek interests; much is disseminated by the newspapers of Vienna, which is a fountain of canards.

The Turkish government is determined to drive the whole Greek population from Thrace, according to accounts from Greek sources. It has organized a campaign of oppression which is making life impossible for people of Greek faith in the country about Kirly Kilesse, Lake Burgas and all the land which Bulgaria conquered in the first war and lost through the final treaty. By Greeks is meant the adherents of the Greek church, since nationality is recognized as following religion rather than blood in those regions.

The Greeks are pictured as having as desperate times in Thrace under the rod of the young Turk as the Bulgarians had in Macedonia under Abdul Hamid. The methods of terrorism are the same.

PARIS RIOTS FEARED.

Paris, France, June 2.—That riots are possible following the resignation of the Doumergue cabinet, was indicated to-day when President Poincare ordered the troops now on manoeuvres some miles away, to return to Paris at once. It is believed that M. Rebe Viviani, minister of public instruction, will be called upon to form a new cabinet.

TWO WEEKS CAMPAIGNING

Ministers Will Not Go on Stump for Week or More.

Toronto, June 2.—The campaign for the election of a new legislature is going to be one of the shortest the province has known in many years. The prime minister's announcement of dissolution and a new election is only a month ahead of polling, but the campaign itself will last scarcely half that time.

For the next week or more nominating conventions will be the order of the day, and the ministers will be kept busy addressing them. The first public meetings, so far as the members of the government are concerned, are to be held about the latter part of next week, and until Saturday, June 27th, they will be kept busy. The brunt of the campaign speaking will fall upon Hon. W. J. Hanna, Hon. I. B. Lucas, Hon. W. H. Hearst and Hon. James Duff.

There has been an expectation in some quarters that Sir James Whitney might address at least one meeting during the campaign. While the prime minister is quite equal to the task, his colleagues will probably persuade him not to risk anything that will give him a setback in his progress to perfect health. It is not unlikely, however, that Sir James may appear on the platform during the campaign.

Finally Agreed Upon

Ottawa, June 2.—It is stated that all difficulties in connection with re-distribution have been smoothed over and that the bill will be put through this session after all. Richmond, N. S., and Russell, Ont., are to be eliminated. These were the last remaining points of difference.

To Be a Candidate.

New York, June 2.—District Attorney Charles S. Whitman announces his candidacy for the republican nomination for governor. "I expect to be a candidate for the nomination for governor in the republican primaries," he said.

F. W. J. Owens, ex-M.P.P., and Thomas Hooker were nominated by the conservatives for South-East Toronto. Liberals nominated: Niagara Falls, Ald. Harry P. Stephens.

THE YOUNG LIBERALS ON TRIP AROUND WORLD

HAD A BIG MEETING ON MONDAY EVENING.

To Hold Social Gatherings — N. W. Rowell to Speak in the City Hall on June 16th.

An evidence that the young liberals of Kingston are out to elect F. F. Harrison, candidate for the provincial house, was shown, on Monday evening, when a very large number were present at a meeting in the liberal rooms, Wellington street. Ward and sub-division chairmen were elected. During the past week the president and the secretary have been busy selecting the best men for the position. It is intended to have a number of social gatherings for the next four weeks. The first event will be held on Friday evening and will be a smoking concert. There will be a musical programme. Every young man in Kingston, who is anxious that F. F. Harrison be elected, should attend these gatherings.

It has been definitely arranged that N. W. Rowell, leader of the opposition, will be in Kingston on the evening of June 16th, and will address a big gathering in the city hall.

Identify Remains of Hunter.

Quebec, June 2.—After having lain in the morgue for fourteen hours without a hint being given as to his identity, the body of one of the most "arduous passengers" on board the Empress of Ireland was recognized yesterday.

Clad in trousers and coat, his evening clothes, and white shirt, the remains of Sir Henry Seton Kerr, a famous traveller, explorer and author, were identified by Arthur Edward Howard, of London, England. Mr. Howard knew Sir Henry personally and crossed with him on the Lusitania when he came to America on his last trip, and came here to seek his body.

The body lay in a rough pine box, not a coffin, but in a case in which caskets are enclosed. Thousands had passed him, and many had been held by the fine features of the man, but the features were slightly bloated, and thus the whole expression of the face was transformed.

Here in this shed, among the multitudes of other "unknowns," lay this great man, who until he was identified, was known merely as No. 157. Sir Henry Seton Kerr's last known act was to force his life-belt on to a fellow passenger, whom he did not know.

Found the Logbook.

Quebec, June 2.—Captain Pouliot, of the government steamer Lady Evelyn, recovered the Empress log-book while coasting for bodies.

The book is not damaged, being found in a water-tight metal box. It is supposed that the first officer, whose body was identified here Sunday, leaped with it from the sinking boat and that when he drowned he loosened his grip from the box, leaving it to drift.

Blow Hand Off.

Orangeville, Ont., June 2.—Allan, the twelve-year-old son of John Huskinson, of Mono, about seven miles from here, blew his left hand off with an air gun. The little fellow, who was alone with two younger children, filled the air gun with wire from a broken umbrella, and the weapon went off, shattering the hand.

The frightened children ran to Mr. Allan's neighboring farmer, whose daughter ran over and bound up the wrist and telephoned here for Dr. Carson.

COUPLE OF TOURISTS HELD UP BY THE POLICE.

Made to Settle for License and Also for Damage in a Mashup at Lyndhurst — Left Amsterdam, Holland, Over a Month Ago.

On their way around the world in an automobile H. de Kaintz and T. A. Boras, of Amsterdam, Holland, were held up by Constable James Craig when they reached Catteraugui bridge early on Monday evening.

James Withers, of Lyndhurst, telephoned the police that two men in a motor car had run into his rig, doing damage to the extent of about $20, and asked that the men be detained and made to pay up. At the same time the men were wanted to pay for a license while enjoying their tour through Canada. The tourists made a settlement both for the damage at Lyndhurst and also for their license.

The men came to Kingston from Ottawa where they spent the week-end. They left Amsterdam over a month ago and are making the trip by easy stages. They first visited Norway, and then took in France and Belgium, coming back through Holland, and then across to London, England, and on to Liverpool, where they embarked for Canada. They are heading now for Vancouver, B.C.

The men are travelling in a French five-passenger Chaumont touring car and are fishing and hunting whenever an opportunity offers. Their car weighs 1,700 pounds, and the men are carrying 500 pounds of luggage, including tents, cooking utensils, fishing tackle and arms.

The only difficulty the men have met with so far is the Canadian roads.

WEAR ALL-WHITE CLOTHES

Kansas Man Asked to Discard Blue and Black Suits.

Dr. J. C. Crombine, secretary of the state board of health, would make the main streets of all Kansas towns resemble the promenade of a tropical city.

He has addressed a circular to men of Kansas asking them to discard their blue and black summer clothing for white. He wears white during the hot season and says it pays. Also, he would discard ice water as a menace to health.

"Women have learned the value of white dresses in the summer time," said Dr. Crombine. "I can't understand why the men haven't learned the lesson long ago. Anything that resists heat in the summer makes for health. Black, blue or any other dark cloth is a heat absorbent and injurious."

"Our summer temperatures are as high, and sometimes higher, than in the tropics. The fact that the air is dryer is all that saves us. White clothes in the tropics are not a whim of fashion—they are a tribute to necessity and health."

"The man in dark, heavy clothing always is rushing to the ice water," continued Dr. Crombine. "And ten to one he will have a grouch on, while the cool man in white clothing is serene and even-tempered. The ice water, dark clothing and the grouch are detrimental to public and private health."

GOES TO TRUST.

Property Worth More Than $250,000 Affected by Decision.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 2.—A withdrawal order by which William H. Taft in 1909, while president, exempted from entry government lands in California variously estimated in value at from $250,000,000 to $1,000,000,000, was declared valid in a decision by Judge Maurice P. Dooling, of the United States district court of San Francisco, which reached Los Angeles by mail to-day. Judge Dooling heard the case in Los Angeles, sitting in place of Judge Wallborn, who considered himself disqualified.

The former president had planned to provide a great source of fuel for the American navy by exempting the oil land from entry by private locators. The decision gives to the Midway Oil company and the Standard Oil company, the principal defendants, undisputed possession.
